Realm Of The Senses:

Renewing the Senses Mark Wynn,2013 One and the same sensory scene can be differently experienced by different people or by the same person at different times depending upon their bodily and emotional condition and the concepts which they apply Mark R Wynn applies this familiar truth to the realm of religious experience religious commitments and convictions can make a difference to a person s bodily and emotional condition and their repertoire of concepts and accordingly the capacity to experience the everyday world differently may be one mark of spiritual maturity On this view becoming more mature in spiritual terms is not so much a question of directing your gaze away from this world and towards a non material realm it is instead a matter of discovering how the ordinary everyday world can be newly experienced

Scottish Rock Gary Latter,2008-03 The best mountain crag sea cliff and sport climbing in Scotland From the Foreword by Hamish MacInnes If you have an ambition to do all the climbs in these two Scottish Rock guides I think you d better schedule time off in your next life This labour of Gary s has been of gargantuan proportions Those of you who use the guides will benefit by his dedication and the sheer choice offered if you divide the retail price of these by the number of good routes you ll realise this is a bargain Volume 1 covers a proliferation of Scottish crags up to the natural demarcation of the Great Glen They are easier to access than most in Volume 2 and present infinite variety I have been a long time advocate of selected climbs and the use of photographs to illustrate both climbs and action I m glad that this principle has been used throughout these two volumes It gives you a push to get up and do things The list seems endless and if you succeed in doing half of them you ll be a much better climber and know a lot more about Scotland have a good decade In the Realm of the Senses known worldwide for the originality of his work This paperback edition of Tom Kundig Houses first published in 2006 collects five of his most prominent early residential projects which remain touchstones for him today In a new preface written for this edition Kundig reflects on the influence that these designs continue to have on his current thinking Each house presented from conceptual sketches through meticulously realized details is the product of a sustained and active collaborative process among designer builder and client The work of the Seattle based architect has been called both raw and refined disparate characteristics that produce extraordinarily inventive designs inspired by both the industrial structures ubiquitous to his upbringing in the Pacific Northwest and the vibrant craft cultures that are fostered there Buddhism and the Senses

Robert DeCaroli,Donald S. Lopez Jr.,Donald S Lopez Jr,2024-09-24 Across Buddhist traditions the five senses sight sound smell taste and touch are perceived both positively and negatively Share our eminent scholars fascination and deep insight into what makes a sensuous experience good or bad Following on the exhibition Encountering the Buddha Art and Practice across Asia at the National Museum of Asian Art ten eminent scholars present their insights into Buddhism s fascinating relation with the five senses sight sound smell taste and touch which careens between delight and disgust rarely finding a middle way While much of Buddhist literature is devoted to overcoming the attachment that dooms us to rebirth in samsara primarily by deprecating sense experience and showing that whatever brings us sensual pleasure leads only to physical and mental pain in texts such as the Lotus Sutra sensory powers do not offer sensory pleasure but rather knowledge clear observation and ability to teach the Dharma Considering such religiously and historically contingent ambiguity this volume presents each of the five senses in two instantiations the good and the bad opening up the discourse on the senses across Buddhist traditions Just as the museum departed from tradition to incorporate sensory experiences into the exhibition this volume is a new direction in scholarship to humanize Buddhist studies by foregrounding sensory experience and practice inviting the reader to think about the senses in a focused manner and shifting our understanding of Buddhism from the conceptual to the material or practical from the idealized to the human from the abstract to the grounded from the mind to the body Exploring the Senses Axel Michaels,Christoph Wulf,2017-09-19 This fascinating volume offers a transdisciplinary and transcultural approach to understanding the senses by exploring themes in anthropologies of sound sight smell taste touch and movement as expressed through aesthetic perceptual religious and spiritual experiences In drawing upon comparative perspectives from Indian and Western theories the essays demonstrate the integral relation of senses with each other as well as with allied notions of the body emotion and cultural memory Stressing the continued relevance of senses as they manifest in a globalized world under the influence of new media this work will interest scholars of anthropology cultural studies sociology ritual studies psychology religion philosophy and history Western Philosophy Mr. Rohit Manglik,2023-08-23 In this book we will study about major Western philosophers from ancient Greece to the modern era and their contributions to metaphysics ethics and epistemology Sense and Transcendence Ortwin de

Graef,1995 Codierungen von Emotionen im Mittelalter / Emotions and Sensibilities in the Middle Ages C. Stephen Jaeger,Ingrid Kasten,2012-10-24 Historical research into emotionality is at present generally enjoying an heightened level of interest This bilingual volume documents the proceedings of an international conference discussing current paradigms and perspectives in historical literary research into emotions and heightening awareness of the mediality of cultures of emotion in historical change The discussion of methodological questions opens up avenues for interdisciplinary research Toward a New Council of Florence Nicolaus of Cusa,2015-09-03 This is a book of English translations of the writings of one of the most important geniuses in history Cardinal Nicolaus of Cusa 1401 1464 He created ideas which had never been conceived before and which changed history for the better up through our time and far far into the future His thinking processes are sometimes summed up in his concept of the coincidence of opposites Instead of starting his thought process from accumulated sense perceptions and deducing law from observed appearances Cusa starts with the hypothesis that there must be an original potential from which all multiplicity derives By starting from the top or the Origin Cusa was able to solve previously insoluble problems For example his idea that the right to govern comes from the consent of the governed was not only the basis for solving clashes within the Catholic Church and even the attempt to reunify all of the various Christian churches at the Council of Florence but also lay at the heart of the experiments in government set up in the New England colonies of North America and the later creation of the United States Constitution Besides the title work On the Peace of Faith which resolves the conflicts among the religions 17 other papers are translated into English 14 for the first time The ongoing renaissance in the study of Cusa worldwide is the basis for resolving the conflicts which still plague the world

Everything and Nothing Graham Priest, Markus Gabriel, 2022-09-15 Is it possible for reality as a whole to be part of itself Can the world appear within itself without thereby undermining the consistency of our thought and knowledge claims concerning more local matters of fact This is a question on which Markus Gabriel and Graham Priest disagree Gabriel argues that the world cannot exist precisely because it is understood to be an absolutely totality Priest responds by developing a special form of mereology according to which reality is a single all encompassing whole everything which counts itself among its denizens Their disagreement results in a debate about everything and nothing Gabriel argues that we experience nothingness once we overcome our urge to contain reality in an all encompassing thought whereas Priest develops an account of nothing according to which it is the ground of absolutely everything A debate about everything and nothing but also a reflection on the very possibility of metaphysics
