Religious Studies In Depth Jesus An Inquiry:

The Resurrection: a Critical Inquiry Michael J. Alter, 2015-02-21 The Resurrection A Critical Inquiry is a scholarly work that refutes Jesus's purported physical bodily resurrection and those writings in support of it. This book is compelling, relevant, and current for those readers seeking scholarly refutations of that resurrection. This in-depth work presents the reader with 113 issues. Altogether, one hundred twenty contradictions and 217 speculations are examined. Topics include cutting-edge research in astronomy, geophysics, criminology, and the rules of evidence, the social sciences, and cognitive psychology.

Global Perspectives on Catholic Religious Education in Schools Michael T. Buchanan, Adrian-Mario Gellert, 2019-03-01 This book shares global perspectives on Catholic religious education in schools, chiefly focusing on educational and curriculum issues that take into account the theology and the pedagogy which support learning in connection with Catholic religious education. Further, it offers insights into the distinctive contribution that Catholic religious education makes to religious education and education in general across diverse schooling contexts. Bringing together insights from leading scholars and experts on Catholic religious education around the globe, the book offers an essential reference guide for all those involved in researching, planning, and designing curricula for Catholic religious education, as well as developing related theories in the field.

Religious Studies in Ontario Harold Remus, Daniel Fraikin, William Closson James, 2006-01-01 Most Ontario universities were established by Christian denominations; a Christian ethos was assumed and pervasive, and students were required to take courses designed to teach and inculcate religion. This insightful and comprehensive study demonstrates how, as Ontario society became secularized and pluralistic, so too did universities. Today, religion is again studied in university classrooms, but as religious studies, a relatively new field that reflects the religiously pluralistic nature of Ontario and the world-wide explosion of knowledge. This authoritative volume will be of interest to students of religion, in and outside academic circles, to administrators of academic institutions and granting agencies, and to persons wanting to know more about the social and cultural changes that have transformed Ontario and Canadian society.

The Christian religion: an enquiry Robert Green Ingersoll, 1882 Integrating Faith and Special Education Bennett Nworie, 2016-10-10 There is an inherent connection between the Christian faith and special education. For example, both focus on the worth of the individual. Both also focus on fairness and on caring for or helping the weak. Similarly, both aim to equip and support others. This book helps the readers perceive this integral relationship that exists between the Christian faith and the special education discipline. This book utilizes the chapters that stem from real-life professional experiences and scholarship of the contributors to model and encourage special education practice from a Christian faith angle. It is our view that special education practiced from this faith perspective will transform what is currently accepted as best practice into a new system of special education experience that is wholesome, biblically based, and characteristic of Shalom as wholeness, not just peace. Shalom, in this sense, has strong relevance in both the Christian faith and special education. The first three chapters highlight the connection between special education and Christian theology and draw attention to the pivotal role worldview plays in being an effective special educator The bulk of the body of the text looks at different aspects of instructional effectiveness in special education from a Christian faith perspective

Jesus, the Temple, and Early Christian Memory Scott Brevard,2025-08-07 Jewish identity during the Second Temple period 515 BCE 70 CE was complex multifaceted and variable but many studies of this period treat Jewish attitudes toward one key feature the Jerusalem temple as simple and uniform Brevard aims to complicate this notion by examining early Christian traditions of Jesus s relationship with the temple Early Christian memory constructed transformed and transmitted traditions about the past into their present contexts Examining early Christian memory as represented by canonical and noncanonical gospel traditions in the first three centuries CE allows scholars to ask how certain figures institutions or beliefs were remembered and represented as well as to posit theories as to why memories were constructed in particular ways and how these memories related to their contemporary historical and social frameworks Early Christians remembered Jesus as having a complex relationship with the Jerusalem temple and these early Christian traditions of Jesus impacted their own contemporary worldviews This complicated relationship with the temple however was not a new phenomenon but one that was already familiar to those constructing experiencing remembering and transmitting their Jewish identity throughout the diaspora world in the Second Temple period

