Religious Foundation Of Human Relations:

A Religious Foundation of Human Relations George Henderson, 1977-01-01 The Christian Faith and Human Relations, 1922 Karl Barth's Theology of Relations, Volume 1 Gary Deddo, 2015-08-04 This work originally published as one volume in the Peter Lang series Issues in Systematic Theology is now available in two volumes In the first volume Gary Deddo shows how Barth grasped the nature of relations as intrinsic to the being and act of the Triune God and to God's relations to us and our relationship to God in Christ Deddo then completes his comprehensive survey showing how Barth saw the reality of the divine relationships analogically pertains by grace to humanity and its creaturely relationships Barth's doctrine of God Christology and theological anthropology are all intrinsically onto relational to borrow a term coined by Thomas F Torrance In the second volume Deddo shows how Barth's relational theology is intrinsically ethical As a case study Deddo explicates Barth's ethical teaching on the relationship between parents and children found in section 54 of his chapter on Freedom in Fellowship in CD III 4 He further demonstrates the relevance and fruitfulness of Barth's theology of relations for critically engaging other theological and non theological views of the family and for shedding ethical light on a wide range of contemporary issues facing families especially in the North American context Karl Barth is known for his insight into the inseparability of act and being in God What is less recognized is that Barth's theological understanding of dynamic covenantal relationship is also essential to his doctrine of the Triune God his Christology and theological anthropology God is revealed in Jesus Christ to be one in act being and relation Humanity is revealed in Jesus Christ to be essentially a unity of act being and relation The failure to see the ethical implications of Barth's theology can be traced in large part to the failure to grasp how Barth's understanding of God's being and act is also essentially relational Deddo's work corrects this oversight and opens up the door to better comprehension of Barth's trinitarian doctrine of God his Christology anthropology and ethics

Five Foundations of Human Development Errol A. Gibbs, Philip A. Grey, 2011-06-08 Five Foundations of Human Development FFHD is a philosophical religious and practical discourse on human development based on the following five foundations Spiritual Moral Social Intellectual and Physical The authors proffer that human beings possess the capacity to rise to a higher state of civilization when we allow Spiritual Intelligence to underpin human intelligence as our capable guide The indomitable spirit within human beings that brought civilization out of the Dark Ages and into an Age of Enlightenment demonstrates our capacity to transcend moral hope and optimism for a better world with peaceful coexistence among individuals families and nations This book will help inform enlighten and empower individuals and leaders in such fields as engineering science religion politics the military and other great institutions to engender solutions to the myriad of unsolved problems of past centuries problems of the present and emerging problems of the future Problems such as wars genocide greed and the exploitation of human beings begin within our destructive spiritual nature and manifest in the physical nature Therefore solutions also lie in the spiritual realm as a counterbalance to the natural realm of human existence FFHD is a blueprint for human survival based on adherence to physical laws and spiritual laws that transcend a belief in an omnipotent all powerful omnipresent everywhere and omniscient all knowing being It will awaken the conscience to comprehend the lifethreatening issues that face humankind The solutions therefore cannot merely be left only to the educated elite the military forces and those in high public and private office The global significance of this book is that it informs a more communal view of our world It is the only perspective that will allow us to enter the global village prepared for the racial social cultural environmental and economic challenges that lie ahead My Mother's Dream George Henderson,2024-07-31 From the Preface The primary audience for this book is first generation college students Whether they are in two year or four year colleges I give the readers an example of the power of a parent s dream the positive and negative outcomes of a student s hard work the stuff caring teachers and supportive school administrators are made of and the significance of resilience tenacity and self growth Hopefully my story will give those who read this book a dose of what stick to itiveness means up close and personal My foremost message to first generation and other generation students is to ask for help when you are stumped seize whatever opportunities to help you improve and do your best work Secondly this book is written for teachers school counselors nurses and other personnel who help students during their educational journeys Their assistance can be helpful or hurtful to whatever generation of students they are helping What they do to students and how they do it matters hugely Thirdly this book is written for professional helpers who are not school related but who want to become better helpers in other careers Lastly this book is written for people who are not professional helpers but are curious about the travails and struggles of poverty stricken people like me and my family I have had a long tedious journey from illiteracy to literacy from segregation to desegregation from poverty to affluence and from disliking people who came from cultures different from my own to loving them Nonviolent theories and behavior were like a river flowing through my life slowly during my childhood and adolescence and rapidly after I enrolled in college The Civil Rights Movement is the name of that river It was the foremost foundation upon which I built my philosophy of helping other people So of course the Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr was my hero role model and guide His words and strategies of change are generously sprinkled throughout the later chapters of this book Catalog of Copyright Entries. Publication ,1993 Christian Socialism Philip Turner,2022-05-26 Christian Socialism arose in England in the mid nineteenth century as a response to the philosophy of political economy now commonly called neoliberalism Seeking not institutional change or nationalisation but a reform of the moral underpinnings of society it refuted the assumption that people are essentially selfish competitive individuals seeking nothing but personal happiness Although they did not deny the presence of selfishness its proponents believed that the social nature of humankind lies deeper than such egotism and conflict and pursued a society built on this belief Less prominent now than at the time of its inception Christian Socialism nevertheless continues into the twenty first century its goal nothing less than a new society built upon the virtues of equality fellowship cooperation service and justice Philip Turner's careful exposition traces the history of this strand of Anglican political thought and restores confidence in its message for the future

The Doctrine of State and the Principles of State Law Friedrich Julius Stahl, 2025-09-03 Suppose that Wilhelm I had never become King of Prussia and instead his brother Friedrich Wilhelm IV who was only 1 year his senior and had reigned since 1840 had been given the same number of years to live as he had For Wilhelm died in 1888 In that case the kind of kingship which is outlined in this book would in general if not in every detail continue to have been implemented in Prussia Events would most likely have continued to proceed along the lines they did in the 1850s Military expansion would not have been pursued in the teeth of opposition from the estates Otto von Bismarck would not have been installed as Chancellor Prussia would have maintained the peace seeking approach of its foreign policy as was exemplified in its neutral stance during the Crimean War Germany would not have been unified over the backs of Austria and France and by military annexation of the autonomous German territories the seeds would not have been sown for two world wars and a great depression How differently would history have turned out There would have been the example of a Christian monarchy pursuing the glory of God and not Realpolitik there would have been the rule of law based on the Word of God rather than the word of man there would have been maintained a system of representation which sustained the monarchy rather than the monied interest Above all a halt would have been called to the progression of unbelief and revolution But it was not to be Friedrich Wilhelm IV suffering from a series of strokes beginning in 1857 died in 1861 The author of this book Friedrich Julius Stahl died in the same year With them went the only hope for a peaceful Germany and a de revolutionized Europe In 1867 the Dutch statesman Guillaume Groen van Prinsterer asked the rhetorical question If King Frederick William IV were still alive would M von Bismarck have had the chance to carry out his vast designs L Empire Prussien et l Apocalypse p 56 His answer based on extensive citations from Stahl's writings was a resounding No Modern historiography knows nothing of this All it knows is that Friedrich Wilhelm IV lived in a romanticized past and refused to recognize the progress taking place all around him He was the reactionary monarch who stifled Prussia's advance into liberal modernity But we need to ask the question to what exactly did that progress actually lead Perhaps the King of Prussia and Stahl with him knew something that modern historians do not This second edition of The Doctrine of State and the Principles of State Law has been thoroughly reworked while also being supplemented with newly translated material
