Bewitching Silvia Moreno-Garcia, 2025-07-15 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Three women in three different eras encounter danger and witchcraft in this eerie multigenerational horror saga from the New York Times bestselling author of Mexican Gothic. In Silvia Moreno Garcia's sure hands every uncovered secret is fraught with intrigue and creeping horror. Tananarive Due Bram Stoker Award winning author of The Reformatory. Back then when I was a young woman there were still witches. That was how Nana Alba always began the stories she told her great granddaughter Minerva, stories that have stayed with Minerva all her life. Perhaps that's why Minerva has become a graduate student focused on the history of horror literature and is researching the life of Beatrice Tremblay, an obscure author of macabre tales. In the course of assembling her thesis, Minerva uncovers information that reveals that Tremblay's most famous novel The Vanishing was inspired by a true story. Decades earlier during the Great Depression Tremblay attended the same university where Minerva is now studying and became obsessed with her beautiful and otherworldly roommate who then disappeared under mysterious circumstances. As Minerva descends ever deeper into Tremblay's manuscript, she begins to sense that the malign force that stalked Tremblay and the missing girl might still walk the halls of the campus. These disturbing events also echo the stories Nana Alba told about her girlhood in 1900s Mexico where she had a terrifying encounter with a witch. Minerva suspects that the same shadow that darkened the lives of her great grandmother and Beatrice Tremblay is now threatening her own in 1990s Massachusetts. An academic career can be a punishing pursuit, but it might turn outright deadly when witchcraft is involved.

Convergence and divergence in Ibero-Romance across contact situations and beyond Miriam Bouzouita, Renata Enghels, Clara Vanderschueren, 2021-10-25 This book aims to provide a better understanding of convergence and non-convergence phenomena such as divergence from different theoretical perspectives. It brings together nine case studies that deal with contact between languages found in the Iberian Peninsula: Castilian, Catalan, Portuguese and Basque; between Spanish or Portuguese and another language such as English; and between different varieties from Europe and other continents. The volume thus unites views from two fields that rarely interact: contact linguistics and dialectology. It discusses the mechanisms and consequences of language contact within the Ibero-Romance world, a geographical space characterised by a high rate of multilingual speakers and settings. The contributions deal with various combinations of convergence and divergence, for example between different varieties of the same language, language stability despite contact as well as less studied aspects such as the relation between language contact and second language acquisition, the linguistic landscape, perspective of language contact and divergence in linguistic identity construction.
