The Indiana Jackass Regiment in the Civil War Phillip E. Faller, 2013-01-22 This book contains never before published information including artillery firing tables for an Indiana infantry regiment converted to heavy artillery It concentrates upon these Hoosiers three and a half years of duty in the Trans Mississippi Theater and Gulf states during the Civil War often as a separate command They acted as infantry cavalry and light artillery with captured cannons before being converted to heavy artillery in 1863 Their cannons and artillery equipment were hauled by hundreds of mules The regiment participated in the taking of New Orleans securing an important rail link to Morgan City Louisiana the Teche Campaign the siege and reduction of Port Hudson the Red River Campaign and sieges and reductions of Fort Gaines Fort Morgan Spanish Fort and Fort Blakely Alabama

Andersonvilles of the North James Massie Gillispie, 2008 Andersonvilles of the North by James M Gillispie represents the first broad study to argue that the image of Union prison officials as negligent and cruel to Confederate prisoners is severely flawed This study is not an attempt to whitewash Union prison policies or make light of Confederate prisoner mortality But once the careful reader disregards unreliable postwar polemics and focuses exclusively on the more reliable wartime records and documents from both Northern and Southern sources then a much different less negative picture of Northern prison life emerges While life in Northern prisons was difficult and potentially deadly no evidence exists of a conspiracy to neglect or mistreat Southern captives Confederate prisoners suffering and death were due to a number of factors but it would seem that Yankee apathy and malice were rarely among them BOOK JACKET
