The Praeger Handbook of Faith-Based Schools in the United States, K-12 Thomas C. Hunt, James C. Carper, 2012-08-06 Exploring a subject that is as important as it is divisive this two volume work offers the first current definitive work on the intricacies and issues relative to America's faith based schools The Praeger Handbook of Faith Based Schools in the United States K 12 is an indispensable study at a time when American education is increasingly considered through the lenses of race ethnicity gender and social class With contributions from an impressive array of experts the two volume work provides a historical overview of faith based schooling in the United States as well as a comprehensive treatment of each current faith based school tradition in the nation The first volume examines three types of faith based schools Protestant schools Jewish schools and Evangelical Protestant homeschooling The second volume focuses on Catholic Muslim and Orthodox schools and addresses critical issues common to faith based schools among them state and federal regulation and school choice as well as ethnic cultural confessional and practical factors Perhaps most importantly for those concerned with the questions and controversies that abound in U S education the handbook grapples with outcomes of faith based schooling and with the choices parents face as they consider educational options for their children

A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools William H. Jeynes, 2009-11-24 This book offers an examination of the related topics of school prayer and character education in the United States advocating for their return to public schools According to William Jeynes the lack of both school prayer and consistent moral instruction in our schools has had devastating consequences both for our education system and for the nation as a whole In A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools Jeynes makes a compelling case for restoring moral instruction and nonspecific religious moments to the classroom as a way of restoring a much needed moral grounding in American society in general A Call for Character Education and Prayer in the Schools traces the history of character education in the public schools including coverage of leading advocates of their inclusion from Thomas Jefferson to DeWitt Clinton to Horace Mann Jeynes then offers a broad survey of the country since the Supreme Court decisions of 1962 and 1963 asserting that most of America's greatest problems are moral in nature and could be addressed by making moral instruction and a focus on the spiritual a part of our young citizens school lives

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner's Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989

Law and Religion in the Liberal State Md Jahid Hossain Bhuiyan, Darryn Jensen, 2020-05-28 The relationship between law and religion is evident throughout history They have never been completely independent from each other There is no doubt that religion has played an important role in providing the underlying values of modern laws in setting the terms of the relationship between the individual and the state and in demanding a space for the variety of intermediate institutions which stand between individuals and the state However the relationships between law and religion and the state and religious institutions differ significantly from one modern state to another There is not one liberalism but many This work brings together reflections upon the relationship between religion and the law from the perspectives of different sub traditions within the broader liberal project and in light of some contemporary problems in the accommodation of religious and secular authority

Sick Schools David V. Anderson, 2020-01-10 Who's afraid of for profit education Those who work in non profit or government owned and operated schools Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment What's more important to humans nutrition or education Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities including education What organizations provide food and who pays for the food Food is provided by for profit farmers for profit processors for profit wholesalers and for profit retailers Most food is purchased with the consumers own money but a significant amount is purchased by low income individuals using food stamps Why can't education be provided similarly using education stamps We trust for profit enterprises to provide our food Why can't we trust for profit enterprises to provide K 12 education Fearmongers have frightened us and made us into gullible compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods and then contemplate how a for profit K 12 education sector would please and amaze its customers

Handbook of American Private Schools, 1927 This handbook aims to be a guide to the best private schools of the country It has been undertaken with the parent especially in mind but it is hoped that it may be of value to school and college authorities and all others interested in the subject It is believed that this Handbook is the first volume which attempts a critical and discriminating treatment of the private schools of the country It is an endeavor to classify the schools on their merits at least a step it is hoped toward eventual standardization Editor's foreword
