Adults are being incarcerated in the United States at an ever escalating rate and child welfare professionals are encountering growing numbers of children who have parents in prison Current estimates indicate that as many as 1 5 million children have an incarcerated parent many thousands of others have experienced the incarceration of a parent at some point in their lives These vulnerable children face unique difficulties and their growing numbers and special needs demand attention Existing literature indicates that children whose parents are incarcerated experience a variety of negative consequences particularly in terms of their emotional health and well being They also may have difficult interactions or limited contact with their parents There are also issues connected with their physical care and child custody The many challenges facing the child welfare system as it attempts to work with this population are explored in Children with Parents in Prison Topics covered include Supporting Families and Children of Mothers in Jail Meeting the Challenge of Permanency Planning for Children with Incarcerated Mothers The Impact of Changing Public Policy on Relatives Caring for Children with Incarcerated Parents Legal Issues and Recommendations Facilitating Parent Child Contact in Correctional Settings Earning Trust from Youths with None to Spare Developing Quality Services for Offenders and Families and in closing Understanding the Forces that Influence Incarcerated Fathers Relationships with Their Children Children and families have long struggled with the difficulties created when a parent goes to prison What is new is the magnitude of the problem This volume calls for increased public awareness of the impact of parental incarceration on children Its goal is to stimulate discussion about how to best meet the special needs of these children and families and how to provide a resource for the child welfare community as it responds to Waiting on the Outside Kathy Royer, Kit Kuperstock, Ruby F. Zehr, 2004-10-06 In 1982 83 Kathy Royer along with Howard Zehr and Janet Reedy interviewed and photographed women whose partners were in prison Out of this project came several traveling exhibits a drama and finally this booklet The initial interviews exhibit and drama were funded by the Indiana Committee for the Humanities and sponsored by the Mennonite Central Committee MCC U S Office of Criminal Justice and the PACT Institute of Justice The present booklet which in many ways grows out of the experience and material gathered during this project was sponsored by the MCC U S Office of Criminal Justice Kathy Royer who has served on the staff of the Center for Social Concerns at Notre Dame University developed much of the material in this booklet Kit Kuperstock drawing upon her extensive experience as director of Project Return in Nashville Tennessee offered valuable insights and information Ruby Friesen Zehr who has worked for the MCC U S Office of Criminal Justice served as compiler editor and project coordinator from the Preface

Doing Time Together Megan Comfort, 2009-05-15 By quadrupling the number of people behind bars in two decades the United States has become the world leader in incarceration Much has been written on the men who make up the vast majority of the nation s two million inmates But what of the women they leave behind Doing Time Together vividly details the ways that prisons shape and infiltrate the lives of women with husbands fianc s and boyfriends on the inside Megan Comfort spent years getting to know women visiting men at San Quentin State Prison observing how their romantic relationships drew them into contact with the penitentiary Tangling with the prison s intrusive scrutiny and rigid rules turns these women into quasi inmates eroding the boundary between home and prison and altering their sense of intimacy love and justice Yet Comfort also finds that with social welfare weakened prisons are the most powerful public institutions available to women struggling to overcome untreated social ills and sustain relationships with marginalized men As a result they express great ambivalence about the prison and the control it exerts over their daily lives An illuminating analysis of women caught in the shadow of America s massive prison system Comfort s book will be essential for anyone concerned with the consequences of our punitive culture

Working Together for Peace and Justice in the 21st Century : Summary of Proceedings ,1999 Working with Children and Families Separated by Incarceration Lois Wright, Cynthia Seymour, 2000 More than 1 6 million children in this country have a parent in prison and a much larger number have experienced the incarceration of a parent at some point in their lives As a result these children endure traumatic separations from their parents and erratic shifts from one caregiver to another This handbook discusses the effects of parental incarceration and the community services that should be available to support and preserve families It also outlines child welfare practice needs and provides practical suggestions in areas such as child protection temporary placement in out of home care permanency planning and family reunification

Corrections: A Text/Reader Mary K. Stohr, Anthony Walsh, Craig Hemmens, 2012-03-20 Corrections A Text Reader Second Edition is designed for undergraduate and or graduate corrections courses Organized like a traditional corrections text it offers brief authored introductions in a mini chapter format for each key Section followed by carefully selected and edited original articles by leading scholars This hybrid format ensuring coverage of important material while emphasizing the significance of contemporary research offers an excellent alternative which recognizes the impact and importance of new directions and policy in this field and how these advances are determined by research
