Save The Family Save The Child:

Save the Family, Save the Child: What We Can Do to Help Children A R , Saving the Children Emily Baughan, 2021-11-23 Saving the Children analyzes the intersection of liberal internationalism and imperialism through the history of the humanitarian organization Save the Children from its formation during the First World War through the era of decolonization Whereas Save the Children claimed that it was saving children to save the world the vision of the world it sought to save was strictly delimited characterized by international capitalism and colonial rule Emily Baughan s groundbreaking analysis across fifty years and eighteen countries shows that Britain s desire to create an international order favorable to its imperial rule shaped international humanitarianism In revealing that modern humanitarianism and its conception of childhood are products of the early twentieth century imperial economy Saving the Children argues that the contemporary aid sector must reckon with its past if it is to forge a new future Save the Family, Save the Child Vincent J. Fontana, Valerie Moolman, 1992 A look at child abuse and neglect employs dozens of actual cases to discuss the cyclical nature of abuse indicting the national child care system schools courts child welfare agencies hospitals and communities Original Child and Family Social Work , 2008-04-30 A special edition of Child Family Social Work focusing on the lives and circumstances of refugee and asylum seeking children and families in several countries Australia Ireland Norway and the United Kingdom Predominantly focusing on unaccompanied or separated children who come to these countries without an adult to look after them But equally importantly many children are accompanied by adult members who seek asylum and sometimes achieve their goal of full refugee status Papers include The child s or the State s best interests An examination of the ways immigration officials work with Unaccompanied asylum seeking minors in Norway Ada Engebrihtsen Asylum Children s rights and Social Work Sarah Cemlyn and Linda Briskman How social workers work with African Refugee Children and their families Toyin Okitikpi and Cathy Amer Promoting psychosocial wellbeing in unaccompanied minors in the United Kingdom Ravi Kohli and Rosie Mather Unsettling the social in social work responses to asylum seeking children in Ireland Alastair Christie The social services response to unaccompanied children in England Fiona Mitchell Each paper analyses the strength and weaknesses of the systems and practices in working with Asylum seekers and refugees Public Hearings on International Child Labor United States.
