Lenwood G. Davis,2012-11-23 James Edward Shepard was an African American leader between 1900 and 1947 He was however more than a race leader Shepard was a minister politician pharmacist entrepreneur world traveler civil servant businessman one of the founders of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company the world s largest African American Life Insurance Company president of the International Denominational Sunday School Convention one of the founders of Mechanics and Farmers Bank of Durham President of the North Carolina Teachers Association and a visionary Dr Shepard was active in several social and fraternal organizations He was Grand Mast of The Prince Hall Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina Grand Patron of the Eastern Star of North Carolina and Secretary of Finances for the Knights of Pythia He was on the Board of Trustees of Lincoln Hospital of Durham the Oxford NC Colored Orphanage member of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society and Field Superintendent of Work Among Negroes for the International Sunday School Association He was also an educator historian and scholar He was founder and president of North Carolina Central University the first State supported liberal arts college for African Americans in the United States The Anthem Companion to Robert N. Bellah Matteo Bortolini,2019-06-28 The Anthem Companion to Robert N Bellah is the first major collection of essays on the life and work of Robert N Bellah 1927 2013 one of the foremost sociologists of religion of the twentieth century Bellah s work was central to many fields the sociology of Japanese religion the relationship between sociology and the humanities the relationship between American religion and politics the cultures of modern individualism evolution and society Bellah s seminal work on civil religion in the early 1970s created a huge debate across the disciplines that continues into the present times his coauthored book Habits of the Heart 1985 was a best seller and the object of sustained discussion in the general public sphere his last magnum opus Religion in Human Evolution published at 84 was a monument to an extraordinary scholarly and intellectual career The object of this collection of essays by top American and European scholars from the social sciences and humanities is to highlight the richness of Bellah s work Each essay has a double character it introduces a single topic in an accessible and complete way and then presents a reflection on the viability and import of Bellah s ideas for interpreting contemporary phenomena Religions in America Leo Rosten,1963

Religious Diversity—What's the Problem? Rita M. Gross,2014-04-24 Once upon a time on grounds of both religion and common sense people assumed that the earth was flat and that the sun literally rose and set each day When newly developing knowledge made those beliefs untenable giving them up was difficult Today the belief that only one of the world s various religions is true for all people on earth is equivalent to the belief in a flat earth Both notions have become untenable given contemporary knowledge about religion Even though many people are still troubled by the existence of religious diversity today that diversity is a fact of life Religious diversity should be no more troubling to religious people than the fact that the earth is round and circles the sun This provocative book based on the author's longtime practice of Buddhism and comparative study of religion provides tools with which one can truly appreciate religious diversity as a gift and resource rather than as a deficiency or a problem to be overcome After we accept diversity as inevitable and become comfortable with it diversity always enriches life both nature and culture Ideas in Conflict: Liberty and Communism United States.

Directorate for Armed Forces Information and Education,1962 Passage to the Real Self Inn Sook Lee,2009-05-16 Asian women both in Asia and the United States are in search of the courage to find and integrate their authentic real selves in a multicultural milieu This book makes the argument that since Asian American women live in the periphery of the multicultural West they need to strengthen the psychological process of self integration assimilating neither to traditional cultural demands or those of the larger society They desire self reliance search for meaning in practicing love and justice for others while living in a permanent pilgrimage between worlds The passages identified in the self integration process are conscientization introspection and integration After much suffering under patriarchy hierarchy and rejection Asian American women launch into conscientization and incorporate their evolving selves in introspection They engage in self analysis sociocultural analysis and healing their codependent selves The women finally achieve autonomous synergetic selves and realign psychological aspects develop inner strength and a deep spirituality at their core selves thus embodying peace in their hearts Rethinking Obama Julian Go,2011-11-16 Includes a selection of papers exploring Obama and the Politics of Race Religion This title examines the complex dynamics of race relations and racial meaning in America under the Obama administration It assesses the meanings of race and religion in America under the Obama administration Libraries, Classrooms, and the Interests of Democracy John Buschman,2012-07-30 Library marketing and advertising in schools are now very widespread practices Since libraries and schools have been strongly linked to economic performance adopting marketing and advertising techniques into them is often seen as a natural extension of that linkage But should that be the case John Buschman argues that as we shape and guide our educative institutions we should carefully consider the consequences In Libraries Classrooms and the Interests of Democracy Marking the Limits of Neoliberalism Dr Buschman details the connections between our educative institutions and democracy and the resources within democratic theory reflecting on the tensions between marketing advertising consumption and democracy Drawing on wide scholarship to explore some of the history of democratic theory and its intertwinements with capitalism the author helps the reader think about how democracies can deal with the challenges of this current historical phase The complex arguments of de Tocqueville Dewey Marx and many others help clarify how the market has pierced classrooms and libraries with advertising and marketing and why this is of concern in the interests of democracy In this volume Buschman provides a history of marketing and advertising and their entanglements with democracy education and libraries He then engages Democratic Theory and the framework it provides to critique neoliberalism s influences A final chapter traces the trajectory of neoliberalism and educative institutions on our democracy Throughout the book makes clear that issues concerning public educative institutions in a democracy are political A provocative and engaging book Libraries Classrooms and the Interests of Democracy should be required reading for anyone interested in the challenges facing libraries today More Than Freedom Stephen Kantrowitz,2013-07-30 A major new account of the Northern movement to establish African Americans as full citizens before during and after the Civil War In More Than Freedom award winning historian Stephen Kantrowitz offers a bold rethinking of the Civil War era Kantrowitz show how the fight to abolish slavery was always part of a much broader campaign by African Americans to claim full citizenship and to remake the white republic into a place where they could belong More Than Freedom chronicles this epic struggle through the lives of black and white abolitionists in and around Boston including Frederick Douglass Senator Charles Sumner and lesser known but equally important figures Their bold actions helped bring about the Civil War set the stage for Reconstruction and left the nation forever altered The Dial Francis Fisher Browne,1896 The Story of Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell,2001 Beautifully illustrated throughout The Story of Christian Spirituality is a readable and vivid guide to the spiritual riches of one of the world s most influential religions Selected Writings of Edward Sapir Edward Sapir,1981 Diverse Nations George M. Fredrickson,2015-12-03 One of the world s leading historians of race relations George Fredrickson in his newest book probes the history of racial and ethnic diversity in the United States and other parts of the world Diverse Nations explores recent interpretations of slavery and race relations in the United States and introduces comparative perspectives on Europe South Africa and Brazil Notably the book features groundbreaking work comparing ethnoracial pluralism in France and the United States In contrast to the similarities of race relations in the United States and South Africa which both drew rigid domestic color lines the United States and France have historically diverged greatly in their approaches to racial difference Yet both are influenced by a common heritage of revolutionary republicanism extensive immigration and cultural pluralism Fredrickson s rich comparisons provide stimulating new insights into the continuing impacts of slavery and beliefs about race upon our increasingly pluralistic societies Christianity and Modern Politics Louisa S. Hulett,2021-06-21 No detailed description available for Christianity and Modern Politics Selected Writings of Edward Sapir in Language, Culture and Personality Edward Sapir,1949 Sapir was skillfull at analyzing unwritten languages on the basis of his own fieldwork He contributed significantly to the mapping of languages and cultures of native America
