Saving the Young Men of Vienna David Kirby, 1987 Winner of the 1987 Brittingham Prize in Poetry The Broadview Anthology of Poetry - Second Edition Amanda Goldrick-Jones, Herbert Rosengarten, 2008-09-30 Among the poets new to this edition are such leading names as Americans Robert Pinsky Louise Erdrich and Louise Glück Britons James Fenton and Carol Ann Duffy and Canadians Anne Carson Robert Bringham and Christian Bok A number of names who may be new to many readers of poetry are also included among them Ohioan Debra Allberry Vancouverite Elise Partridge and the Cree poet Connie Fife as with the first edition the editors have endeavored to include much that is fresh as well as much that is familiar There are many additions to the selections from poets who appeared in the first edition including selections from the recent work of Leonard Cohen Les Murray and Margaret Atwood As before the anthology includes work from English language poets throughout the world from India Africa and the Caribbean as well as from Britain North America and Australia Although the selections from the work of poets of earlier eras are largely unchanged from the first edition there have been some changes among poems added for this edition are Milton's L'Allegro and Il Penseroso Bradstreet's Employment Dickinson's I cannot live without You Frost's Once by the Pacific and Auden's Funeral Blues As before the text emphasizes work of the past century poems from 1900 or later take up more than half of the anthology's pages In its first edition The Broadview Anthology of Poetry included biographical information about the poets at the back of the anthology for the new edition biographical material appears in a headnote to each poet Two other features are also new to this edition the date of first publication is appended after each poem and line numbering is used throughout The numbers have been kept unobtrusive however as with the first edition the designers have endeavored to give a clean look to the pages of the anthology A substantial section on prosody figures of speech and so on is included as an appendix Slow Joy Stefanie Marlis, 1989 In Slow Joy Stefanie Marlis's first full length collection the poems move across boundaries across worlds difficulties and happinesses The book's persona and concerns consciousness suffering and destruction love and death are not unusual What is that the collection as a whole breaks through pain and sorrowful histories and is finally uplifting even redemptive in the sense that prayers are redemptive And the poems in their serious strength urge the reader to draw a parallel between poetry and the silent prayers monks believe redeem the world Marlis writes poems that are potentially redemptive at least for the poet The poems in Slow Joy are wrought with animate imagery with story and with long running lines sprung with falling and rising sounds Marlis's poetry translates pain slowly into joy or as the poet has written makes the bearable a gate The Book Lover's Guide to Florida Kevin M. McCarthy, 1992 Here is the book lover's literary tour of Florida an exhaustive survey of writers books and literary sites in every part of the state The state is divided into ten areas and each one is described from a literary point of view You will learn what authors lived in or wrote about a place which books describe the place what important movies were made there even the literary trivia which the true Florida book lover will want to know

You can use the book as a travel guide to a new way to see the state as an armchair guide to a better understanding of our literary heritage or as a guide to what to read next time you head to a bookstore or library Publisher Sweet Ruin Tony Hoagland, 1992-11-01 Tony Hoagland captures the recognizably American landscape of a man of his generation sex friendship rock and roll cars high optimism and disillusion With what Robert Pinsky has called the saving vulgarity of American poetry Hoagland's small biographies of destruction reveal that defeat is a natural prelude to grace and loss a kind of threshold to freedom A remarkable book Without any rhetorical straining with a disarming witty directness these poems manage to transform every subject they touch from love to politics reaching out from the local and the personal to place the largest issues in the context of feeling It's hard to think of a recent book that succeeds with equal grace in fusing the truth telling and the lyric impulse clarity and song in a way that produces such consistent pleasure and surprise Carl Dennis This is wonderful poetry exuberant self assured instinct with wisdom and passion Carolyn Kizer There is a fine strong sense in these poems of real lives being lived in a real world This is something I greatly prize And it is all colored sometimes brightly by the poet's own highly romantic vision of things so that what we may think we already know ends up seeming rich and strange Donald Justice In Sweet Ruin we're banging along the Baja of our little American lives spritzing truth from our lapels elbowing our compadres the Seven Deadly Sins Maybe we're unhappy in a less than tragic way but our ruin requires of us a love and understanding and loyalty just as deep and sweet as any tragic hero's And it's all the more poignant in a sad and funny way because the purpose of this forced spiritual march Hoagland seems to be saying is to leave ourselves behind Undoubtedly you will recognize among the body count many of your selves Jack Myers The Unbeliever Lisa Lewis, 1994 Lisa Lewis's first collection of poems meditates on people in trouble searching for a way out people whose faith has been tested and found wanting The child who believes in God only on Christmas Eve the teenage girl exploring her sexuality and finding herself forever under male control the young woman struggling in a violent relationship a driver locked in the secure world of her car deliberately swerving close to a traffic cop or using her commuting time to dream of leaving her marriage the men who frequent massage parlors and therapists or threaten to rape the moon all have in common secret skepticism and isolation These poems address with compassion and intensity the wariness of women and men together the distance between them as they attempt to bridge their destructive failures In long lines loaded with the eccentric details of human life the vision of The Unbeliever is dark funny and not without hope as it follows the characters through connections sought and set at odds by difference and circumstance Level Green Judith Vollmer, 