Gender, Sexuality and Race in the Digital Age D. Nicole Farris, D'Lane R. Compton, Andrea P. Herrera, 2020-01-01 This book provides a unique analysis of the intersection between gender, sexuality, race and social media. While early scholarship identified the internet as being inherently egalitarian, this volume presents the internet as a real social place where inequalities matter and manifest in particular ways according to the architectures of particular platforms. This volume utilizes innovative methodologies to analyze how internet users both re-inscribe and resist inequalities of gender, sexuality and race. It describes how the internet has ameliorated and bridged geographic and numerical limits on community formation and this volume examines how the functioning of social inequalities differs on and offline.

'My Name Is Not Natasha' John Davies, 2025-10-01 This book challenges every common presumption that exists about the trafficking of women for the sex trade. It is a detailed account of an entire population of trafficked Albanian women whose varied experiences, including selling sex on the streets of France, clearly demonstrate how much the present discourse about trafficked women is misplaced and inadequate. The heterogeneity of the women involved and their relationships with various men is clearly presented as is the way women actively created a panoptical surveillance of themselves as a means of self-policing. There is no artificial divide between women who were deceived and abused and those who choose sex work; in fact, the book clearly shows how peripheral involvement in sex work was to the real agenda of the women involved. Most of the women described in this book were not making economic decisions to escape desperate poverty nor were they the uneducated naïve entrapped into sexual slavery. The women's success in transiting trafficking to achieve their own goals without the assistance of any outside agency is a testimony to their resilience and resolve.
