Saussure Jonathan Culler,1986 Saussure. (1. publ.) - (Hassocks, Sussex): The Harvester Press (1976). 127 S.
8° Jonathan D. Culler,1976 Allah Transcendent Ian Richard Netton,2013-01-11 Examines the role of God in medieval Islamic philosophy and theology in a new and exciting way Renouncing the traditional chronological method of considering Islamic philosophy Netton uses modern literary modes of criticism derived from structuralism post structuralism and semiotics Not Saussure Raymond Tallis,2016-07-27 This work subjects the fundamental ideas of Derrida Lacan Barthes and their followers to an examination and demonstrates the baselessness of post Saussurean claims about the relations between language reality and self The Structure of German Anthony Fox,1990 This book is a description of the major features of German according to the principles of modern linguistics It considers aspects of German phonology morphology syntax and semantics as well as varieties and discourse from a theoretical perspective though theory is discussed only insofar as it can throw light on the structure of the language The aim is not to present a reference grammar nor to provide definitive answers to the questions raised but rather to foster a linguistically informed approach to the description of the language No work of the kind has been available in English up to now and the book is intended to fill this gap

Introduction to Systemic Functional Linguistics Suzanne Eggins,2004-01-01 Introduction to systemic functional linguistics explores the social semiotic approach to language most closely associated with the work of Michael Halliday and his colleagues Carved Histories Roger Neich,2001 This comprehensive guide examines the personal histories roles and personalities that played into the traditional cultural art of carving It also traces the influence of European patronage and the ensuing tourist trade upon this art form as many Maori carvers began styling and catering their product to meet their clients aesthetic desires Included is a discussion of the establishment of the government sponsored Rotorua School of Maori Art in 1928 which appointed as the main tutor Eramiha Kapua a Ngati Tarawhai carver thus helping his own traditional tribal art to make the transition into a modern national art Approaches to Cognition through Text and Discourse Tuija Virtanen,2011-05-03 The purpose of this book is to explore the overlapping area of study that discourse linguists and cognitive linguists are interested in In doing so the volume contributes to bridging the gap between these two large groups of linguists who share an interest in discourse processing but approach the area from very different perspectives and frames of reference The starting point of this volume is text and discourse The book includes an overview section and a number of carefully selected contributions which highlight central issues in the study of text and discourse attempting to give them cognitive explanations In responding to the current interest in the area of discourse and cognition the volume has adopted a wide scope which allows its individual chapters to focus on textual and situational contexts as well as the context of culture and society at large The volume also provides its readership with a useful selection of methods used in the studies which form the basis of its chapters The contributions all by established linguists with highest qualifications present new findings which have important theoretical implications They offer unique and fresh analyses of central discourse phenomena in cognitive light and revealing discussions of the avenues opened to us at this stage of the development of the study of discourse and cognition This accessible research volume will be essential reading for scholars and advanced students of linguistics and languages

Islam, Christianity and Tradition Ian Richard Netton, 2006-12-22 Offers a unique comparative exploration of the role of tradition in Islam and Christianity The idea of tradition has enjoyed a variety of senses and definitions in Islam and Christianity but both have cleaved at certain times to a supposedly golden age of tradition from the past The author suggests there has been a chain of thinkers from classical Islam to the twentieth century who share a common interest in ijihad or independent thinking Drawing on past and present evidence and using Christian tradition as a focus for contrast and comparison the author highlights the seemingly paradoxical harmony between tradition and itjihad in Islam The author draws on a variety of primary and secondary sources including contemporary newspaper and journal
