Religious Ethics In Africa:

Religious Ethics in Africa Peter Kasenene, 1998 Foundations for African Theological Ethics James Nkansah-Obrempong, 2013-05-14 Having taught on ethics in Africa for almost a decade James Nkansah Obrempong presents a work that goes some way to addressing the dearth of materials on ethics that combine African social religious cultural and moral values with biblical and theological values Integrating these from African Western and biblical contexts Nkansah demonstrates how important they are for dealing with contemporary moral and social issues facing the church in Africa and African societies The book develops a theoretical biblical and theological foundation for Theological Ethics and uses this to address the broader issues that affect the socio political and economic life of African people and the church Religious and Political Ethics in Africa Harvey J. Sindima, 1998-04-23 This volume investigates the causes of the political economic and moral problems of today's Africa and provides a framework for the reconstruction of modern African states The author focuses on the interaction between religion and politics throughout history and on the role of the Church in postcolonial Africa In order to develop a basis for African political and religious ethics he uses an interdisciplinary approach that draws from political theory history and social and religious ethics Among the issues discussed are ethnicity mismanagement corruption and the African concept of power African Christian Ethics Samuel Waje Kunhiyop, 2008 This introduction to African Christian Ethics for Christian colleges and Bible schools is divided into two parts The first deals with the theory of ethics while the second discusses practical issues With questions at the end of each chapter for discussion or reflection often asking how the chapter applies to their ministry situation African Religion Laurenti Magesa, 2014-07-30 Describes the moral teachings values norms and principles to follow so that life might be abundant for all of the African religion as it relates to individuals and community Religious Ethics in Africa Peter Kasenene, 1998 Africa is a religiously plural society with interaction between people of different religions and diverse value systems The author Professor of Comparative Religion in Uganda describes and compares the position of traditional African religion Christianity Islam and Baha i Faith on selected moral issues relevant to Africa today His central argument is that in order to maintain their identity African people must rediscover their ethical and moral heritage He also argues that the new African ethical and moral systems must take into account the ethics of Christianity Islam and the Baha i Faith without embracing the cultures of the societies where those religions originated Christian Ethics in an African Context Dick Allen Rader, 1991 For 150 years Africans have been longing for a Christianity which is not the White man's religion Missionaries have often failed to strip the Western cultural garb from their presentation of the gospel Emerging African theologians in rapidly expanding congregations are beginning to formulate an explicitly African theology The Christian message must be contextualized within the local culture if it is to be communicated effectively in the daily life of the African Christian This book shows how missionaries and African Christians can work together to find timeless biblical principles and allow those principles to directly impact African culture

Christian Ethics in Africa Laurenti Magesa, 2002

African Spirituality and Ethics Munyaradzi Felix

Murove, 2023-12-28 This book explores the symbiotic relationship that exists between African spirituality and ethics. Felix Murove discusses how these two concepts are entwined and illustrates how they play a role in applied ethical issues. He argues that the general understanding of spirituality in Africa stems from Christianity, which has had a negative impact on African indigenous spirituality. The conceptual tools that run throughout the book are considerably Afro-centric, a methodological strategy which inevitably requires the reader to adopt some prior willingness to learn these Afro-centric concepts without easily resorting to Western Christian and philosophical categories of thought. The book advocates for an Afro-centric conceptualization of spirituality and ethics and encourages the reader to adopt a more holistic approach to African spirituality.

Religious Ethics in a Time of Globalism

E. Bucar, A. Stalnaker, 2012-11-09 This book contains essays on current projects from several rising figures in religious ethics collected into a field-shaping anthology of new work. As a whole, the book argues that religious ethics should make cultural and moral diversity central to its analysis. This can include three main aspects in various combinations: first, describing and interpreting particular ethics on the basis of historical, anthropological, or other data; second, comparing such ethics in the plural, which requires rigorous reflection on the methods and tools of inquiry; and third, engaging in normative argument on the basis of such studies and thereby speaking to particular moral controversies as well as contemporary concerns about overlapping identities, cultural complexity, and plurality, universalism, and relativism, and political problems regarding the coexistence of divergent groups.

Foundations

for African Theological Ethics James Nkansah-Obrempong, 2013-05-14 Having taught on ethics in Africa for almost a decade, James Nkansah Obrempong presents a work that goes some way to addressing the dearth of materials on ethics that combine African social, religious, cultural, and moral values with biblical and theological values. Integrating these from African, Western, and biblical contexts, Nkansah demonstrates how important they are for dealing with contemporary moral and social issues facing the church in Africa and African societies. The book develops a

The Blackwell Companion to Religious Ethics

William Schweiker, 2008-04-15 Written by internationally renowned scholars, this Companion maps the moral teachings of the world's religions and also charts new directions for work in the field of religious ethics. Now available in paperback, this is a rich resource for understanding the moral teachings and practices of the world's religions. Includes detailed discussions of issues in moral theory. Offers extensive treatment of the world's major religious traditions, including Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, Chinese religions, and African religions. Compares the ways in which the religions provide resources for addressing current moral challenges in areas such as ecology, economics, global dynamics, religious war, human rights, and other topics.

