The Economy of Roman Religion Andrew Wilson, Nick Ray, Angela Trentacoste, 2023 This interdisciplinary edited volume presents twelve papers by Roman historians and archaeologists discussing the interconnected relationship between religion and the Roman economy over the period c 500 BC to AD 350 The connection between Roman religion and the economy has largely been ignored in work on the Roman economy but this volume explores the many complex ways in which economic and religious thinking and activities were interwoven from individuals to institutions The broad geographic and chronological scope of the volume engages with a notable variety of evidence epigraphic archaeological historical papyrological and zooarchaeological In addition to providing case studies that draw from the rich archaeological documentary and epigraphic evidence the volume also explores the different and sometimes divergent pictures offered by these sources from discrepancies in the cost of religious buildings to the tensions between piety and ostentatious donation The edited collection thus bridges economic social and religious themes The volume provides a view of a society in which religion had a central role in economic activity on an institutional to individual scale The volume allows an evaluation of impact of that activity from both financial and social viewpoints providing a new perspective on Roman religion a perspective to which a wide range of archaeological and documentary evidence from animal bone to coins and building costs has contributed As a result this volume not only provides new information on the economy of Roman religion it also proposes new ways of looking at existing bodies of evidence

Serra Ridgway, 1995-10-25 This volume the first serious book in English on Etruscan art was hailed for its broad scope thorough knowledge and clear exposition when it was published almost twenty years ago Now brought back into print with an updated bibliography and bibliographical essay by Francesca R Serra Ridgway it remains an essential introduction for anyone interested in ancient art history and civilization Otto Brendel s exploration of the art culture and society of Etruria takes us through its four main periods of creativity the Villanovan and Orientalizing era the Archaic era the Classical era and the Hellenistic era when Etruscan art became extinct According to Brendel the Etruscans were deeply influenced by Greek styles but used Greek forms and concepts to further their own purposes Etruscan art is a private art aristocratic and luxurious but centered in the life of the family and a continuing life in the tomb Many of the art forms and objects discussed ceramics metalware jewelry sculpture and wall painting are known to us through the discovery of tombs Most of these objects had a clearly defined function but were also designed with a high degree of quality and craftsmanship to be decorative The beautiful art of the Etruscans illustrated and explained in this book sheds much light on a people about whom we know little

Art (New York, N.Y.),2013 The Book Review Digest ,2007 New Perspectives on Etruria and Early Rome Richard Daniel De Puma,2009 In surveying recent developments in Etruscan and Roman studies the contributors to this collection pay tribute to an individual who has made a significant and influential contribution to both fields Richard De Puma Jason and the Argonauts through the Ages Jason Colavito,2014-04-04 The story of Jason and the Argonauts is one of the most famous in Greek myth and its development from the oldest layers of Greek mythology down to the modern age encapsulates the dramatic changes in faith power and culture that Western civilization has seen over the past three millennia From the Bronze Age to the Classical Age from the medieval world to today the Jason story has been told and retold with new stories details and meanings This book explores the epic history of a colorful myth and probes the most ancient origins of the quest for the Golden Fleece a quest that takes us to the very dawn of Greek religion and its close relationship with Near Eastern peoples and cultures American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Etruria and Anatolia Elizabeth P. Baughan,Lisa C. Pieraccini,2023-03-09 Striking similarities in Etruscan and Anatolian material culture reveal various forms of contact and exchange between these regions on opposite sides of the Mediterranean This is the first comprehensive investigation of these connections approaching both cultures as agents of artistic exchange rather than as side characters in a Greek focused narrative It synthesizes a wide range of material evidence from c 800 300 BCE from tomb architecture and furniture to painted vases terracotta reliefs and magic amulets By identifying shared practices common visual language and movements of objects and artisans from both east to west and west to east it illuminates many varied threads of the interconnected ancient Mediterranean fabric Rather than trying to account for the similarities with any one overarching theory this volume presents multiple simultaneous modes and implications of connectivity while also recognizing the distinct local identities expressed through shared artistic and cultural traditions The Classical Weekly ,1924
