Latin American Literature in Transition 1930-1980: Volume 4 Amanda Holmes, Par Kumaraswami, 2022-12-08 Latin American Literature in Transition 1930 1980 explores the literary landscape of the mid twentieth century and the texts that were produced during that period It takes four core areas of thematic and conceptual focus solidarity aesthetics and innovation war revolution and dictatorship metropolis and ruins and employs them to explore the complexity heterogeneity and hybridity of form genre subject matter and discipline that characterised literature from the period In doing so it uncovers the points of transition connection contradiction and tension that shaped the work of many canonical and non canonical authors It illuminates the conversations between genres literary movements disciplines and modes of representation that underpin writing form this period Lastly by focusing on canon and beyond the volume visibilizes the aesthetics poetics politics and social projects of writing incorporating established writers but also writers whose work is yet to be examined in all its complexity Ominous Parallels Leonard Peikoff, 1983-06-01 Ayn Rand chose Leonard Peikoff to be her successor as the spokesman for Objectivism And in this brilliantly reasoned thought provoking work we learn why as he demonstrates how far America has been detoured from its original path and led down the same road that Germany followed to Nazism Self sacrifice Oriental mysticism racial truth the public good doing one s duty these are among the seductive catch phrases that Leonard Peikoff dissects examining the kind of philosophy they symbolize the type of thinking that lured Germany to its doom and that he says is now prevalent in the United States Here is a frightening look at where America may be heading a clarion call for all who are concerned about preserving our right to individual freedom Existentialist Patterns in Edwardian Plays Dr. Manoj Kumar Singh, 2021-11-20 The introduction gives the background of Modern American Drama which is a kind of slow evolution and has taken place in the form of an amalgamation of various schools It presents the gradual growth of the American dramatic literature right from Eugene O Neill up to Edward Albee This chapter includes the dramatists like Eugene O Neill Maxwell Anderson Robert Sherwood Lillian Hellman Clifford Odets Philip Barry Tennessee Williams Arthur Miller and Edward Albee in order to have an understanding of the overall development of the American dramatic literature In February 1915 an enthusiastic group of young amateurs calling themselves the Washington Square Players waved a solemn manifesto in the face of New York Drama critics They opened the Band Box Theatre near the corner of 57th street and Third Avenue Just a year and a half later another group equally young and enthusiastic took possession of a stable in MacDougal Street to be known thereafter as the Province town Theatre The dramatists of the Washington Square Players were more influenced by Ibsen Shaw and Maeterlinck whereas that of the Province town group happened to accept Eugene O Neill as their torch bearer American Literature in Transition, 1920-1930 Ichiro Takayoshi, 2017-12-28 American Literature in Transition 1920 1930 examines the dynamic interactions between social and literary fields during the so called Jazz Age It situates the era s place in the incremental evolution of American literature throughout the twentieth century Essays from preeminent critics and historians analyze many overlapping aspects of American letters in the 1920s and re evaluate an astonishingly diverse group of authors Expansive in scope and daring in its mixture of eclectic methods this book extends the most exciting advances made in the last several decades in the fields of modernist studies ethnic literatures African American literature gender studies transnational studies and the history of the book It examines how the world of literature intersected with other arts such as cinema jazz and theater and explores the print culture in transition with a focus on new publishing houses trends in advertising readership and obscenity laws Catalog of Copyright Entries.
