The Dramatic Works of G. E. Lessing: Miss Sara Sotti, Nathan the Wise Gotthold Ephraim Lessing, 2016-09-07 A Translation of some of Lessing's works has long been contemplated for Bonn's Standard Library and the publishers are glad to be able to bring it out at a time when an increased appreciation of this writer has become manifest in this country The publication of Mr Sime's work on Lessing and the almost simultaneous appearance of Miss Helen Zimmern's shorter but probably more popular biographical study will without doubt tend to spread amongst English speaking people a knowledge of a writer who is held in peculiar reverence by his own countrymen and there is little if anything of what he wrote that does not appeal in some way or other to the sympathies of Englishmen In this translation it is purposed to include the most popular of his works the first two volumes comprising all the finished dramatic pieces whilst the third will contain the famous Laokoon and a large portion of the Hamburg Dramaturgy here called Dramatic Notes and some other smaller pieces The arrangement of the plays is as follows The first volume contains the three tragedies and the dramatic poem Nathan the Wise This last piece and Emilia Galotti are translated by Mr R Dillon Boylan whose English versions of Schiller's Don Carlos Goethe's Wilhelm Meister and as it happens that all these comedies with the exception of the last and best Minna von Barnhelm were written before he published any more serious dramatic composition we have by reversing the order of the first two volumes an almost exactly chronological view of Lessing's dramatic work The later section of it has been placed at the commencement of the series simply because it was more convenient to include in it the introductory notice which Miss Zimmern kindly consented to write

Hendershot,2015-04-17 What if we could travel in time and space as we do in the air Are the deepest seas in the same degree close as the stars from the far corners of the universe Are we truly as primitive as we are led to believe So many questions remain unanswered while we struggle with our existence We covet the great conquerors and leaders throughout history We cry as we see our credit card balances increase and savings accounts decrease We fantasize over great vacations or living in a wonderful mansion and question the line between reality and fiction Fortunately the answers to so many of our questions are not as far from us as we might believe Our distant ancestors might not be in the role of untouchable as we once believed Each night we casually lay down to rest from our daily struggles and mysteriously venture into another dimension that is as real during its control over our mind and body as our lives in the material world The power of dreams takes us into other worlds and ages where all our songs are hits and we win our battles Even though we do not win all our battles we still come out victorious What was false may now be true and the stars are in our back yard Love obeys its own rules as the wicked and hateful fall down before us These worlds of worlds where kings follow our commands remain as great a mystery today as it was for those who walked among the Earth millennium earlier We preserve our sanity by disregarding this special world maintaining that it is not real Is it real or fantasy Even though our adventures erase from our minds quickly after we awaken the fact that we were there cannot be denied Discover what happens when this solid line begins to vanish What Do I Read
