Works William Paley, 1828 The Remembering William Hager, 2023-02-13 The Remembering is a firsthand first person account of an attempted demonic possession Yes I know how it sounds but I can assure you the events described in my book not only happened but they happened to me I was personally attacked by something truly evil and disgusting and it left me spiritually and emotionally devastated My memory of the attack was shattered and the process of reassembling those pieces nearly destroyed me both physically and spiritually I didn't know pain on that level even existed This book started out as my journal and was never meant to be published It was my lifeline my tether to reality Putting the events and the horrifying aftermath of reassembling my shattered memory down into words became an intense form of therapy Getting it down on paper became a mission of sorts as I found more and more solace in the act of exorcising those terrible feelings via my writing However as I wrote out the feelings and emotions and began a quest for answers that would lead me to some very unexpected people and places I found that the religious convictions I had held all my life suddenly twisted into some unrecognizable form In this book I try to express what it felt like to be physically and spiritually touched by something unspeakably evil How it was to endure the thought that my soul had been stained by my encounter That somehow my soul was now tainted and my immortal future drawn into serious question But I survived to tell the tale and to grow in ways I'm still discovering I'm here to share my story of the demon that tried to take my soul and the Angels that came to my rescue
