Song King Levi S. Gibbs,2018-05-31 When itinerant singers from China s countryside become iconic artists worlds collide The lives and performances of these representative singers become sites for conversations between the rural and urban local and national folk and elite and traditional and modern In Song King Connecting People Places and Past in Contemporary China Levi S Gibbs examines the life and performances of Folksong King of Western China Wang Xiangrong b 1952 and explores how itinerant performers come to serve as representative symbols straddling different groups connecting diverse audiences and shifting between amorphous place based local regional and national identities Moving from place to place these border walkers embody connections between a range of localities presenting audiences with traditional modern rural and urban identities among which to continually reposition themselves in an evolving world Born in a small mountain village near the intersection of the

Great Wall and the Yellow River in a border region with a rich history of migration Wang Xiangrong was exposed to a wide range of songs as a child The songs of Wang s youth prepared him to create a repertoire of region representing pieces and mediate between regions nations and multinational corporations in national and international performances During the course of a career that included meeting Deng Xiaoping in 1980 and running with the Olympic torch in 2008 Wang s life songs and performances have come to highlight various facets of social identity in contemporary China Drawing on extensive fieldwork with Wang and other professional folksingers from northern Shaanxi province at weddings Chinese New Year galas business openings and Christmas concerts Song King argues that songs act as public conversations people can join in on As song kings and queens fuse personal and collective narratives in performances of iconic songs they provide audiences with compelling models for socializing personal experience negotiating a sense of self and group in an ever changing world

Chinese Street Opera in Singapore Tong Soon Lee,2024-03-18 Since Singapore declared independence from Malaysia in 1965 Chinese street opera has played a significant role in defining Singaporean identity Carefully tracing the history of amateur and professional performances in Singapore Tong Soon Lee reflects on the role of street performance in fostering cultural nationalism and entrepreneurship He explains that the government welcomes Chinese street opera performances because they combine tradition and modernism and promote a national culture that brings together Singapore s four main ethnic groups Eurasian Malay Chinese and South Asian Chinese Street Opera in Singapore documents the ways in which this politically motivated art form continues to be influenced and transformed by Singaporean politics ideology and context in the twenty first century By performing Chinese street opera amateur troupes preserve their rich heritage underscoring the Confucian mind set that a learned person engages in the arts for moral and unselfish purposes Educated performers also control behavior emotions and values They are creative and innovative and their use of new technologies indicates a modern entrepreneurial spirit Their performances bring together diverse ethnic groups to watch and perform Lee argues while also encouraging a national attitude focused on both remembering the past and preparing for the future in Singapore The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy Xin Zhang,Xiaobin Jian,2020-12-30 The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy presents the Third Space as a new frame through which foreign language pedagogy is conceptualized as a pedagogy of negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture The field of Chinese as a foreign language CFL in the past decades has been expanding rapidly at the beginning and intermediate levels yet it is lacking in scholarship on the true advanced level both in theory building and research supported curriculum and material development This book argues that it is time for CFL to go beyond merely satisfying the desire of gazing at the other whether it is curiosity about the other or superiority over the other to focusing on learning to work with the other It reimagines the field as co constructing a transcultural Third Space where learners are becoming experts in negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture It presents a range of research based CFL pedagogical scholarship and practices especially relevant to the advanced level and to the goal of enabling learners to go past fans or critics to become actors players in the game of cross lingual and intercultural cooperation A New Literary History of Modern China David Der-wei Wang,2017-05-22 Featuring over 140 Chinese and non Chinese contributors this landmark volume edited by David Der wei Wang explores unconventional forms as well as traditional genres emphasizes Chinese authors influence on foreign writers as well as China s receptivity to outside literary influences and offers vibrant contrasting voices and points of view

The Stranger and the Chinese Moral Imagination Haiyan Lee,2014-11-12 In the last two decades China has become a dramatically more urban society and hundreds of millions of people have changed residence in the process Family and communal bonds have been broken in a country once known as a society of kith and kin There has been a pervasive sense of moral crisis in contemporary China and the new market economy doesn t seem to offer any solutions This book investigates how the Chinese have coped with the condition of modernity in which strangers are routinely thrust together Haiyan Lee dismisses the easy answers claiming that this moral crisis is merely smoke and mirrors conjured up by paternalistic overwrought leaders and scholars or that it can be simply chalked up to the topsy turvy of a market economy on steroids Rather Lee argues that the perception of crisis is itself symptomatic of a deeper problem that has roots in both the Confucian tradition of kinship and the modern state management of stranger sociality This ambitious work is the first to investigate the figure of the stranger foreigner peasant migrant bourgeois intellectual class enemy unattached woman animal across literature film television and museum culture Lee s aim is to show that hope lies with a robust civil society in which literature and the arts play a key role in sharpening the moral faculties and apprenticing readers in the art of living with strangers In so doing she makes a historical comparative and theoretically informed contribution to the on going conversation on China s un civil society A Companion to Chinese Cinema Yingjin Zhang, 2012-04-23 A Companion to Chinese Cinema is a collection of original essays written by experts in a range of disciplines that provide a comprehensive overview of the evolution and current state of Chinese cinema Represents the most comprehensive coverage of Chinese cinema to date Applies a multidisciplinary approach that maps the expanding field of Chinese cinema in bold and definitive ways Draws attention to previously neglected areas such as diasporic filmmaking independent documentary film styles and techniques queer aesthetics star studies film and other arts or media Features several chapters that explore China's new market economy government policy and industry practice placing the intricate relationship between film and politics in a historical and international context Includes overviews of Chinese film studies in Chinese and English publications Beyond The Chinese Connection Crystal S. Anderson, 2013-06 Examines the rise of post 1970s Afro Asian cultural production that embodied the aspirations and contradictions entailed in forging Black Asian identification and solidarity Contestations of Liberal Order Marko Lehti, Henna-Riikka Pennanen, Jukka Jouhki, 2019-08-14 This volume explores the Western led liberal order that is claimed to be in crisis Currently the West appears less as a modernizing or civilizing entity leading the way and more as being engulfed in a deep crisis Simultaneously the West still appears to be needed in order to imagine the global order by promoters of liberal peace as well as its opponents This book asks how and why crisis is needed for constituting the West liberal and global order and how these three are conjoined and reinvented The book encompasses narratives endorsing and rejecting the West and the liberal international order as well as alternative visions for a post Western world conceived within the rising and challenging powers The study is of interest to scholars and students of international relations critical security studies peace and conflict research and social sciences in general
