Seven Doors To Islam Spirituality And The Religious Life:

Seven Doors to Islam John Renard, 1996-07-17 A comprehensive tour of the exuberant landscape of Muslim religious life past and present With an impressive array of textual and visual works Renard's kaleidoscopic survey sounds the death toll to the longstanding misconception that Islam is a dry and mechanistic religion devoid of spirituality This is the best introductory book on Islam currently available Ahmet T Karamustafa Washington University Comprehensive and accessible this book is a richly textured and wide ranging introduction to Islamic spirituality and a refreshing change from the obsession with current politics that characterizes most approaches of Islam Carl W Ernst University of North Carolina Chapel Hill Islam and Cultural Change in Papua New Guinea Scott Flower, 2016-08-12 Scholars of religion and policy makers may be surprised at the changes occurring on the second largest island of the world that straddles one of the most Christianised and least Christianised areas of the world This book provides an accurate and deeper understanding of the nature of Islam in Papua New Guinea and determines the causes and processes of recent growth in the country's Muslim population Combining ethnographic sociological and historical approaches to understanding Islam's growth in Papua New Guinea the book uses extensive fieldwork interviews and archival records to look at the establishment institutionalization and growth of Islam in a country that is predominantly Christian It analyses the causes and processes of conversion and presents a new analytical approach that could be used as a basis for analysing Islamic conversions in other parts of the world Presenting an interdisciplinary approach to the study of Islamic conversion thorough the examination of the causes and process of Islamic conversion in Papua New Guinea the book is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Religion Islamic Studies and Cultural Studies The Harvard Sampler Jennifer M. Shephard, Stephen M. Kosslyn, Evelyn M. Hammonds, 2011-10-15 From Harvard University comes essays sampling topics at the forefront of academia in the twenty first century Eminent faculty members invite readers to explore subjects as diverse as religious literacy cyberspace security epidemiology questions in evolution the dark side of the American Revolution and the biology of the human mind A Companion to Muslim Cultures Aryn Sajoo, 2011-11-22 I B Tauris in association with the Institute of Ismaili Studies Culture shapes every aspect of the relationship between God and the believer in Islam as well as among believers and with those beyond the fold Fasts prayers and pilgrimages are attuned to social rhythms old and new no less than the designs of mosques and public gardens the making of religious music and ways of thinking about technology and wellbeing Ancient deserts and modern urban landscapes may echo with the same call for transcendence but in voices that emerge from very different everyday realities Scripture itself as the Prophet Muhammad knew is ever seen through a cultural lens both language and what it communicates are intimately tied to context And the cosmopolitanism that runs through Muslim history from the outset recalls T S Eliot's remark that culture is that which makes life worth living It frames how the deepest religious values are understood and practiced from modesty in adornment and solidarity with the underprivileged to integrity and accountability in political life Muslims have never been content with a passive separation of faith from their daily lives whether public or private What are the implications of this holistic view in a diverse world of Muslims and non Muslims How do core ethical values interface with the particulars of local cultures in all their complexity especially when it comes to matters like the status of women and the scope of individual religious freedom The answers at a time when secular and Muslim identities appear to be locked in conflict are explored in this Companion by some of today s finest scholars difference must not obscure what is held in common a belief in the one God and a family albeit distant relationship Written for undergraduate and seminary courses on Islam the Qur an comparative religions inter religious dialogue world scriptures and biblical interpretation Ishmael Instructs Isaac is also a useful resource for discussion groups in churches synagogues and mosques Includes English translations of the Qur anic texts discussed John Kaltner PhD is assistant professor of religious studies at Rhodes College where he teaches courses in the Bible and Islam He has worked in the Middle East with the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America     Finding Jesus among Muslims Jordan Denari Duffner,2017-12-18 Why should Christians engage in interfaith dialogue with Muslims Does Islam have anything to offer Christians What is Islamophobia and what should we do about it These are just some of the questions addressed in Finding Jesus among Muslims an urgent new book from author Jordan Denari Duffner Drawing from church teaching the stories of saints and martyrs and her extensive personal experiences living among Muslims in both the United States and the Middle East Duffner explains why all Christians are called to participate in a dialogue of life with Muslims Her intelligent and fresh approach makes Duffner a welcome voice on some of the most important social and religious questions of our day     ESPOSITO:WHAT EVERYONE NEED KNOW
