

A Sampling of Sex Etiquette

Q: Is it ever cricket to ditch the man I'm with for a new find?

A: Arriving with Jim and leaving with him is utterly tasteless manners. The only possible excuse for such indelicacy is a chicken bone lodged in your throat. You may then leave with the ambulance driver.

Q: Is it acceptable to invite a man I've just met up to my apartment?

A: Certainly, as long as your important documents are in order and you've notified your next of kin.

Q: In an ongoing relationship, isn't it reasonable to expect a daily phone call and at least a few dates a week?

A: While you're composing your list of requirements, you might as well throw in Russian sables, some tastefully opulent emerald baubles, and a few weekends in Monte Carlo. Undivided attention is frequently just as tough to come by.

become an ever expanding part of life in the West in the twenty first century We live in terror of disease abuse stranger danger environmental devastation and terrorist onslaught We are bombarded with reports of new concerns for our safety and that of our children and urged to take greater precautions and seek more protection But compared to the past or to the developing world people in contemporary Western societies have much less familiarity with pain suffering debilitating disease and death We actually enjoy an unprecedented level of personal safety When confronted with events like the destruction of the World Trade Centre fear for the future is inevitable But what happened on September 11th 2001 was in many ways an old fashioned act of terror representing the destructive side of the human passions Frank Furedi argues that the greater danger in our culture is the tendency to fear achievements representing a more constructive side of humanity We panic about GM food about genetic research about the health dangers of mobile phones The facts often fail to support the scare stories about new or growing risks to our health and safety Our obsession with theoretical risks is in danger of distracting society from dealing with the old fashioned dangers that have always threatened our lives In this new edition Furedi relates his own thinking on the sociology of fear to the thought of earlier thinkers such as Darwin and Freud and to the sociological tradition of Durkheim C Wright Mills Anthony Giddens and others
