Sex Relationships An Anthology:

Sex & Relationships John P. Elia, Ivy Chen, 2005 Sex & Relationships John P. Elia, 1999-01 Sexualities and Relationships John P. Elia, Ivy Chen, 2010 Sex and Relationships John Elia, Ivy Chen, 2009-06-26 Pak, Sex & Relationships John Elia, 1998-12-01 Sex and Reason Richard A. Posner, 2009-07-01 Sexual drives are rooted in biology but we don't act on them blindly. Indeed, as the eminently readable judge and legal scholar Richard Posner shows, we make quite rational choices about sex based on the costs and benefits perceived. Drawing on the fields of biology, law, history, religion, and economics, this sweeping study examines societies from ancient Greece to today's Sweden and issues from masturbation, incest, taboos, date rape, and gay marriage to Baby M. The first comprehensive approach to sexuality and its social controls, Posner's rational choice theory surprises, explains, predicts, and totally absorbs. The Material Culture of Sex, Procreation, and Marriage in Premodern Europe A. McClanan, K. Encarnación, 2016-09-23 This interdisciplinary anthology takes as its starting point the belief that as the material grounds of lived experience, material culture provides an avenue of historical access to women's lives extending beyond the reaches of textual evidence. Studies here range from utilitarian tools used in Late Roman abortion to sacred magical or ritual objects associated with sex, procreation, and marriage in the Renaissance. Together, the essays demonstrate the complex relationship between language and object and explore the ways in which objects become forms of communication in their own right, transmitting both rather specific messages and more generalized social and cultural values. Lone Star Muslims Ahmed Afzal, 2015 Lone Star Muslims offers an engaging and insightful look at contemporary Muslim American life in Texas. It illuminates the dynamics of the Pakistani Muslim community in Houston, a city with one of the largest Muslim populations in the south and southwestern United States. Drawing on interviews and participant observation at radio stations, festivals, and ethnic businesses, the volume explores everyday Muslim lives at the intersection of race, class, profession, gender, sexuality, and religious sectarian affiliation to demonstrate the complexity of the South Asian experience. Importantly, the volume incorporates narratives of gay Muslim American men of Pakistani descent, countering the presumed heteronormativity evident in most of the social science scholarship on Muslim Americans and revealing deeply felt affiliations to Islam through ritual and practice. It also includes narratives of members of the highly skilled Shia Ismaili Muslim labor force employed in corporate America, of Pakistani ethnic entrepreneurs, the working class, and the working poor employed in Pakistani ethnic businesses, of community activists, and of radio program hosts. Decentering dominant framings that flatten understandings of transnational Islam and Muslim Americans, such as terrorist on the one hand and model minority on the other, Lone Star Muslims offers a glimpse into a variety of lived experiences. It shows how specificities of class, Islamic sectarian affiliation, citizenship status, gender, and sexuality shape transnational identities and mediate racism, marginalities, and abjection. Gender, Sexuality, Decolonization Ahonaa Roy, 2020-12-28 This book presents a new approach to the understanding of non-normative sexuality and gender transgressive modes in South Asia and

South Asian diaspora It reconceives sexual representation from the point of view of the theoretical political and empirical trajectories of decolonization provincialization and neoliberalism to look at the role of historical contingency postcolonial sexual politics and gender and sexual diversity The volume brings together anthropological historical material and political analyses around South Asian sexual politics by exploring a range of themes including culture class ethnicity identity intersectionality migration borders diaspora modernity and cosmopolitanism across various local regional and global contexts By using southern non Western and subaltern theorizations of gender and sexuality the book discusses South Asian sexualities through issues such as the sexual politics of indeterminacy sexual subculture iconography and political decision making religious identity queer South Asian diaspora decolonizing the postcolonial body sexual politics gender and feminist debates discrimination and socio political violence the political economy of empowerment and critical appropriation of the 377 Indian Penal Code It also builds forms of dialogues to bridge the gap between academic and development practitioners With diverse case studies and a fresh theoretical framework this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of South Asian studies gender studies sexuality studies sociology and social anthropology political studies diaspora studies postcolonial and global south studies