1990 The Red Virgin Stephanie Strickland, 1993 Winner of the 1993 Brittingham Prize in Poetry selected by Lisel Mueller Paper edition unseen 9 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Vital Signs Ronald Wallace, 1989 This anthology includes 179 poets published by university presses in recent years It seeks to provide a rich overview of the best contemporary American poetry irrespective of publisher age of poet aesthetic program or current status in the literary canon to celebrate the work of university presses in discovering and supporting that poetry and to suggest some questions about American poetry its democratization canonization aesthetics politics and sociology The volume includes brief histories of poetry publishing at each press their poetry lists and an essay on the American poetry scene of the last 20 years It features poems by such established poets as John Ashbery Marge Piercy Adrienne Rich and James Wright ISBN 0 299 12160 7 29 95 Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora,Amber Vogel,2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor s place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition s written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South s novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary s original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject Sea of Faith John Brehm,2004 In a masterful blending of lyric and narrative Sea of Faith ranges across interior states and external worlds From the Sierra Nevadas to New York City subways from an imagined friendship with Lao Tzu to a meditation on Coney Island from a comic and poignant classroom discussion to a sexual fantasy John Brehm s poems explore the human predicament with tenderness compassion and humor A Path Between Houses Greg Rappleye,2000 Rappleye is not afraid to implicate the self building a heroic persona in the classic sense a person in whom the flaws are as celebrated as the occasional triumph BOOK JACKET And Her Soul Out Of Nothing Olena Kalytiak Davis,1997-10-01 Both contemporary and other worldly Davis s lyrical poetry is a fearless expression of the spirit which defines the very essence of our beings Brief Landing on the Earth's Surface Juanita Brunk,2012-11 In Brief Landing on the Earth s Surface even the most ordinary moments are infused with an awareness of the lost past and a kind of prescience of the future From one setting to another Tidewater Virginia rural Pennsylvania Greece New York City these poems give voice to the human longing for permanence home and connection in the face of a constantly changing reality Salt Renée Ashley,1991 Ren e Ashley describes Salt as an attempt in part to mythologize a period of the 1950s and early 1960s in the California Bay Area suburb where she grew up a racially rich economically varied section of town east of El Camino Real the major road and the tracks so to speak that one grew up on the right or wrong side of Many of the poems in the collection explore Ashley s adjustment to the East Coast after a virtual lifetime in that one place They deal with landscape with marriage with the insight distance seems to lend to hindsight with amusement with regret Ren e Ashley can tune our ears to the thoughts of a wounded sparrow to the sibilance of snow on stone even to the song rocks make as they thaw in spring She wakes us to an intricate enthralling world behind beneath beyond the one we thought we knew alive with particulars laced with compassion luminous with humor Donald Finkel A Field Guide to the Heavens Frank Gaspar,1999 Explaining the potential dangers facing our world this series offers positive suggestions for securing our future The books demystify terms such as global warming acid rain and ozone layer and discuss how real the dangers are what is being done today and what can be done in the future The titles should provide a useful resource for students studying areas of the curriculum involving science technology geography and environmental studies This title examines the area of future power Acts of Contortion Anna Meek,2002 In poems that are by turns witty lush and unflinching Acts of Contortion explores the gestures of both hurtfulness and compassion Whether set in a shelter for battered women in the midst of a political demonstration or at the center of an orchestra the poems pursue the place of language in an injurious world The political conscience at work is feminist pacifist and at odds with itself Anna George Meek finds that the brutal and the compassionate are sometimes indistinguishable born of our need to make contact outside of ourselves These gestures of music of touch of poetry appear in the poems as the violin domestic abuse and words to comfort a woman in pain The poems argue difficult yet imperative the attempt to gesture beyond ourselves is an act of contortion Old & New Testaments Lynn Powell,1995 The poems of Old New Testaments explore Lynn Powell s Southern Baptist upbringing and how that history echoes through her adult experiences of sexual love self knowledge loss and motherhood Powell s poems chronicle a life lush with the ordinary where truths reveal themselves in the same sad immutable text of a withered face and in a child s rickety letters tilting across the page When grace answers grief in these poems it is not with reassurance but with a call to the narrow path to Love Horizon Note Robin Behn,2001-09-25 A son is born too early as if coming up over the horizon before his own dawn An elderly father lingers at life s other horizon In language dense and clear playful and somber and with a formal exactitude and emotional amplitude suggestive of her own musical training Behn traverses these horizons extracting like the horizon note that drones through traditional Indian music a red needle from the sky The Mouths of Grazing Things Jennifer Boyden,2010-04-01 The Mouths of Grazing Things is an unflinching lyrical meditation on nature s forced exodus from the human and the forms of longing estrangement magnetism and self otherness that ensue Arrestingly tender and fiercely protective of where nature lurks in and out of us still Boyden translates for a new landscape where a brain in a jar is anchored by an apple a fly tying fisherman finds love songs to fish scattered among the barber s sweepings and the players at the most dangerous playground in the world prepare for anything with one fist clenched and the other full of sugar In poems built to survive an unsafe journey this book delivers the now beyond the almost was the near forgotten and the just in time
