Medieval Legacy for Contemporary Theology Anselm K. Min, 2014-10-27 In Rethinking the Medieval Legacy for Contemporary Theology six distinguished theologians bridge medieval and contemporary theologies by developing the theological significance of medieval insights in response to contemporary issues Their nuanced readings of medieval texts extended to major theological issues of our time provide examples of the retrieval of the medieval tradition an essential part of any contemporary theological reconstruction Barbara Newman extends the theology of perichoresis or mutual indwelling to illuminate the relationship between donor and recipient in the case of organ transplants Marilyn McCord Adams applies insights about divine friendship to the perennial issue of horrendous evil and Kevin Madigan brings principles of medieval exegesis to bear on the contemporary historical critical approach to biblical interpretation Ingolf U Dalferth applies insights from the doctrine of divine omnipotence and creation ex nihilo to deconstruct Heidegger's limitation of the possibilities of authentic existence to historical facticity Pim Valkenberg explores the possibilities of a theological encounter between Christianity and Islam in the works of Aquinas and Nicholas of Cusa and Anselm K Min applies the analogical insights of Aquinas on the nature and limits of human knowledge of God to a critique of contemporary theologies that claim to know either too little or too much about God Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time

Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual's self orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures Moreover objects images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel space time and individuality which also includes of course women's movement through the larger world whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen's activities at various sites artists employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere and in terms of metaphysical experiences catabasis A Handy Book of Reference on All Subjects and for All Readers Ainsworth Rand Spofford, Charles Annandale, 1900 The Critic, 1894 decades after its first publication one of the most important books written about our divided world Intellectual history on a high order and very exciting The New York Times In this wide ranging intellectually vigorous study Said traces the origins of orientalism to the centuries long period during which Europe dominated the Middle and Near East and from its position of power defined the orient simply as other than the occident This entrenched view continues to dominate western ideas and because it does not allow the East to represent itself prevents true understanding XX Century Cyclopaedia and Atlas
