Resonare Christum John Joseph Wright, 1995-04      Ethics and Electronic Information Barbara Rockenbach, Tom Mendina, 2015-10-03 Stephen Almagno's career as a professor of library science began at the University of Pittsburgh in 1971. In 1990 he became the first professor in the United States to teach an information ethics course in a library and information science program. Almagno's work in the area of information ethics was recognized at the 2001 Ethics of Electronic Information in the 21st Century symposium held at the University of Memphis on October 18-21, 2001 upon the occasion of his retirement from the University of Pittsburgh. The essays in this book were presented at the symposium honoring Almagno. The first section of the book features papers that pay special tribute to Almagno. The second contains papers on library issues and ethics such as the ethics of electronic information in China and eastern Europe, the organizations that represent information professionals, the ethics of user privacy in the digital library and ethical implications of e-commerce to name just a few. The third section covers topical issues such as Internet plagiarism, ethical hacking and the security justification, social democracy and information media policy and the ethics of dialogue among others.      The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1989      Resonare Christum John J. Cardinal Wright, R. Stephen Almagno, Anthony Bosco, 1988-04      Books in Print, 2003-09 Books in Print is the major source of information on books currently published and in print in the United States.
