Religion And The Human Sciences An Approach Via Spirituality:

Religion and the Human Sciences Daniel A. Helminiak, 1998-04-23 Proposes a new paradigm for interdisciplinary studies by applying the thought of Bernard Lonergan to define spirituality as the missing link between religion and theology

Foundations of Spirituality Carla Mae Streeter, 2013-01-01 How does the Holy come to meet the human Or said another way how does God work with the physical psychic and spiritual persons that each of us are Scholarly approaches to spirituality often overlook the need for a sound anthropology as the base for explaining conversion the dynamic of grace and the effects of conversion in virtue theory In Foundations of Spirituality longtime educator Carla Mae Streeter provides a more adequate account of what it means to be a person before God By mining the insights of Bernard Lonergan on human consciousness and the virtue theory of Thomas Aquinas she presents a clear and integrated incarnational spirituality Streeter argues that God works with precisely what God has made enhancing it rather than overriding or disposing of it The basic premise of this book is that every person is called to holiness which comes about through the relationship of the human with the Divine It is a divine summons heard and responded to by a human being Carla Mae Streeter OP is professor emerita at the Aquinas Institute of Theology in St Louis Missouri where she continues to teach in the areas of systematic theology and spirituality

Faith-Integrated Being, Knowing, and Doing Sarinah Lo, 2020-08-31 In this holistic study of the integration of faith and learning Dr Sarinah Lo challenges the Western tendency to privilege knowing over being and doing In the context of Indonesian higher education Dr Lo addresses the cognitive affective spiritual relational and vocational aspects of human nature She demonstrates that effective integration of faith and learning must reach beyond the academic disciplines to address the formation of a Christian perspective in all areas of life thought and practice Utilizing in depth interviews and qualitative analysis Dr Lo s field research explores the specific challenges facing Christian faculty in Indonesia where the rise of radical Islam and the pressure to conform to state ideology raise unique questions about the nature of faith learning integration The first study of its kind this is an excellent resource for educators wanting to think more broadly about what it means to follow Christ in the classroom pushing beyond Western models of integration to embrace the more holistic approach of faith integrated being knowing and doing

Brain, Consciousness, and God Daniel A. Helminiak, 2015-07-16 Brain Consciousness and God is a constructive critique of neuroscientific research on human consciousness and religious experience An adequate epistemology a theory of knowledge is needed to address this topic but today there exists no consensus on what human knowing means especially regarding nonmaterial realities Daniel A Helminiak turns to twentieth century theologian and philosopher Bernard Lonergan s breakthrough analysis of human consciousness and its implications for epistemology and philosophy of science Lucidly summarizing Lonergan's key ideas Helminiak applies them to questions about science psychology and religion Along with Lonergan eminent theorists in consciousness studies and neuroscience get deserved detailed attention Helminiak demonstrates the reality of the immaterial mind and addressing the Cartesian mind body problem explains how body and mind could make up one being a person Human consciousness is presented not only as awareness of objects but also as self presence the self conscious experience of human subjectivity a spiritual reality Lonergan's analyses allow us to say exactly what spiritual means and it need have nothing to do with God

Managing Psychological Factors in Information Systems Work Eugene Kaluzniacki, 2004-01-01 There have arisen in various settings unmistakable calls for involvement of psychological factors in IT work notably in development and deployment of information systems Managing Psychological Factors in Information Systems Work An Orientation to Emotional Intelligence pulls together areas of existing involvement to suggest yet new areas and to present an initial and coherent vision and framework for essentially extending and humanizing the sphere of IT work It may be indeed noteworthy that while the Industrial Revolution may have moved the human person into intellectual predominance the IT Revolution with its recent calls for addressing and involving the whole person may indeed be initiating a re centering of the human being in his/her essential core giving rise to new consciousness new vision and new empowering experiences May this book encourage the first few steps along a new and vivifying path

God and I: Exploring the Connections Between God, Self and Ego Philip St. Romain, 2016-11-28 What do we mean when we use the terms God Self and Ego To what experiences do these terms point What are the relationships between them This book by Philip St Romain M S D Min goes beyond semantics to provide an experiential approach to understanding God Self and Ego It also situates this understanding in an anthropology that will be agreeable to most psychologists and Christian spiritual directors Different zones of intimacy between God Self and Ego are identified each with differing requirements Questions for reflection and discussion conclude each chapter along with several suggested spiritual exercises
