Teaching Leadership Barbara C. Crosby, 2016-07-15 Teaching Leadership provides guidance for leadership educators in a variety of organizational and community contexts and across academic disciplines An experienced leadership educator Crosby promotes an inclusive vision of leadership that recognizes the inherent leadership potential in everyone Featuring interviews with 25 respected leadership educators Teaching Leadership complicates and enriches the leader follower dichotomy to advance a holistic and practice oriented model of leadership education Using the metaphor of heart head and hands Crosby shows how authentic leadership is an embodied practice based equally in emotional intellectual and experiential learning

Empowering Hispanic Leaders Victor H. Cuartas, 2009 The estimated

Hispanic population of the United States was 45.5 million in 2007 making people of Hispanic origin the nation's largest ethnic or race minority. Hispanics constitute 15 percent of the nation's total population. The Latino population in the United States will triple in size and according to the Census projections Hispanics will make up 29 percent of the United States population by 2050. This book offers suggestions for training Hispanic leaders who will be involved in ministry in various regions of the United States. The findings of this research project produced information, understanding, and direction that can contribute to the imperative efforts to train emerging leaders for Hispanic groups everywhere. The principles revealed in this study of Hispanic leadership training will prove effective in empowering leaders of other groups in the United States and other countries.

Inspiring Leadership Kerrie Fleming, Roger Delves, 2017-01-26. With 13 contributors and edited by Dr. Kerrie Fleming and Roger Delves. Inspiring Leadership showcases the best of leadership development practice and the most effective leadership styles that have evolved in recent years or are currently gaining attention. Enhanced by a perspective and vision of the types of leaders and leadership skills that will be needed to meet future global demand, the book has three distinctive characteristics: it will help leaders to translate the latest thinking and offers a simple way of applying this to their current role; it offers leaders a means by which to develop themselves and their teams while assessing how their organization may need to evolve in the changing business environment around them; and it offers a diverse view of leadership perspectives from which readers can choose in order to enhance their own leadership style and practice. By mapping out the context of the past, present, and future of leadership, including a focus on values, Inspiring Leadership looks at developing authenticity and using emotional intelligence to better cultivate a high level of self-awareness in every leader. The book offers invaluable insights on how best to practise leadership using the techniques and leadership perspectives that are most commonly used in business school interventions around the world.

Sustained Leadership WBS Thomas G. Reid, 2017-09-26. The Sustained Leader WBS provides a comprehensive tool for assessing and improving leadership potential. A Work Breakdown Structure decomposes every part of the work to be done in a project. Through extensive research and surveys, the author has identified 229 WBS elements that apply to building yourself into a sustained leader. Each element provides a self-assessment, additional resources, and a place to record personal goals and due dates, giving each reader a personal program plan to build themselves into a better leader.

The Culturally Conscious Board Jennifer M. Jukanovich, Russell W. West, 2024-09-03. The definitive introduction for changemakers new to the world of nonprofit and small business boards of directors. Bust the status quo of boardroom administrative tedium and passive participation to contribute to meaningful social transformation and impact in your organization. Authors Jukanovich and West offer changemakers new to the boardroom the mindset and strategies necessary to make a difference in the organizations they lead. Mission-based, socially responsible, and transformational organizations are needed more today than ever. And the boards that lead them must be in tune with their stakeholder's culture. But so often they are held back by ineffective decision making and a lack of interpersonal trust. This book breaks down the key elements of a successful boardroom and how to achieve them From onboarding diverse talent to establishing trust through accountability you will have the tools and actionable techniques needed to effectively make a difference in the world with healthier boardroom practices Making Sense of Beliefs and Values Craig N. Transnational Feminist Rhetorics and Gendered Leadership in Global Politics Rebecca S. Richards, 2014-10-28 Transnational Feminist Rhetorics and Gendered Leadership in Global Politics examines the rhetoric surrounding women who hold or have held the highest office of a nation state Heads of state such as Golda Meir Margaret Thatcher Benazir Bhutto Ellen Johnson Sirleaf and Michelle Bachelet have navigated their ascent to executive government in vastly different ways while contending with gendered expectations of leadership especially since most of them are the first woman to occupy their country s highest governmental position This book analyzes how these women rhetorically perform their positions of power discursively visually and physically in a traditionally male leadership role Specifically this project examines how certain rhetorical acts open up and close down the potential to confront the gendered expectations surrounding political leadership When people analyze campaign for or critique a female prime minister or a woman president they are not just talking about one woman but also referencing a collective neoliberal logic that interrupts and reaffirms the belief that the nation state is an eternal inevitable structure Diverse political figures such as Angela Merkel Julia Gillard and Indira Gandhi are continually put in conversation with one another through popular media representations academic scholarship and political analyses This book examines the effect of such comparisons and connections ultimately arguing that many of these gestures reduce or over simplify women s contributions to world politics In order to show this effect this book manifests the transnational connections found in autobiographies organizations political commentaries biographical films and other sources that focus on women who have been heads of state
