Sex Education An Islamic Perspective:

Sexuality Education from an Islamic Perspective G. Hussein Rassool, Muhammad Aftab Khan, Shaikh Abdul Mabud, Muhammad Ahsan, 2020-02-13 We live in an over sexualised culture where sex and sexuality have become part of the public domain This sexual revolution challenges Judeo Christian and Islamic norms and boundaries As such sexuality education is a sensitive and extremely important issue and its current implementation in schools has raised public concerns This book explores the subject contextualising it within the matrix of Islamic beliefs and practices Islam binds sexuality and sexual education to a moral grid with rights and obligations justice and equity There is a dominant discourse and stereotype around Islamic sexuality which presents sex and sexuality as the biggest taboo fraught with fear and seldom discussed This book dispels such myths and misconceptions providing an overview of sexuality education in the modern world and the need for such education

Sex Education Shahid Athar, 2006 Sex Education Shahid Athar, 1995 Values Underpinning Sex Education from an Islamic Perspective Muhamad Zahiri Awang Mat, 2005 The need for the implementation of an Islamic value based sex education curriculum in schools has become a major concern among educators in Malaysia Thus this study examines values underpinning sex education from an Islamic perspective and its implications for the sex education curriculum in Malaysian schools It discusses the concept of holistic education as the framework of the study and the status of the sex education curriculum in this framework The development and practice of sex education in Malaysia is examined The study examines the concept of values from an Islamic perspective Its argumentations show that values for inculcation in the sex education curriculum could be derived from the five essentials al daruriyyal al khamsah of the Islamic law The study also examines and analyses the values underpinning the Malaysian sex education curriculum The major purpose of the study is to construct an Islamic valuebased model for sex education curriculum IVBSEC which is also used to examine values underpinning the Malaysian sex education curriculum The study ends with a discussion on the implications of the study on the Malaysian curriculum The study employed philosophical analytical and historical methods curriculum criticism and text analysis It employed the quantitative method for analyzing frequencies and percentages of topics related to sex education from the textbooks used in Malaysian secondary schools The study was able to demonstrate conceptually that values in the sex education curriculum should be seen from the holistic approach and ought to be based on religious foundations The study was able to show that IVBSEC could be drawn from the five essentials al daruriyyat al khamsah of Islamic law which are the preservation of religion self intellect progeny and property It was found that the Malaysian sex education curriculum lacked certain religious sub values The least highlighted of the sub values was that derived from the preservation of religion namely the greatness of the Creator and integration with revealed knowledge and the sub value derived from the preservation of property that is amanah or trustworthiness The study suggests the religious foundation must be given priority in designing the sex education curriculum The IVBSEC as proposed by the researcher could be considered as an alternative approach to the existing value based sex education curriculum in Malaysia Sex Education Ghulam Sarwar,1996 Sex and Sex Education , Values in Sex Education J. Mark Halstead,Michael Jonathan Reiss,2003 An accessible yet authoritative book situating sex education both in the primary and secondary school within the current focus on values and citizenship The Politics of Pleasure in Sexuality Education Louisa Allen,Mary Lou Rasmussen,Kathleen Quinlivan,2013-12-17 Pleasure and desire have been important components of the vision for sexuality education for over 20 years This book argues that there has been a lack of scrutiny over the political motivations that underpin research supportive of pleasure and desire within comprehensive sexuality education In this volume key researchers in the field consider how discourses related to pleasure and desire have been taken up internationally They argue that sexuality education is clearly shaped by specific cultural and political contexts and examine how these contexts have shaped the development of pleasure s inclusion in such programs Via such discussions this volume incites a re configuration of thought regarding sexuality education s approach to pleasure and desire Sexuality Education Elizabeth Schroeder,Judy Kuriansky,2009-04-30 An exemplary team of professionals provides a comprehensive look at sex education the heated debate over federal controls current research and practice programs politics legislation and cultural and religious issues related to sex and sexuality education In the groundbreaking Sexuality Education Past Present and Future the history practices and politics of sexuality education are explained Respected educators counselors and therapists marshal both research and educated opinion to offer insights into exactly what is meant by sex education what the various approaches are what age appropriate lessons are supported by most professionals and the impact of government policies Noting that the need for sexuality education has expanded to adults from new parents to senior citizens this unique work also takes readers into classrooms and makes them privy to conversations representing everyone from elementary school students to nursing home residents These comments reveal the range of unanswered questions about sex questions that are important for psychological as well as physical health In addition the contributors explore ongoing issues in sexuality education such as how to present culturally competent lessons that include consideration of race ethnicity gender religion and sexual orientation The experts also examine sexuality education in other countries the challenges those countries face and their victories over unplanned pregnancy and STDs in the global effort to preserve sexual health Sex Education In Schools Pankaj Arora,2009-01-01 In Indian context Sex & Sexuality in Islam Muhammad Aftab Khan,2006 Sexuality Education and New Materialism Louisa Allen,2018-06-20 This book aims to explore what queer thinking and new materialist feminist thought might offer the field of sexuality education It argues that queer theory in education might be queered further by drawing on feminist new materialism and extending itself to subjects beyond sexual and gender identities issues including a focus on things Allen explores how new materialism as a form of queer thinking might be brought to bear on other important issues of social justice such as classroom cultural and religious diversity

Islam in Education in European Countries. Pedagogical Concepts and Empirical Findings Aurora Alvarez

Veinguer, Gunther Dietz, Dan-Paul Jozsa, Thorsten Knauth, 2009 Relations between Muslims and the public education systems of Europe are often characterised by tensions There is often still a perceived incompatibility between the claims of individual Muslims or Muslim communities on the one hand and the aims of public education in Europe on the other The relatively recent presence of Islam in much of Europe the internal diversity of Muslim communities the lack of a centralized hierarchical church like structure different arguments are used to justify such a discriminatory treatment of one of the largest faith communities in Europe Nevertheless as this book aims to illustrate there are already rich and diverse experiences throughout Europe of how to integrate Islam into the national and regional school systems particularly in primary but also in secondary education Accordingly this book provides some analyses of the ways in which Islam is integrated in education in certain regions of Spain the Netherlands France and England These analyses are paralleled by empirical findings concerning the role of religion in the life of young Muslims their views concerning religion in school and the impact of religion in education and society in Spain the Netherlands Norway Germany France and England
