Mrs Jack A Biography Of Isabella Stewart Gardner:

Mrs. Jack Louise Hall Tharp, 1965 Tharp collection Mrs Jack Louise Hall Tharp, 1984-06-01 MRS. JACK LOUISE HALL THARP, 1965 Mrs. Jack Louise Hall Tharp, 1965 Tharp collection Isabella Stewart Gardner Nathaniel Silver, Diana Seave Greenwald, 2022-11-29 A major new biography of legendary art collector and philanthropist Isabella Stewart Gardner Isabella Stewart Gardner 1840 1924 assembled an extraordinary collection of art from diverse cultures and eras and built a Venetian style palazzo in Boston to share these exquisite treasures with the world But her life and work remains shrouded in myth Separating fiction and fact this book paints an unforgettable portrait of Gardner drawing on her substantial personal archive and including previously unpublished findings to offer new perspectives on her life and her construction of identity Gardner was heroically progressive in some of her views and disappointingly biased in others Nathaniel Silver and Diana Seave Greenwald shed new light on her connections to minority communities in Boston her views on suffrage and other issues of the day the sources of her and her husband s wealth and her ties to politicians writers and artists What emerges is a multifaceted portrait of a trailblazing collector and patron of the arts from Italian Renaissance paintings to Chinese antiquities who built a museum unprecedented in its curatorial vision Beautifully illustrated this book challenges any portrayal of Gardner as a straightforward feminist hero revealing instead an exceptional complex woman who created a legendary museum and played a vibrant and influential role in the art world Distributed for the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum The Art of JAMA M. Therese Southgate, 2011-03-17 The Art of JAMA Vol III contains selected covers from the Journal of the American Medical Association with accompanying essays that explore the background of the artists and the circumstances under which the work was completed followed by commentary on the work itself Selected and edited by Dr M Therese Southgate JAMA contributing editor Life Writing Meg Jensen, Jane Jordan, 2009-03-26 In our age self publishing self broadcasting and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive This is also the age of the witness the age of testimony in which first hand accounts personal experience life change and evolution are valued for good or ill over distanced reflection What are we to make of all this telling of lives The essays collected in Life Writing The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and in doing so demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge poised to writers teachers and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics curators editors and biographers including Neal Ascherson Victoria Glendinning Professor Kathryn Hughes Hanif Kureishi Blake Morrison and Lawrence Goldman editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era defining genre and as such presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age Larz and Isabel Anderson Stephen T. Moskey, 2016-04-04 Larz and Isabel Anderson were wealthy socialites whose extraordinary lives spanned a century of American history from the Civil War to World War II. Their world included dozens of celebrities who helped define modern culture and politics: Henry and Clover Adams, Alice Pike Barney, Cecilia Beaux, Lord and Lady Curzon, Maud Howe Elliott, Henry James, Isabella Stewart Gardner, Robert Todd Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, John Singer Sargent, and William Howard Taft. In his dual biography based on six years of archival research, Stephen Moskey offers a fresh look into America's Gilded Age while focusing not just on the lives of the Andersons but also on the intersection of wealth, celebrity, politics, gender, and race as one century ended and another began. While leading others back in time, Moskey shines a light on Larz's professional achievements as well as Isabel's emergence as an American woman of the early modern era whose words and deeds anticipated women's roles in culture and society today. Larz and Isabel Anderson shares the story of a glittering Gilded Age couple as they lived, worked, prospered, and gave back during a fascinating time in America's history.

Crawford Alexander Mann III. Biographies. Brittany Emens Strupp. Crawford Alexander Mann III. Reared in a Greenhouse Dorothy B. Wexler, 2014-03-05. Beloved as the family storyteller, Dorothy Winthrop Bradford left behind at her death in 1987 diaries, letters, scrapbooks, and memorabilia that date back to the Civil War and provide a picture of a way of life long gone of a period when leisure time was plentiful and cars were few when her hometown of Hamilton, Massachusetts was open country and Boston a closed society. These materials provide an intimate view of the vanished lifestyle of the upper classes between the two world wars. At the heart of the story is Dorothy Bradford's own life and the 82 years she spent in the small town where she was born. It was a life, however, set against the vast canvas of her extended family whose stories transport the reader back to colonial times where one of her ancestors was the first governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and far across America and to the Caribbean, Europe, and Africa. From the Civil War to the Second World War, from turn of the century Puerto Rico to the glories of the still unspoiled West, the book is a virtual who's who of American history filled with cameos by Teddy Roosevelt, Edith Wharton, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Henry James, Thomas Jefferson, and many more. Richly illustrated with more than 300 photographs, this intriguing volume looks at a woman whose life may have seemed on the surface narrow and predictable but in reality touched upon many of the great currents of American history.

Whitmanic and the Wildean the warrior poet and the salon dazzler and demonstrates how they framed the gay experience at Harvard and in the country as a whole The core of this book however is a portrait of a great university and its community struggling with the full implications of free inquiry Harvard took very seriously its mission to shape the minds and bodies of its charges who came from and were expected to perpetuate the nation s elite yet struggled with the open expression of their sexual identities which it alternately accepted and anathematized Harvard believed it could live up to the Oxbridge model offering a sanctuary worthy of the classical Greek ideals of male association yet somehow remain true to its legacy of respectable austerity and Puritan self denial The Crimson Letter therefore tells stories of great unhappiness and manacled minds as well as stories of triumphant activism and fulfilled promise Shand Tucci brilliantly exposes the secrecy and codes that attended the gay experience showing how their effects could simultaneously thwart and spark creativity He explores in particular the question of gay sensibility and its effect upon everything from symphonic music to football set design to statecraft poetic theory to skyscrapers The Crimson Letter combines the learned and the lurid tragedy and farce scandal and vindication and figures of world renown as well as those whose influence extended little farther than Harvard Square Here is an engrossing account of a university transforming and transformed by those passing through its gates and of their enduring impact upon American culture