New Wine, New Wineskins William C. Mattison III,2005-06-03 The growing shift in Catholic moral theology from reflecting on rules alone to focusing on the identity and formation of persons as moral agents prompts a further question What impact do recent changes in the identity and formation of Catholic moral theologians themselves have on how that discipline is practiced Young Catholic moral theologians experience a sharply different professional formation and a changed location of ongoing professional life than prior generations of moral theologians How do these differences influence the field of moral theology as a whole New Wine New Wineskins A Next Generation Reflects on Key Issues in Catholic Moral Theology addresses these questions and more by offering a snapshot of how a new generation of Catholic moral theologians understands not only topics in the field but the effects of their own identity and formation on their treatment of those topics The distinctive contribution of this volume is the interweaving of three key concerns all of which arise out of a critical self reflection on the task of moral theology today the character and adequacy of training and ongoing formation in the field of Catholic moral theology the purpose and nature of teaching Catholic moral theology and the fittingness of methodological debates with regard to the needs of the Christian life Each essay makes a contribution to its specific area of interest ranging from economic ethics to Patristic rhetoric to the nature and development of practical reasoning while probing what exactly young Catholic moral theologians are doing and Author subject indexes Healing Fractures in Contemporary Theology Peter John McGregor, Tracey Rowland, 2022-01-20 Since Vatican II the key question that has developed in Catholic theology often unstated or unrecognized is what is theology. The thesis presented here is that contemporary theologizing is fractured in many places and to varying degrees. These fractures can vary in seriousness between theologians, and a particular theologian may suffer from some fractures but not others. The fractures addressed here are between theology and spirituality, theology and philosophy, theology and liturgy, the literal and spiritual senses of sacred scripture, theology preaching and apologetics, theology and ethics, theology and social theory, dogmatic and pastoral theology, theology and the koinonial Christian life, theologians and non-theologians, the generation gap between Gen X and Millennial, Post-Millennial Catholics, and theology and the Magisterium. For each of these an attempt is made to examine the symptoms, give a diagnosis, and write a prescription.

Philosophical Inquiries into Pregnancy, Childbirth, and Mothering Sheila Lintott, Maureen Sander-Staudt, 2013-03-01 Philosophical inquiry into pregnancy, childbirth, and mothering is a growing area of interest to academic philosophers. This volume brings together a diverse group of philosophers to speak about topics in this reemerging area of philosophical inquiry, taking up new themes such as maternal aesthetics and pursuing old ones in new ways such as investigating stepmothering as it might inform and ground an ethics of care. The theoretical foci of the book include feminist, existential, ethical, aesthetic, phenomenological social and political theories These perspectives are then employed to consider many dimensions of pregnancy childbirth and mothering which are of central importance to human existence but are only rarely discussed in philosophical canons Topics include pregnancy and embodiment breast feeding representations or the lack thereof of pregnant and birthing women adoption and post partum motherhood Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J. Sindima,2012-07-10 In Introduction to Religious Studies Harvey J Sindima provides an unconventional approach to the study of world religions Often books and courses on religious studies focus on the major world religions This approach however frequently ignores other religious experiences such as those of various African groups as well as the indigenous people of the Americas and Australia These less widespread religions are commonly described in pejorative terms such as primitive religions or non literate religions Focusing solely on well known religions is an approach that impoverishes religious studies and deprives students of the enormous wealth of religious knowledge of the world Introduction to Religious Studies pulls together the diverse religious experience of Africans Native Americans and the indigenous peoples of Australia in order to provide a comprehensive introduction to the study of religion and broaden the horizons of religious studies students Under each theme or topic examples are drawn from religions of salvation as well as African and Native American religious traditions This book provides students with a deep wide and very rich introduction to religious studies Report of the Committee Appointed to Inquire Into the Condition of Intermediate and Higher Education in Wales [and Monmouthshire] with Minutes If Evidence and Appendix Great Britain. Education Department. Committee on Intermediate and Higher Education in Wales,1881 Philosophy of Religion and the African American Experience John H. McClendon III,2017-07-03 Most white philosophers of religion generally presume that philosophy of religion is based on what is a false universality whereby the white Western experience is paradigmatic of humanity at large The fact remains that Howard Thurman James H Cone and William R Jones among others have produced a substantial amount of theological work quite worthy of consideration by philosophers of religion Yet this corpus of thought is not reflected in the scholarly literature that constitutes the main body of philosophy of religion Neglect and ignorance of African American Studies is widespread in the academy By including chapters on Thurman Cone and Jones the present book functions as a corrective to this scholarly lacuna
