Official Steamship Guide International,2000 Imagining Atlantis Richard Ellis,2012-01-11 Ever since Plato created the legend of the lost island of Atlantis it has maintained a uniquely strong grip on the human imagination For two and a half millennia the story of the city and its catastrophic downfall has inspired people from Francis Bacon to Jules Verne to Jacques Cousteau to speculate on the island s origins nature and location and sometimes even to search for its physical remains It has endured as a part of the mythology of many different cultures yet there is no indisputable evidence let alone proof that Atlantis ever existed What then accounts for its seemingly inexhaustible appeal Richard Ellis plunges into this rich topic investigating the roots of the legend and following its various manifestations into the present He begins with the story s origins Did it arise from a common prehistorical myth Was it a historical remnant of a lost city of pre Columbians or ancient Egyptians Was Atlantis an extraterrestrial colony Ellis sifts through the scientific evidence marshaled to prove these theories and describes the mystical and spiritual significance that has accrued to them over the centuries He goes on to explore the possibility that the fable of Atlantis was inspired by a conflation of the high culture of Minoan Crete with the destruction wrought on the Aegean world by the cataclysmic eruption around 1500 b c of the volcanic island of Thera or Santorini A fascinating historical and archaeological detective story Imagining Atlantis is a valuable addition to the literature on this essential aspect of our mythohistory

Encountering Nature Thomas Heyd,2016-04-29 This book argues that an attentive encounter with nature is of key importance for the development of an environmentally appropriate culture The fundamental idea is that the environmental degradation that we are increasingly experiencing is best conceived as the consequence of a cultural mismatch our cultures seem not to be appropriate to the natural environment in which we move and on which we depend in thoroughgoing ways In addressing this problem Thomas Heyd weaves together a rich tapestry of perspectives on human interactions with the natural world ranging from traditional modes of managing human communities that include the natural environment to the consideration of poetic travelogues ecological restoration and botanic gardens The volume is divided into three parts which respectively consider the relation of human beings to nature in terms of ethics aesthetics and culture It engages the current literature in each of these areas with the help of inter disciplinary approaches as well as on the basis of personal encounters with natural spaces and processes The ultimate aim of this book is to make a contribution to the development of a cultural fabric that is suitable to the natural spaces and processes in which we may thrive and on which we all depend as individuals and as a species Ford's International Cruise Guide ,1989 Calypso's Promise Nicholas Gerassimakis,2011-03 It is 1922 when Jonas Knight a seventy year old self made millionaire begins an expedition to find a mysterious cave that he feels holds the secret to what he has been seeking his entire life eternal youth Known for his energy and vitality Knight is aware his time on earth is running out as he embarks on a relentless search for a way to cheat death After uncovering the history of two rival kings one of whom supposedly discovered a fountain of youth Knight heads to a Greek island where he hopes to find the fountain which was reported to have been lost forever After he accidentally slips and plunges into an ancient cave he is exposed to a plant that can reverse the aging process Suddenly his team of scientists learns both the benefits and the problems that accompany the ability to live multiple life cycles Decades later Mike Andros is a renowned investigative report and author who is on a fast track to self destruction Events beyond his control create a new destiny that leads him straight to the same Greek island where he soon makes a discovery that has the potential to change the future of mankind The Santorini Odyssey Peg Maddocks,2004-05 Kathy O Neal a corporate veteran of over twenty years with AT T received much acclaim for her ability to pitch project proposals to top decision makers Over 1 1 Billion has been granted to business proposals presented by the author This seasoned business woman now shares her expertise in Powerful Project Proposals Presenting to Big Shots This book takes the reader into the psyche of executives to reveal their key fears and to zero in on what these Big Shots truly consider to be of value The book focuses on the advanced processing skill sets essential for high potential fast tracked business professionals Most professional business speakers authors are entrepreneurs the author explains They haven t had experience working in the corporate trenches Truly succeeding in a complex corporate structure requires far different skill sets than running your own small company I ve designed this book specifically to support business professionals who work in mid to large size corporations and for those who present to the Big Shots of such corporations Kathy s entertaining views on the corporate world have been presented to Fortune 1000 companies such as Bristol Myers Squibb Travelers Insurance American Century and Whirlpool Financial Borrowed Time Paul Monette,2014-03-25 An eloquent testimonial to the power of love and the devastation of loss from the National Book Award winning author of Becoming a Man Publishers

