Sinophone Studies Shu-mei Shih, 2013-01-15 This definitive anthology casts Sinophone studies as the study of Sinitic language cultures born of colonial and postcolonial influences Essays by such authors as Rey Chow Ha Jin Leo Ou fan Lee Ien Ang Wei ming Tu and David Wang address debates concerning the nature of Chineseness while introducing readers to essential readings in Tibetan Malaysian Taiwanese French Caribbean and American Sinophone literatures By placing Sinophone cultures at the crossroads of multiple empires this anthology richly demonstrates the transformative power of multiculturalism and multilingualism and by examining the place based cultural and social practices of Sinitic language communities in their historical contexts beyond China proper it effectively refutes the diasporic framework It is an invaluable companion for courses in Asian postcolonial empire and ethnic studies as well as world and comparative literature

Uncoupling American Empire Yu-Fang Cho, 2014-01-06 A radical revision of the politics of race and sexuality within racial capitalism Uncoupling American Empire provides an original cultural genealogy of how the institutionalization of marriage shaped imagined relationships among working people who were seen as sexually deviant in nineteenth century U S imperial cultures Departing from the longstanding focus on domesticity as a middle class white women s imaginary construct of home nation and empire this book foregrounds the relationship between marriage and subjects marked by slavery prostitution indentured labor and colonialism through tracing overlooked linkages among the period s fiction texts journalistic accounts pictorial illustrations and missionary narratives Yu Fang Cho s feminist intersectional approaches illuminate the complex web of social difference that uneven access to marriage has historically produced the cumulative effects of the ironic and indeed cynical promise of freedom equality and inclusion through sexual conformity and the central role that cultural imagination plays in forging alternative relations among minoritized subjects bestseller from Italy's foremost woman writer now in paperback The Present Moment Marjorie Oludhe Macgoye, 2014-08-30 This contemporary African classic tells the story of seven unforgettable Kenyan women as it traces more than sixty years of turbulent national history Like their country this group of old women is divided by ethnicity language class and religion But around the charcoal fire at the Refuge the old age home they share in Nairobi they uncover the hidden personal histories that connect them as women stories of their struggles for self determination of conflict violence and loss but also of survival Each woman has found her way to the Refuge because of a devastating life experience the loss of family and security to revolution emigration or poverty But as they reflect upon their tragedies they also become aware of the community they have formed a community of collective history strength humor and affection And they learn that they are more connected than they know as the murder of a student in the neighborhood reveals how their lives have intersected across generations how securely the past is tied to the present and to the future of their young nation Always from Somewhere Else Marjorie Agosin, 2000-08 Agosin surpasses just a familial memoir and delivers a stunning written testimony Copley News Service Umbertina Helen Barolini, 1998-01-01 The panoramic descriptive and solidly crafted historical novel of immigration womanhood and the feminist ideals of self reliance and self confidence Publishers Weekly This sweeping multi generational novel begins in southern Italy's Calabria region in the late 1800s as Umbertina the wife of a simple farmer persuades her husband to emigrate to the United States to pursue its promise of hope and freedom for their three children Through years of struggle on New York City's Lower East Side and then in a growing upstate New York town it is Umbertina's determination ingenuity and business sense that propel the family into financial success and security leaving her daughters and granddaughters free to sort out their identities both as Italian Americans and as women Through a dazzling interplay of American and Italian characters in both countries Helen Barolini delineates the major concerns of all thinking American ethnics This is no less true today as this republication restores Umbertina to a reading public newly attuned to the complexities of cultural inheritance and identity The Philadelphia Inquirer Incorporations of Chineseness Serena Fusco, 2016-04-26 Divided into two parts the first a combination of historical introduction and theoretical analysis the second consisting of comprehensive in depth detailed close readings of representative literary works this book is a unique bridge connecting the fields of Comparative Literature Asian American Studies and Asian Studies Through a repositioning of the Chinese component of Asian America in relation to the transformations of Chinese identity in modern times it reads Asian American literature and Asian American literary studies in the context of the historical events and geopolitical changes that have informed the construction of Chineseness Drawing on feminist theory philosophy narratology and semiotics the book focuses on the body as a point of interchange between collectivity and individuality race and culture matter and discourse The body as argued here symbolically and narratively reflects in the texts the encounter between Chineseness and Americanness revealing it as a matter germane to the construction of American multiculturalism but simultaneously informed by the broader politics of the Chinese diaspora This book historicizes Chineseness from an ex centric perspective thus contributing to the understanding of its present and re focalizes Asian American literature from a non US perspective thus exploring the Asian American field with a comparative outlook Overall this work illuminates an aspect of the topical and inevitably contemporary dialogue of two major Pacific superpowers the US and China Psychoanalysis and Literature , Marilyn Charles,2015-03-25 Psychoanalysis offers many concepts that are extremely useful clinically but not always accessible in the original In Psychoanalysis and Literature The Stories We Live Marilyn Charles pairs case vignettes with examples from literature to highlight the essential human struggles that play out in the consulting room This pairing depathologizes those struggles and offers a conceptual framework that can help the clinician facilitate these journeys of discovery Describing first how literature affords an opportunity for vicarious engagement with struggles endemic to the human condition she then focuses on trauma dreams and cultural collisions turning more explicitly to the developmental challenges of identity relatedness aging and generativity Psychoanalysis and Literature is accessible relevant and timely

An Interethnic Companion to Asian American Literature King-Kok Cheung, 1997 A survey of Asian American literature

Immigrant Subjectivities in Asian American and Asian Diaspora Literatures Sheng-mei Ma, 1998-07-10 This book opens with an interrogation of the representation of immigrants in Asian American and to a lesser extent Asian Diaspora literatures including works by such writers as Maxine Hong Kingston Frank Chin Amy Tan and Bharati Mukherjee Immigrant subjectivities in these texts are frequently subsumed in the urgent need to self fashion an Asian American identity and take the peculiar form of immigrant schizophrenic Ma also explores how the drive to claim America manifests itself as an eroticization of white bodies in male immigrant and minority writers He then directs his attention to immigrant self representation from the unique yet representative positionality of Taiwanese immigrants as found in overseas student literature and in the recent films of Ang Lee With a contrapuntal reading of the portrayal of immigrants in Asian American and Asian Diaspora literatures this book maps out a terrain largely uncharted by scholars of various disciplines
