ecosystem services landscape approaches to biodiversity conservation and climate change Each chapter provides a blend of the latest scientific understanding of its focal topics along with considerations and examples of their application from around the world An invaluable guide to the concepts methods and applications of landscape ecology this book will be an important reference text for a wide range of students and academics in ecology geography biology and interdisciplinary environmental studies American Baptist Yearbook ,1919 Desegregation State Annie S. Mendenhall,2022-04-15 The only book length study of the ways that postsecondary desegregation litigation and policy affected writing instruction and assessment in US colleges Desegregation State provides a history of federal enforcement of higher education desegregation and its impact on writing programs from 1970 to 1988 Focusing on the University System of Georgia and two of its public colleges in Savannah one a historically segregated white college and the other a historically Black college Annie S Mendenhall shows how desegregation enforcement promoted and shaped writing programs by presenting literacy remediation and testing as critical to desegregation efforts in southern and border states Formerly segregated state university systems crafted desegregation plans that gave them more control over policies for admissions remediation and retention These plans created literacy requirements admissions and graduation tests remedial classes and even writing centers and writing across the curriculum programs that reshaped the landscape of college writing instruction and denied the demands of Black students civil rights activists and historically Black colleges and universities for major changes to university systems This history details the profound influence of desegregation and resistance to desegregation on the ways that writing is taught and assessed in colleges today Desegregation State provides WPAs and writing teachers with a disciplinary history for understanding racism in writing assessment and writing programs Mendenhall brings emerging scholarship on the racialization of institutions into the field showing why writing studies must pay more attention to how writing programs have institutionalized racist literacy ideologies through arguments about student placement individualized writing instruction and writing assessment

Announcements for Year ... and Bulletin for the ... Quarter State Normal School Fifth District of Missouri (Maryville, Missouri),1908 The Man No One Believed Joshua Sharpe,2025-08-05 Only very rarely does one of our stories one of us change the course of human events Joshua Sharpe asked the right questions refusing easy answers Anna Quindlen Pulitzer Prize winning journalist and best selling author The riveting story of a 1985 double murder a long overdue investigation and the fight to exonerate an innocent man In 1985 a white man walked into a South Georgia church and brutally murdered Harold and Thelma Swain two pillars of the area s Black community The killer vanished into the night For fifteen years the case remained unsolved Then authorities zeroed in on Dennis Perry a carpenter who grew up nearby Convicted with devastatingly flawed evidence Perry received a double life sentence When award winning journalist and South Georgia native Joshua Sharpe retraces the case he discovers a winding path of corruption devastating missteps and secrets Driven by the pursuit of the truth Sharpe s investigation takes him through dusty courthouse archives down winding dirt roads and into intense interviews But he keeps knocking on doors even after they re slammed in his face Sharpe uncovers explosive evidence that helps prove Dennis Perry s innocence And he confronts a long ignored suspect an alleged white supremacist who had bragged about committing the murders But the fight for the truth is not easily won When a key figure in the investigation turns up dead under suspicious circumstances Sharpe s sources and editors insist that he could be in danger And even as evidence mounts of Perry s innocence local officials work to keep him in prison until Sharpe s reporting forces the state to launch a new investigation thirty five years after the Swains murders Driven by Sharpe s tireless reporting The Man No One Believed tells the unbelievable story of one of the most confounding cases in Georgia history the extraordinary fight to free an innocent man and how state officials worked against the odds to deliver justice for the Swains after all Both a riveting true crime story and a searing indictment of American injustice The Man No One Believed is a gripping work of literary journalism a moving examination of how we reckon with the sins of our past
