BOOK JACKET Goethe: A Very Short Introduction Ritchie Robertson,2016-01-28 In 1878 the Victorian critic Matthew Arnold wrote: Goethe is the greatest poet of modern times because, having a very considerable gift for poetry, he was at the same time in the width, depth, and richness of his criticism of life by far our greatest modern man. In this Very Short Introduction, Ritchie Robertson covers the life and work of Johann Wolfgang von Goethe (1749-1832), scientist, administrator, artist, art critic, and supreme literary writer, in a vast variety of genres. Looking at Goethe's poetry, novels, and drama pieces, as well as his travel writing, autobiography, and essays on art and aesthetics, Robertson analyses some of the key themes in his works: love, nature, religion, and tragedy. Dispelling the misconception of Goethe as a sedate Victorian sage, Robertson shows how much of his art was rooted in turbulent personal conflicts and draws on recent research to present a complete portrait of the scientific work and political activity which accompanied Goethe's writings.

Hume:
A Very Short Introduction Alfred Ayer, 2000-10-12 Hume is one of the greatest of all British philosophers and even in his own lifetime was celebrated as one of the pivotal figures of the Enlightenment. Hume's naturalist approach to a wide variety of philosophical topics resulted in highly original theories about perception, self-identity, causation, morality, politics, and religion, all of which are discussed in this stimulating introduction by A. J. Ayer himself, one of the twentieth century's most important philosophers. Ayer also gives an account of Hume's fascinating life and character and includes generous quotations from Hume's lucid and often witty writings.
