Resounding Rose Fish:

Resounding Rose Fish Jason Leonard, 2003 Olaus Magnus, A Description of the Northern Peoples, 1555 P.G.
Foote, 2018-02-06 The Swedish scholar and prelate Olaus Magnus 1490 1557 last Catholic archbishop of Uppsala lived the latter half of his life in exile His devotion to his country and his people never faltered nor his determination to give them a glorious place on the European cultural map by his writings On his justly famous Carta Marina published in Venice in 1539 he promised a fuller account of the North and its marvels This he accomplished in January 1555 when he issued from his own press in Rome his magnificent Historia de gentibus septentrionalibus This quarto volume of 815 pages divided into 22 books and a total of 778 chapters was lavishly illustrated with some 480 woodcuts most of them closely relevant to the technical matters discussed by the author The book was an immediate success and half a dozen editions appeared in the century after Olaus's death It became even better known in an epitome published in Antwerp in 1558 which was also frequently reprinted and translated This appeared in English in 1658 but it is only with the present version complete with illustrations that the whole work is made available to the English reading world It is indeed only the second full translation to appear in modern times preceded a Swedish version published in four parts between 1909 and 1925 There is little history in the sense of chronological narrative in Olaus Magnus's Historia It is rightly regarded as an ethnographic essay on an encyclopaedic scale touching on a vast variety of topics snowflakes and sea serpents elks and artillery sables and saltpetre watermills and werewolves Much of it was culled from ancient authorities it was a matter of patriotic pride to identify the Swedes as the only legitimate descendants of the Goths but much of it was derived from the author's personal observations especially those made on his early travels in North Sweden His pioneering and sympathetic account of the Lapps and their way of life has attracted p Journal of the Flyfishers' Club ,1911 In Earthen Vessels Chandler Davenport, 2007-11-01 He was only fourteen in 1950 but he had to take on manhood early The depression that the rest of America had clambered out of a decade earlier still hung on in rural Oklahoma A lot of people had solved that problem in a way by taking to the road west lured by the golden promise of a better land but those who were too poor or too proud or too stubborn to leave held on Those who were poor proud and stubborn like his family managed to build a life out of corn bread poke greens labor and hope It made them a special breed But Jody didn't know that Jody had to grow up in a hurry His maturation fell into the hands of some damaged human vessels who had to show him the difference between what's legal and what's right between adulthood and manhood between appetite and love between respectability and integrity Fishing, Fish Culture & the Aquarium ,1889
