Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today s ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH s case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH s ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH s social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH s hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God s presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH s nature mission and place

Unconventional Sisterhood Heather Lynn Claussen,2023-06-20

Unconventional Sisterhood is an ethnographic exploration of the ways in which Filipina Missionary Benedictine Sisters are renegotiating traditional understandings of gender religious responsibility and national identity in the context of a rapidly globalizing nation Unlike the popular stereotypes of staid sisters cloaked in rigid religious dogmatism they are doing so by telling jokes engaging in eclectic religious rituals maintaining connections with a local nationalist cult and committing themselves to a radical and feminist politics This work represents an important addition to scholarship on Philippine feminism It is one of few ethnographies that focuses on female monasticism of particular cultural importance in the Christian Philippines where nuns enjoy relatively high social status and freedom from many of the traditional constraints delineating Filipina lives It is noteworthy as well for its focus on metropolitan Manila a socially complex dynamic diverse and understudied environment Heather L Claussen is an anthropologist currently living in Santa Cruz California A Generation Later James F. Eder, 1999-08-01 A Generation Later moves beyond analytical models of rural change that focus on the peasant agricultural aspect of rural communities and makes a convincing case for an approach that integrates farm and nonfarm occupations and does justice to the conditions of occupational multiplicity that characterize to an increasing extent many of the rural communities in Asia In this context it challenges conventional and simplistic peasant to proletarian views of change Rather than finding a dreary and dispirited landscape of sameness and hardship it offers some empirical support for amore optimistic view of the region s future one of growing household prosperity and widespread individual opportunity Migrant Domestic Workers in the Middle East B. Fernandez, M. de Regt, 2014-12-04 For over half a century the Middle East has been major migration corridor for domestic workers from Asia and Africa This book Illuminates the multidimensionality of these workers lives as they engage in finding a balance between acting and being acted upon struggle and accommodation and movement and stasis People's Response to Disasters in the Philippines J.

Gaillard, 2015-02-18 This book provides a critical perspective on people s response to disasters in the Philippines It draws upon an array of case studies to discuss people s vulnerability capacities and resilience in facing a wide range of different hazards Parliaments and Political Change in Asia Clemens Jürgenmeyer, Michael H. Nelson, Patrick Ziegenhain, 2005 This study of the national parliaments of India Indonesia the Philippines South Korea and Thailand is inspired by four major theoretical discourses neo institutionalism parliamentarianism versus presidentialism majoritarian versus consensus democracy and transition theory The book examines the specific role of parliaments in political decision making regime change democratization and consolidation of democracy in a comparative perspective It argues that parliaments play a greater part in the political decision making than is often asserted and that there is no cogent causal relationship between parliamentary performance and system of government The Way of the Cross Julius Bautista, 2019-09-30 Every year during Holy Week in the Philippine province of Pampanga hundreds of men and women undergo acts of excruciating self inflicted pain in ways that evoke the Way of the Cross the torment and crucifixion that Christ endured in the last days of his earthly existence Because these Passion rituals are officially disavowed by the Filipino Roman Catholic Church most observers view them as irrational and extremist mimicry of Christ's painful ordeal Even scholars conventionally depict them as theatrical spectacle or macabre examples of Filipino folk religion But what conditions enable ritual actors to submit to such extreme pain What justifications do they give for going against official prohibitions What outcomes do they seek in channeling Christian piety in this way This book addresses these questions through its in depth analyses of three interconnected ritual acts the pabasa a days long communal chanting of Christ's Passion story the pagdarama the public self flagellation of hundreds of devotees and the pamamaku king krus in which steel nails are driven through the palms and feet of ritual practitioners as part of a street play performed in front of tens of thousands of spectators Author Julius Bautista suggests that such ritual acts manifest the embodied physicality of a suffering selfhood that facilitates the expression of heartfelt sentiments of pity empathy trust and bereavement By emphasizing these outwardly focused human sensibilities as the wellsprings of ritual agency he demonstrates that Passion rituals are reinterpretations of the very idea and experience of pain hardship and suffering and premised on an appeal for a certain kind of divine intimacy The author draws on a decade of in depth and often exclusive interviews with a host of local stakeholders including ritual practitioners clerics scholars and government officials and his own participation in a Passion play Ethnographic insight is considered alongside primary and secondary archival sources including unpublished locally produced oral historical accounts and a survey of relevant media coverage The Way of the Cross makes a welcome contribution to the anthropology of religion by examining the unique ontological contexts in which ritual agents experience God's involvement in their lives
