The Politics of Writing in Iran Kamran Talattof, 2000-05-01 Emerging in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries as a secular activity Persian literature acquired its own modernity by redefining past aesthetic practices of identity and history By analyzing selected work of major pre and post revolutionary literary figures Talattof shows how Persian literary history has not been an integrated continuum but a series of distinct episodic movements shaped by shifting ideologies Drawing on western concepts modern Persian literature has responded to changing social and political conditions through complex strategies of metaphorical and allegorical representations that both construct and denounce cultural continuities The book provides a unique contribution in that it draws on texts that demonstrate close affinity to such diverse ideologies as modernism Marxism feminism and Islam Each ideological standard has influenced the form characterization and figurative language of literary texts as well as setting the criteria for literary criticism and determining which issues are to be the focus of literary journals subjectivity in an Iran negotiating its modernity from the Constitutional Revolution of 1905 up to and beyond the Islamic Revolution of 1979 By focusing on marriage as the central metaphor through which both law and fiction read gender Motlagh critically engages and highlights the difficulties that arise as gender norms and laws change over time She examines the recurrent foregrounding of marriage at five critical periods of legal reform documenting how texts were understood both at first publication and as their importance changed over time Women Without Men Shahrnūsh Pārsī'pūr, 1998 A magic realism novel on the lot of women in Iran whose heroines reject men and marriage One woman turns herself into a tree in order to preserve her virginity another is born anew after being killed by her brother for disobedience Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions Song of the Ground Jay: Poems by Iranian Women, 1960-2023, Expanded Edition, 2023-09-16 Iranian women have been writing Persian poetry for over a thousand years and in the tumult of our contemporary moment poetry has emerged once again as an outlet with a unique power to move and connect us to inspire fury tears joy laughter and surprise In this expanded bilingual anthology encompassing both the most progressive and the most regressive eras for women in Iran Mojdeh Bahar introduces readers to the poems of 104 Iranian women during the past sixty years Focusing mainly on poets writing today this expanded edition of Song of the Ground Jay engages with a very diverse array of Iranian women's voices that includes the full spectrum of aesthetic sensibilities with varying styles tones and themes painting a dynamic and cohesive portrait of modern Persian poetry by women For anyone who has wanted to try their hand at a conversation with contemporary Persian poetry by Iranian women but doesn't know where to start Song of the Ground Jay opens a door and invites you to walk in

An Encounter with Dylan Thomas Ebrahim Golestan, 2022-09-27 Abadan 1951 Iran and Britain are bracing for battle over the continued British monopoly of Iran's oil Twenty nine year old Ebrahim Golestan who was to become a towering figure in Iranian cinema and literature encounters Dylan Thomas the famous Welsh poet who died two years later at the age of thirty nine from bronchial disease and pneumonia More for his celebrity than an intimate knowledge of the subject Thomas had been sent to Iran by the Anglo Iranian Oil Company to write a script for a propaganda film about the company s supposedly salutary role in the country But for a few hours Golestan and Thomas pause amidst the escalating standoff between their two countries and speak candidly about poetry history philosophy and the perils of translation Published here for the first time is the English translation with facing pages in the original Persian of Golestan s unflinching portrayal of that encounter revealing all too clearly how unsuited Thomas was for the task in hand Accompanying the translation is an account of Thomas s time in Iran written by Abbas Milani Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford University together with Alina Utrata a Ph D candidate and Gates Cambridge scholar Based on the poet s letters journals and archival material in England and Wales it helps to shed further light on an episode long shrouded in mystery and plagued by controversy Publication of this book coincides with the hundredth birthday in October 2022 of Ebrahim Golestan To mark the occasion Professor Milani has included a personal and erudite introductory essay on Golestan s life and work examining his pioneering approach to film and his important contribution to Iranian literature despite living in exile for most of his adult life With a filmography and selected bibliography of the works by or about Golestan this multifaceted volume offers not only a striking commentary on Iranian arts politics and history set against the tense backdrop of the impending geopolitical clash between Britain and Iran but also a commemoration of the work of one of the most eminent and influential representatives of Iranian culture in modern times

Song of the Ground Jay: Poems by Iranian Women, 1960-2022 ,2023-03-07 Iranian women have been writing Persian poetry for over a thousand years and in the tumult of our contemporary moment poetry has emerged once again as an outlet with a unique power to move and connect us to inspire fury tears joy laughter and surprise In this bilingual anthology encompassing both the most progressive and the most regressive eras for women in Iran Mojdeh Bahar introduces readers to the poems of Iranian women during the past sixty years Focusing mainly on poets writing today Song of the Ground Jay engages with a diverse array of Iranian women s voices that includes the full spectrum of aesthetic sensibilities with varying styles tones and themes painting a dynamic and cohesive portrait of modern Persian poetry by women For anyone who has wanted to try their hand at a conversation with contemporary Persian poetry by Iranian women but doesn t know where to start Song of the Ground Jay opens a door and invites you to walk in

Teen Life in the Middle East Ali Akbar Mahdi,2003-05-30 This unique volume offers unprecedented insight into the typical day interests and familial social and cultural lives of Middle Eastern teens Each chapter includes a resource guide to teach teens more about the 11 profiled countries Iran Iraq Israel Jordan Kuwait Lebanon Palestinian territories Saudi Arabia Syria Turkey United Arab Emirates and Yemen Numerous photos accompany the text This book provides teen readers in the West with a window into the everyday lives of their counterparts in the East fostering a better understanding of both their similarities and differences The current population of the Middle East is young and their future is critical in our worldview Teen life in the Middle East is marked by extremes In some countries especially those that are Westernized teens share the benefits of globalization with material and social comforts such as private schooling and vacations abroad In other countries political instability religious and cultural repression war and occupation earthquakes and poverty are ongoing crises Many teenagers must endure a difficult and sometimes nearly impossible path to adulthood Popular Iranian Cinema before the Revolution Pedram Partovi, 2017-07-14 Critics and academics have generally dismissed the commercial productions of the late Pahlavi era best known for their songs and melodramatic plots as shallow derivative entertainment Instead they have concentrated on the more recent internationally acclaimed art films claiming that these constitute Iranian national cinema despite few Iranians having seen them Film discourse and even fan talk have long attempted to marginalize the mainstream releases of the 1960s and 1970s with the moniker filmfarsi ironically asserting that such popular favorites were culturally inauthentic This book challenges the idea that filmfarsi is detached from the past and present of Iranians Far from being escapist Hollywood fare merely translated into Persian it claims that the better films of this supposed genre must be taken as both a subject of and source for modern Iranian history It argues that they have an appeal that relies on their ability to rearticulate traditional courtly and religious ideas and forms to problematize in unexpectedly complex and sophisticated ways the modernist agenda that secular nationalist elites wished to impose on their viewers Taken seriously these films raise questions about standard treatments of Iran's modern history By writing popular films into Iranian history this book advocates both a fresh approach to the study of Iranian cinema as well as a rethinking of the modernity tradition binary that has organized the historiography of the recent past It will appeal to those interested in Iranian cinema Iranian history and culture and more broadly readers dissatisfied with a dichotomous approach to modernity