Animals and African Ethics

Kai Horsthemke, 2015-07-21 The claim is frequently made on behalf of African moral beliefs and practices that they do not objectify and exploit nature and natural existents like Western ethics does. This book investigates whether this is correct and what kind of status is reserved for other than human animals in

African ethics African Christian Ethics Samuel Waje Kunhiyop, 2019-04-09 An introduction to African Christian ethics for Christian colleges and Bible schools African Christian Ethics is divided into two main parts The first deals with the theory of ethics while the second discusses practical issues The issues are grouped into the following six sections Socio Political Issues Financial Issues Marriage Issues Sexual Issues Medical Issues Religious Issues Each of these six sections begins with a brief general introduction followed by the chapters dealing with specific issues in that area Each chapter begins with an introduction discusses traditional African thinking on the issue presents an analysis of relevant biblical material and concludes with some recommendations There are questions at the end of each chapter for discussion or personal reflection often asking students to reflect on how the discussion in the chapter applies to their ministry situation African Ethics and Death Motsamai Molefe, Elphus Muade, 2023-12-12 This book analyzes the concepts of moral status and human dignity in African philosophy and applies them to the moral problems associated with death The book first challenges the criticism and rejection of moral status in African philosophy and then continues to consider how moral personhood is defined in African ethical theories investigating which entities have full moral status or moral personhood and are therefore worthy of full ethical consideration It then applies this theory to the problems associated with death In the medical context will an African theory of moral status permit or forbid euthanasia Do we have moral obligations towards dead human bodies Overall the book provides an important African axiological contribution to debates on global ethics and moral philosophy Providing an important overview of the ethical problems associated with the biological fact of death this book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of philosophy and African studies African Environmental Ethics Munamoto Chemhuru, 2019-05-30 This book focuses on under explored and often neglected issues in contemporary African environmental philosophy and ethics Critical issues such as the moral status of nature African conceptions of animal moral status and rights African conceptions of environmental justice African relational Environmentalism ubuntu African theocentric and teleological environmentalism are addressed in this book It is unique in so far as it goes beyond the generalized focus on African metaphysics and African ethics by exploring how these views might be understood differently in order to conceptualize African environmental ethics Against the background where environmental problems such as pollution climate change extinction of flora and fauna and global warming are plain to see it becomes useful to examine how African conceptions of environmental ethics could be understood in order to confront some of these problems facing the whole world This book will be of value to undergraduate students graduate students and academics working in the area of African Philosophy African Environmental Ethics and Global Ethics in general Africa's Social and Religious Quest Randee Ijatuyi-Morphé, 2014-01-30 This well crafted book probes the key dimensions of Africa's existential predicament It constitutes an intellectual response to a gnawing African situation the starting point for grasping Africa's social and religious quest Beyond split explanations of external versus internal factors e.g. colonization slavery vs leadership cultural values this study accounts more comprehensively for emergent issues shaping this situation The situation reflects a gamut of problems in traditional African religion and material culture which hitherto defines African communality politics and destinies vis vis the cosmos and nature Thus African religion and communities each with its own attendant values do not operate by critical engagement with larger issues of society and civilization especially those shaped by the advent of post modernity Rather they operate via adaptation The communal drive for natural and social harmony inevitably produces a preservationist view of culture leaving things as they are This study takes an integrative approach to religion society and civilization eschews dichotomies and broadly defines and re signifies life and wholeness as a true end of Africans quest today God's Family, God's Earth Kaoma, Kanya J.,2014-01-16 This book explores how the mounting ecological crisis has religious political and economic roots that enable and promote social and environmental harm It presents the thesis that religious traditions including their ethical expressions can effectively address the crisis ameliorate its effects and advocate social and environmental betterment now and in the future The ecological overtones of African traditional religions and Christianity are examined along with a discussion on African morality Recognition is given to the conflict between ecological values and religious teachings in an examination contrasting the awareness of socio economic problems caused by overpopulation

Morality Truly Christian, Truly African Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor C.S.Sp.,2014-11-15 Given the largely Eurocentric nature of moral theology in the history of the Roman Catholic Church what will it take to invest the theological community in the history and moral challenges of the Church in other parts of the world especially Africa What is to be gained for the whole Church when this happens in a deep and lasting way In this timely and important study Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor brings greater theological clarity to the issue of the relationship between Christianity and African tradition in the area of ethical foundations He also provides a constructive example of what fundamental moral theology done from an African and Christian especially Catholic moral theological point of view could look like Following a brief history of the development of African Christian theology Odozor examines responses of African theologians to African tradition and Christian responses to the reality of non Christian religions In a context where the African religious experience and heritage are powerful sources of meaning and identity Christian evangelization raises questions both about the African primal religions and about Christianity itself and its claims Odozor takes up the subject of moral reasoning in an African Christian theological ethics and concludes with case studies that show how the African Church has tried to inculturate moral discourse on a religiously pluralistic continent and relate the healing gospel message to African situations Students and scholars of moral theology and ethics and church leaders will profit from the issues raised in Morality Truly Christian Truly African The Palgrave Handbook of African Social Ethics Nimi Wariboko, Toyin Falola,2020-03-30 This Handbook provides a robust collection of vibrant discourses on African social ethics and ethical practices It focuses on how the ethical thoughts of Africans are forged within the context of everyday life and how in turn ethical and philosophical thoughts inform day to day living The essays frame ethics as a historical phenomenon best examined as a historical movement the dynamic ethos of a people rather than as a theoretical construct It thereby offers a bold incisive and fresh interpretation of Africa s ethical life and thought
