Seven Tribes Of Central Africa:

Seven Tribes of British Central Africa Elizabeth Colson, Max Gluckman, 1951 Seven Tribes of Central Africa Elizabeth Colson, Max Gluckman, 1968 Seven Tribes of British Central Africa Elizabeth Colson, 2003-01 Seven Tribes of British Central Africa. [By various writers.] Edited by Elizabeth Colson and Max Gluckman University of Zambia. Institute for African Studies, Elizabeth Florence COLSON (and GLUCKMAN (Herman Max)), Herman Max GLUCKMAN, 1951 Schism and Continuity in an African Society Victor Turner, 2020-08-20 With a new foreword by Bruce Kapferer Professor of Anthropology James Cook University A reprint of the seminal anthropological work of the 1960s Originally published by Manchester University Press Victor Turner will be remembered as the anthropologist who developed the concept of the social drama a method used extensively by anthropologists to describe and analyse the social life of a community In essence this technique involves analysing social crises within a community over a period of time in order to gain a better understanding of the key principles that govern the social life of the community This book Turner s first social drama study focuses on the village life of the Ndembu of Zambia who were then under British rule The social constraints such as the matrilineally inherited headmanship system and the various releases from these constraints provoked periodic crises which caused great disruption and pain These crises made visible the contradictions between the principles governing social life and the conflicts experienced between individuals and groups when enforcing these principles Seven social dramas are discussed all from one family over a period of twenty years each substantiated by sociological and demographic research

The Judicial Process Among the Barotse of Northern Rhodesia Max Gluckman, 1973 Schism and Continuity in an African Society Victor Witter Turner, 1964 On the Threshold of Central Africa (1897) Francois Coillard, 2013-10-08 An eye witness account of the events which shook South Central Africa before the advent of Colonial rule It presents an account of the Lozi a record of Coillard s journeys and his work in establishing the Paris evangelical mission in Barotseland

Five Hundred Years Rediscovered Natalie Swanepoel, Amanda Esterhuysen, Phil Bonner, 2008-08-01 In the age of the African Renaissance southern Africa has needed to reinterpret the past in fresh and more appropriate ways The last 500 years represent a strikingly unexplored and misrepresented period which remains disfigured by colonial apartheid assumptions most notably in the way that African societies are depicted as fixed passive isolated unenterprising and unenlightened This period is one the most formative in relation to southern Africa s past while remaining in many ways the least known Key cultural contours of the sub continent took shape while in a jagged and uneven fashion some of the features of modern identities emerged Enormous internal economic innovation and political experimentation was taking place at the same time as expanding European mercantile forces started to press upon southern African shores and its hinterlands This suggests that interaction flux and mixing were a strong feature of the period rather than the homogeneity and fixity proposed in standard historical and archaeological writings Five Hundred Years Rediscovered represents the first step taken by a group of archaeologists and historians to collectively reframe revitalise and re examine the last 500 years By integrating research and developing trans frontier research networks the group hopes to challenge thinking about the region s expanding internal and colonial frontiers and to broaden current perceptions about southern Africa s colonial past An African Worldview Ian D. Dicks,2012 In this book Ian Dicks informs the reader about the ways in which the Yawo of Malawi view the world The Yawo are predominantly Muslim yet many maintain strong links with their traditional religion They are a largely oral society teaching and reinforcing their beliefs and practices using oral literature which includes myths proverbs proverbial stories songs of advice and prayers at various stages of the life cycle particularly during initiation events Ian Dicks describes in detail the Yawo s material world customs beliefs and rituals and juxtaposes these with Yawo oral literature He then examines them under six worldview categories the result being a rich description of the way in which the Yawo see the world This book is not an armchair study but has the feel of being written by an eyewitness by someone who has had first hand experience of the subject and who seeks to describe this in a manner which is sensitive to the Yawo and their culture

