Queer Inclusions, Continental Divisions David Morton Rayside, 2008-01-01. No area of public policy and law has seen more change than lesbian gay bi sexual and trans gender rights and none so greatly needs careful comparative analysis. Queer Inclusions, Continental Divisions explores the politics of sexual diversity in Canada and the United States by analyzing three contentious areas: relationship recognition parenting and schooling. It enters into long standing debates over Canadian American contrasts while paying close attention to regional differences. David Rayside's examination of change over time in the public recognition of sexual minorities is based on his long experience with the analysis of trends as well as on a wide ranging search of media legal and social science accounts of developments across Canada and the United States. Rayside points to a take off pattern in Canadian policy change on relationship recognition and parenting but not in schooling. At the same time he explores the reasons for a pioneering pattern in early gains by American LGBT activists: a surprising number of court wins by American lesbian and gay parents and changes in American schooling that while still modest are more substantial than those instituted by the Canadian system. Queer Inclusions, Continental Divisions is a timely examination of controversial policy areas in North America and a reasoned judgment on the progress of lesbian and gay issues in our time Sexing the Maple Richard Cavell, Peter Dickinson, 2006-09-14 Sexing the Maple is a unique sourcebook designed to raise issues of nationalism and sexuality in Canada through a rich and diverse selection of fiction poetry criticism and history Structured so as to provide an interactive study of these issues the collection considers topics as wide ranging as First Nations sexuality censorship assisted reproduction and religion Literary works by Alice Munro Jane Rule Timothy Findley Leonard Cohen Irving Layton Lynn Crosbie Michael Turner and many others are juxtaposed with criticism and historical documents many of which were previously out of print or unavailable Selections include Marshall McLuhan's 1967 article The Future of Sex and excerpts from Stan Persky and John Dixon's Kiddie Porn SKY Lee's Disappearing Moon Cafe and Margaret Atwood's A Handmaid's Tale Youth and Society Vappu Tyyskä, 2014-01-02 In this essential third edition Vappu Tyyskä examines the challenges faced by today's young people through a critical lens Difficult questions related to such issues as employment education social pressure identity and crime are explored by Tyyskä as she paints a fascinating picture of modern youth in three countries Canada the United States and the United Kingdom The author explores the negative stereotypes surrounding young people and argues that it is time to contextualize our understanding of youth by addressing the underlying social economic and political issues they face Each of the ten revised chapters begins with a list of key learning objectives and ends with discussion questions to aid in the learning process and stimulate critical thinking This new edition incorporates updated statistics comprehensive tables and revised narratives in which the author explores topics pertinent to today's youth such as the influence of social media eating disorders and recent changes to the juvenile justice system Troubled Masculinities Kenneth James Moffatt, 2012-01-01 Through personal narratives and assessments of artistic expression the contributors present critical and inventive views of masculinity and how it is performed and interpreted in urban space Set against the backdrop of Toronto the essays engage with the global and transnational processes that affect identity and consider how the social hybridity of large cities allows individuals to work against fundamentalist and essentialist attitudes toward gender A New Education Politics George Martell, 1995-01-01 Preface Acknowledgements Introduction The Politics of Money PART I FIGHTING THE SOCIAL CONTRACT Chapter Premier Bob's Coalition Chapter 2 The Social Contract Juggernaut Chapter 3 Digging In For Battle PART II TOWARDS A NEW EDUCATION POLITICS A RESPONSE TO THE ROYAL COMMISSION ON LEARNING Introduction Chapter 4 Finding the Money Chapter 5 Democracy vs Central Control Chapter 6 The Struggle for Curriculum A Country Nourished on Self-doubt Thomas Thorner, Thor Frohn-Nielsen, 2010-01-01 Always illuminating often infuriating and as raw and vivid as any collection of primary materials that I've seen assembled for students I will definitely be using the book in my survey course Christopher Pennington University of Toronto Scarborough Creative Subversions Margot Francis, 2011-12-01 Creative Subversions explores how whiteness and Indigeneity are articulated through images of Canadian identity and the contradictory and contested meanings they evoke These benign even kitschy images she argues are haunted by ideas about race masculinity and sexuality that circulated during the formative years of Anglo Canadian nationhood In this richly illustrated book Margot Francis shows how national symbols such as the beaver the railway the wilderness of Banff National Park and ideas about Indianness evoke nostalgic versions of a past that cannot be expelled or assimilated Juxtaposing historical images with material by contemporary artists she investigates how artists are giving these taken for granted symbols new and suggestive meanings The Ethics of Teaching Michael A. Boylan, 2017-05-15 Education is at a crossroads While bureaucrats and teachers fight over the best way to structure and deliver education to students much of the friction generated relates to the different conceptions of what education is about in the first place The crisis in education is therefore of key importance and demands careful attention in order to formulate the best possible response But before policies can be formulated there needs to be a clear agreement on what education should be about To this end this collection of previously published essays facilitates just such discussion The anthology is designed to give a snapshot of the seminal work in the philosophy of education and the input of ethical issues upon that work It provides an authoritative tour of the profession and pivotal issues that confront it written from a variety of international and critical perspectives Removing the Margins George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2000 Removing the Margins works to identify and challenge many of the cultural and systematic paradigms that perpetuate racism and other forms of oppression in mainstream schooling The authors pursue the ideal that education should not simply affirm the status quo but should produce knowledge for social action This philosophical and theoretical resource also moves beyond the study of educational failure to explore the new and creative ways schooling barriers have been confronted The focus is placed on the factors of representation family and community staff equity language integration and spirituality as fundamental to school reform Removing the Margins is the product of five years of research and writing in the search for best practices in inclusive education The authors address the philosophical and theoretical bases for inclusivity in this book while laying out the practical approach in the accompanying volume Inclusive Schooling A Teacher s Guide to Removing the Margins Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy Retooling the Mind Factory Alan Sears, 2003-01-01 Alan Sears examines education reform in relation to a broad process of cultural and economic change His book makes the case that education reform is one aspect of a broad ranging neo liberal agenda that aims to push the market deeper into every aspect of our lives by eliminating or shrinking non market alternatives The author begins by showing that advocates of education reform have had to make the case that the current system is not working This sets the ground for an examination of the so called Common Sense Revolution a claim that drastic change was required to redesign government policies to fit a changing world Lean production methods are a crucial component of this changing world and broader social and cultural change is now required to consolidate the emerging order built on the spread of these methods Education reform is designed to recast the relations of citizenship contributing to the cultural and social change promoted through the social policy of the lean state

Gender Relations in Canada Janet Siltanen, Andrea Doucet, 2008 This text focuses on how gender differences and inequalities play out in the social lives of men and women throughout the life course Theory is linked with practice through a series of case studies that highlight current research from Canada the United States Britain and Australia
