A Homiletical Praxeology on the Persuasiveness of Literary Forms Ferdi P. Kruger, 2025-04-29

This book is aimed at academic scholars and preachers who deal with homiletical praxeology weekly Its purpose is to focus on the rhetorical appeal of the Biblical text which is alluded to from the viewpoint of the five preaching blocks according to Matthew's Gospel and the Hebrew sermon. The book's uniqueness is encapsulated in the idea that it is a practical theological and homiletical study. Consequently, the book offers empirical perspectives on literary forms and an interdisciplinary engagement with neighbour sciences before presenting normative perspectives. This book posits that faith communities should be exposed to more literary forms to realise that the library of the Gospel and its literature does have a rhetorical appeal that should be preached according to its purpose. The unique structure and way the Gospel portrays the Kingdom that has come near as well as the Hebrews sermon offering perspectives on attitude change could enrich a homiletical practice.

Choosing to Preach Kenton C. Anderson, 2009-05-26 Today traditional forms of preaching are being scrutinized and challenged. The biblical sermon is not immune to the pressure to evolve or even fall by the wayside, leaving pastors and seminary students confused over how best to communicate to today's listeners. In this forward-looking textbook, Kenton Anderson delivers a strong call to current and future ministers to indeed choose to preach biblical sermons despite the obstacles to doing so. While preaching itself is non-negotiable, the exact form it takes can be much more flexible, allowing people to hear from God as they hear his Word preached. Rather than presenting one model or process for preparing a sermon, Anderson explains several available options. As you discern your message from the Bible, will you begin with the text deductive or with the listener inductive? Will you focus on the idea, cognitive or the image, affective? The choices you make lead to five possible sermon structures: DECLARATIVE (make an argument), PRAGMATIC (solve a mystery), NARRATIVE (tell a story), VISIONARY (paint a picture), and INTEGRATIVE (sing a song). Each model is described in detail and related to well-known contemporary preachers including John MacArthur, Rick Warren, Eugene Lowry, and Rob Bell. This book equips you with a variety of tools for your preaching tool kit. A CD-ROM with additional helpful resources is included, as well as discussion questions and practical exercises.

Engaging the Gadfly Casey T. Sigmon, 2025-06-09 In 2020, most preachers and congregations were forced into online and hybrid preaching. We had to react quickly. For some, this adventure opened creative forms of preaching: stitches, duets, reels, and VR. For others, it was a season of just getting by: cell phones propped up on books, laptops on dining room tables. We did what we could to proclaim the good news in turbulent times. Five years later, Sigmon invites preachers and congregations to reflect on those experiences as they consider the future of preaching. She helps the reader engage the Gadfly whose buzzing signals a shift in how we understand relationships, truth, presence, and place in this digital age. Sociologists and historians argue that we are now on the brink of a shift in communication as transformative as the invention of the printing press. No wonder ministry is so challenging right now. Ultimately, this digital age like previous ages of technological change presents problems and possibilities to the practice of preaching, and so ecclesologically, the shape of the church. What shapes will emerge? Sigmon will empower preachers and congregations to answer that question for themselves through a new media homilecclesiology.

Preaching from the Cross Frank J. Matera, 2025-02-11 Much has been written about the life ministry and theology of the apostle Paul But what about Paul specifically as a preacher How did he understand his commission from the risen Lord Jesus to preach the gospel and how did he put it into practice Further what lessons can contemporary preachers learn from Paul about the theology and practice of preaching to help them be more faithful messengers of God's Word As a leading Pauline scholar and practicing pastor Frank Matera has considered these questions and he offers this short accessible book to pastors and students as wise and helpful guidance Matera explores a Pauline theology of preaching focusing on three main questions Why did Paul preach What did he preach And how did he preach He also explores Paul's preaching as the ministry of the new covenant He identifies and explores seven themes of Paul's preaching which in turn offer key practical insights for preaching in a Pauline way Readers are encouraged to preach from the cross making the crucified Christ their focus and their model demonstrating what they preach by their own cruciform lives
