Seventeenth Century Dutch Drawings:

Seventeenth-century Dutch and Flemish Drawings from the Robert Lehman Collection Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), George Szabó, 1979 Seventeenth-century Dutch Drawings, 1991 Art in History/History in Art David Freedberg, Jan de Vries, 1996-07-11 Historians and art historians provide a critique of existing methodologies and an interdisciplinary inquiry into seventeenth century Dutch art and culture Dutch Seventeenth-century Genre Painting Wayne E. Franits, 2004-01-01 The appealing genre paintings of great seventeenth century Dutch artists Vermeer Steen de Hooch Dou and others have long enjoyed tremendous popularity This comprehensive book explores the evolution of genre painting throughout the Dutch Golden Age beginning in the early 1600s and continuing through the opening years of the next century Wayne Franits a well known scholar of Dutch genre painting offers a wealth of information about these works as well as about seventeenth century Dutch culture its predilections and its prejudices The author approaches genre paintings from a variety of perspectives examining their reception among contemporary audiences and setting the works in their political cultural and economic contexts The works emerge as distinctly conventional images Franits shows as genre artists continually replicated specific styles motifs and a surprisingly restricted number of themes over the course of several generations Luxuriously illustrated and with a full representation of the major artists and the cities where genre painting flourished this book will delight students scholars and general readers alike An Entrance for the Eyes Martha Hollander, 2002-03-20 How refreshing how absolutely refreshing to find a book on Dutch painting that asks readers to begin by simply looking Hollander is faithful to the possibility so common in painting so unusual in scholarship that the paintings are elusive evasive unsystematically ambiguous Doors ajar windows onto the street paintings within paintings half drawn curtains blank mirrors a man's coat hung on a nail those are the engines of interpretation and Hollander tells their history lucidly and entirely persuasively James Elkins author of The Object Stares Back Hollander offers fresh and compelling readings of key works by Karel van Mander Gerard Dou Nicolaes Maes and Pieter de Hooch Very few recent books on Dutch art are as rich as this and few are written in such lucid unpretentious prose What shines forth from every page is a genuine love of the pictures Here is art history well tempered to the objects it interprets Joseph L Koerner author of The Moment of Self Portraiture in German Renaissance Art In recent years scholars have explored how space signifies in seventeenth century Dutch art and culture Hollander's fascinating study is the most comprehensive to date It examines space as conceived in the writings of Dutch art theorists constructed in contemporary architecture and disposed and made meaningful in the work of Gerard Dou Nicolaes Maes Pieter de Hooch and Karel van Mander An Entrance for the Eyes lays a firm foundation for research on this intriguing and hitherto understudied aspect of Dutch art Wayne E Franits author of Paragons of Virtue Women and Domesticity in Seventeenth Century Dutch Art Dutch Drawings of the Seventeenth Century J. H. J. Mellaart, 1926 Seventeenth Century Dutch Drawings from American Collections Franklin W. Robinson, 1977

Helen Bobritzky Mules, 1985 Seventeenth-Century Dutch and Flemish Painting Ivan Gaskell, Sammlung Thyssen-Bornemisza, 1990 A catalogue of 128 paintings produced during this period in which the art of portraiture was transformed religious imagery dynamized and new genres such as flower painting were established The art of Holland's Golden Age is perennially popular with collectors and gallery visitors alike and this book provides a new insight into this unique private collection In his introduction Ivan Gaskell considers the extremely varied character of Dutch and Flemish seventeenth century art It ranges from minutely observed scenes of everyday life to portraits religious works and intimate still life compositions The Thyssen Bornemisza Collection is especially rich in landscapes a subject which had emerged as a separate genre in the Netherlands in the previous century The author outlines the development of painting on both sides of the border placing it in its social and historical context and goes on to discuss the taste for Dutch and Flemish art from the seventeenth century to the present day and spotlights some of the earlier collectors This detailed catalogue of 128 paintings is the result of meticulous research in British Dutch and American libraries and archives The entries are arranged in ten groups by subject so that thematic similarities can be conveniently examined Amongst the most celebrated works is Frans Hals's monumental Family Portrait once the most expensive painting in the world All the paintings are illustrated in colour and are accompanied by comparative illustrations and technical photographs

Northern Netherlands was a period that saw the widespread domestication of easel pictures when paintings were acquired in significant numbers by a broad cross section of society as a means of decorating the home This is the first extended study to look at the role and function of paintings and other works of art in Dutch homes of the seventeenth century In what numbers were paintings dispersed throughout the various rooms of the house Were certain subjects regarded as more appropriate than others for display in a particular room In what arrangements were paintings hung on the walls and how did this affect the way in which they were apprehended A wide range of contemporary sources are drawn upon including estate inventories and other archival material published texts on art architecture and social manners and images of the domestic interior In one chapter a close analysis is made of a small number of individual inventories which are fully transcribed in the appendices investigating the motivations that lie behind the display of works of art and their relationship to other furnishings BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