David Livingstone and the Myth of African Poverty and Disease Sjoerd Rijpma,2015-06-24 This study about David Livingstone is different from all other publications about him Here Livingstone is not the main topic of interest the focus of the author is on nutrition and health in pre colonial Africa and Livingstone is his key informant David Livingstone and the Myth of African Poverty and Disease is an unusual book After a close examination of Livingstone s writings and comparative reading of contemporary authors Sjoerd Rijpma has been able to draw cautious conclusions about the relatively favourable conditions of health and nutrition in southern and central Africa during the pre colonial period His findings shed new light on the medical history of Sub Saharan Africa The surprise awaiting travellers in and also before 19th century Africa was that the inhabitants of the interior even the slaves were healthier and better fed than many of their contemporaries in Europe s Industrial Revolution An impressive piece of scholarship truly forensic in its close reading and re reading of Livingstone s published works and those of other travellers during the same era clearly a labour of love which has taken years to complete Joanna Lewis African Systems of Kinship and Marriage A. R. Radcliffe-Brown,Daryll Forde,2015-06-03 First published in 1950 and this edition in 1987 this book is one of the most wide ranging and respected surveys on kinship and marriage in African social life In his introduction Radcliff Brown provides a masterly analysis of the main features of African kinship systems and the theoretical problems arising from the study of them The contributions range from examinations of kinship systems among the Swazi the Tswana the Zulu the Nuer and the Ashanti to double descent among the Yak and dual descent in the Nuba groups of the Sudan The contributors themselves are still viewed as giants in their field Evans Pritchard Meyer Fortes Max Gluckman Hilda Kuper Naderl A I Richards Schapera and Monica Wilson Bats of Southern and Central Africa Ara Monadjem,Peter John Taylor,Fenton (Woody) Cotterill,M. Corrie Schoeman,2020-06-01 This revised edition of a book first published in 2010 supplements the original account of the 116 bat species then known to be found in Southern and

Central Africa with an additional eight newly described species The chapters on evolution biogeography ecology and echolocation have been updated citing dozens of recently published papers The book covers the latest systematic and taxonomic studies ensuring that the names and relationships of bats in this new edition reflect current scientific knowledge The species accounts provide descriptions measurements and diagnostic characters as well as detailed information about the distribution habitat roosting habits foraging ecology and reproduction of each species The updated species distribution maps are based on 116 recorded localities A special feature of the 2010 publication was the mode of identification of families genera and species by way of character matrices rather than the more generally used dichotomous keys Since then these matrices have been tested in the field and where necessary slightly altered for this edition New photographs fill in gaps and updated sonograms aid with bat identification in acoustic surveys The bibliography which now contains more than 700 entries will be an invaluable aid to students and scientists wishing to track down original research

Constitutions Charles Mwalimu,2009 In this book Charles Mwalimu explores viable grassroots representation mechanisms in African constitutions in order to positively integrate indigenous and modern systems in Sub Saharan Africa A comparative study method is used to examine the constitutional principles of chieftaincy and local government and their impact on human rights To establish and prove lack of positive integration Mwalimu connects this failure to poor constitutionalism development and stultified growth and human rights violations This book proposes remedial actions to build nondiscriminatory constitutional regimes eradicating violations of human rights

Chisungu Audrey Richards,2021-03-28

Audrey Richards 1899 1984 was a leading British anthropologist of the twentieth century and the first woman president of the Royal Anthropological Institute Based on fieldwork conducted at a time when the discipline was dominated by male anthropologists Chisungu A Girl s Initiation Ceremony Among the Bemba of Zambia is widely hailed as a classic of anthropology and African and gender studies Underpinned by painstaking research carried out by Richards among the Bemba people in northern Zambia in the 1930s Chisungu focuses on the initiation ceremonies for young Bemba girls Pioneering the study of women s rituals and challenging the prevailing theory that rites of passage served merely to transfer individuals from one status to another Richards writes about the incredibly rich and diverse aspects of ritual that characterised Chisungu its concern with matriliney deference to elders sex and reproduction the birth of children ideas about the continuity between past present and future and the centrality of emotional conflict On a deeper level Chisungu is a crucial work for the role it accords to the meaning of symbolism in explaining the structure of society paving the way for much subsequent understanding of the role of symbolic meaning and kinship This Routledge Classics edition includes a new foreword by Jessica Johnson and an introduction by Jean La Fontaine

Garenganze or Seven Years Pioneer Mission Work in Central Africa Frederick Stanley Arnot, 2013-05-13 Frederick Stanley Arnot was among the first of the Plymouth Brethren to take the gospel to Africa in the late 19th century missionary expansion across the Kalahari desert opening Protestant missions in Barotseland Angola and Katanga in the 1880s

Anthropology and Anthropologists Adam Kuper, 2014-09-19 Anthropology and Anthropologists provides an entertaining and provocative account of British social anthropology from the foundations of the discipline through the glory years of the mid twentieth century and on to the transformation in recent decades The book shocked the anthropological establishment on first publication in 1973 but soon established itself as one of the introductions for students of anthropology Forty years later this now classic work has been radically revised Adam Kuper situates the leading actors in their historical and institutional context probes their rivalries revisits their debates and reviews their key ethnographies Drawing on recent scholarship he shows how the discipline was shaped by the colonial setting and by developments in the social sciences