Weekly In 1974 Paul Monette met Roger Horwitz the man with whom he would share more than a decade of his life In 1986 Roger died of complications from AIDS Borrowed Time traces this love story from start to tragic finish At a time when the medical community was just beginning to understand this mysterious and virulent disease Monette and others like him were coming to terms with unfathomable loss This personal account of the early days of the AIDS crisis tells the story of love in the face of death A finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award Borrowed Time was one of the first memoirs to deal candidly with AIDS and is as moving and relevant now as it was more than twenty five years ago Written with fierce honesty and heartwarming tenderness this book is part love story part testimony and part requiem This ebook features an illustrated biography of Paul Monette including rare images and never before seen documents from the Paul Monette papers of the UCLA Library Special Collections

The Search for Atlantis Stephen Kershaw,2018-10-02 The Atlantis story remains one of the most haunting and enigmatic tales from antiquity and one that still resonates very deeply with the modern imagination But where did Atlantis come from what was it like and where did it go Atlantis was first introduced by the Greek philosopher Plato in the fourth century BCE As he discusses about the origins of life the universe and humanity the great thinker puts forward a stunning description of Atlantis an island paradise with an ideal society But the Atlanteans soon degenerate and become imperialist aggressors they choose to fight against antediluvian Athens which heroically repels their mighty forces before a cataclysmic natural disaster destroys the warring states Plato s tale of a great empire that sank beneath the waves has sparked thousands of years of debate over whether Atlantis really existed But did Plato mean his tale as history or just as a parable to help illustrate his philosophy

Bellum Sanctum Nicholas Anthony,2024-04-26 Parallel discoveries of a God like power inflame a thousand year old hatred Radical science and religious fervour combine in a new form of terror When former eco warrior Dr Daniel Bayford discovers something extraordinary in the hills of Southern France he and meteorologist Dr Kara Williams become the unwitting targets of a powerful secret guild and the world s most wanted terrorist group Bizarre events betrayal and stubborn curiosity propel them on a dangerous quest to uncover dark truths and sinister connections and prevent the mother of all religious wars

Seagoing Ships and Seamanship in the Bronze Age Levant Shelley Wachsmann,2018-05-04 During the Bronze Age the ancient societies that ringed the Mediterranean once mostly separate and isolate began to reach across the great expanse of sea to conduct trade marking an age of immense cultural growth and technological development These intersocietal lines of communication and paths for commerce relied on rigorous open water travel And as a potential

superhighway the Mediterranean demanded much in the way of seafaring knowledge and innovative ship design if it were to be successfully navigated In Seagoing Ships and Seamanship in the Bronze Age Levant Shelley Wachsmann presents a one of a kind comprehensive examination of how the early eastern Mediterranean cultures took to the sea and how they evolved as a result The author surveys the blue water ships of the Egyptians Syro Canaanites Cypriots Early Bronze Age Aegeans Minoans Mycenaeans and Sea Peoples and discusses known Bronze Age shipwrecks Relying on archaeological ethnological iconographic and textual evidence Wachsmann delivers a fascinating and intricate rendering of virtually every aspect of early sea travel from ship construction and propulsion to war on the open water piracy and laws pertaining to conduct at sea This broad study is further enhanced by contributions from other renowned scholars J Hoftijzer and W H van Soldt offer new and illuminating translations of Ugaritic and Akkadian documents that refer to seafaring J R Lenz delves into the Homeric Greek lexicon to search out possible references to the birdlike shapes that adorned early ships stem and stern F Hocker provides a useful appendix and glossary of nautical terms and George F Bass s foreword frames the study s scholarly significance and discusses its place in the nautical archaeological canon This book brings together for the first time the entire corpus of evidence pertaining to Bronze Age seafaring and will be of special value to archaeologists maritime historians philologists and Bronze Age textual scholars Offering an abundance of line drawings and photographs and written in a style that makes the material easily accessible to the layperson Wachsmann s study is certain to become a standard reference for anyone interested in the dawn of sea travel

Pilgrimage to Crete W.E. Welbourne, 2016-06-24 At the outset of the Second World War on September 1 1939 young Aussie diggers are rushed to assist Britain in its hour of need to the nearest European war zone in the Middle East and North Africa My Uncle Arthur young Arty is one of these a sapper with 6 years militia training as an army engineer The ANZAC forces sweep through Libya from Egypt to Benghazi defeating superior numbers of heavily armed Italians the first Allied land victory of the war Ill equipped and lacking promised supplies the ANZACs are then inappropriately redirected from North Africa to Greece to help the Greeks face the overwhelming German advance Retreating to Crete Arty is captured in the Battle of Crete and becomes a POW I am motivated to visit the conflict zones of Gallipoli and to follow my uncles wartime exploits from the time of his capture in June 1941 until his third and final escape from a German work camp in Czechoslovakia in 1945 Modern day travel makes it possible to visit not only the more recent wartime scenes of Central Europe but also to visit the sites of classical civilizations to discover the history art and cultures of the Mediterranean Accompanying me on my journey is Avril who was born in England and has vivid wartime memories of the conflict from her childhood
