Remaking the Middle East: The Long Arab 19th Century

The Current events stirring the Middle East can be discerned most easily as a matter of politics, economic, or culture, but steeped in complexity they are much more. In order to explain the rise of ISIL (Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant), the Syrian refugee question, the Palestinian Uprising, and the failure of the Arab Uprisings, this lecture reconstructs the regional history. It traces the roots of these events to the early 19th century (with emphasis on specific significant historical moments throughout since 1871 e.g. 19-48 Palestinian Nakba, the late 1970s expansion of neoliberalism).

It argues that the existing accounts of the regional historical accounts do not explain the political present or the unfolding geopolitical regional order. As such, and in order to explain the current geopolitical conditions, identify the root causes of the current events and their possible outcomes, a reconstruction of the regional history is essential.

The lecture will address the following interrelated topics:
The Rise of ISIL: Why ISIL?
The Syrian Refugee Question
The Palestinian Question and Colonial Zionism

Remaking The Middle East:

Remaking the Middle East: A Lowy Institute Paper: Penguin Special Anthony Bubalo, 2018-04-30 Not since the collapse of the Ottoman Empire has the Middle East been convulsed by so many events in such a short period of time Uprisings coups and wars have seen governments overthrown hundreds of thousands killed and millions displaced Parts of the region have become ungoverned or ungovernable Refugees and terrorists have become the Middle East's most noteworthy exports In Remaking the Middle East Anthony Bubalo argues that the current turmoil is the result of the irrevocable decay of the nizam the system by which most states in the modern region are ruled But if you look hard enough it is possible to spot green shoots of change that could remake the Middle East in ways that are more inclusive more democratic less corrupt and less violent Such an outcome is not inevitable but with so much commentary focused on what is going wrong in the region it is also important to identify what may well go right Remaking the Middle East Paul J. White, William S. Logan, 1997-04-01 How realistic is peace in the Middle East Certainly there appears to be a reduction in conflict and concrete improvements are clearly visible the Gulf War opened the door to regional realignments that paved the way for the PLO Israel peace agreement which in turn made peace negotiations possible between Israel and Syria Lebanon is rebuilding its cities following a cessation of its civil war Iran has evidenced signs of a rapprochement with the West Yet some analysts predict that these changes are doomed to failure With its longstanding territorial disputes and pronounced ethnic and religious divides will this troubled region ever resolve its conflicts Pessimists further contend that vexed problems such as gender relations and human rights violations remain unaffected by the processes of international political readjustment This provocative and interdisciplinary book tackles these controversial questions from a wide range of perspectives in an effort to unravel the complexities of this exciting area which is the spotlight of tremendous global concern never more so than at the present

Social Entrepreneurship in the Middle East Dima Jamali, Alessandro Lanteri, 2016-04-29 This two volume book unveils trends strengths weaknesses and overall dynamics and implications of social entrepreneurship in the Middle East region whilst identifying both opportunities and threats facing social entrepreneurship and supplements through a wealth of insights and examples inspired from practice and current applications State, Power and Politics in the Making of the Modern Middle East Roger Owen, 2013-01-11 Roger Owen has fully revised and updated his authoritative text to take into account the latest developments in the Middle East This book continues to serve as an excellent introduction for newcomers to the modern history and politics of this fascinating region This third edition continues to explore the emergence of individual Middle Eastern states since the fall of the Ottoman Empire at the end of the First World War and the key themes that have characterized the region since then REMAKING THE MIDDLE EAST, 2003 The Art of War in an Age of Peace Michael O'Hanlon, 2021-05-25 An informed modern plan for post 2020 American foreign policy that avoids the opposing dangers of retrenchment and overextension Russia and China are both believed to have grand strategies detailed sets of national security goals backed by means and plans to pursue them In the United States policy makers have tried to articulate similar concepts but have failed to reach a widespread consensus since the Cold War ended While the United States has been the world s prominent superpower for over a generation much American thinking has oscillated between the extremes of isolationist agendas versus interventionist and overly assertive ones Drawing on historical precedents and weighing issues such as Russia s resurgence China s great rise North Korea s nuclear machinations and Middle East turmoil Michael O Hanlon presents a well researched ethically sound and politically viable vision for American national security policy He also proposes complementing the Pentagon s set of 4 1 pre existing threats with a new 4 1 biological nuclear digital climatic and internal dangers

The Regional Impacts on Turkey's Zero Problems with Neighbors Policy towards Iraqi Kurdistan Zeravan Muhsin,2022-09-29 The combination of the war in Syria and the rise of ISIS has increased the role of non state actors in the Middle East politics This is of particular concern for Turkey on account of its long standing concerns regarding Kurdish nationalism particularly after the Syrian war which provides Kurds with a significant role in regional security affairs This book aims to examine the regional impacts of the Turkish government s Zero Policy with Neighbors ZPN in respect to Iraqi Kurdistan This has been achieved through an analysis of the impact on the ZPN policy of the following non state actors between 2011 and 2016 The Syrian Kurdish group represented by the Democratic Union Party PYD ISIS and the Kurdistan Workers party PKK

Remaking Islam in African Portugal Michelle C. Johnson,2021-12-22 A portrait of Muslim migrants adapting to a new world and a new understanding of their own religious and cultural identity in a European city When Guinean Muslims leave their homeland they encounter radically new versions of Islam and new approaches to religion more generally In Remaking Islam in African Portugal Michelle C Johnson explores the religious lives of these migrants in the context of diaspora Since Islam arrived in West Africa centuries ago Muslims in this region have long conflated ethnicity and Islam such that to be Mandinga or Fula is also to be Muslim But as they increasingly encounter Muslims not from Africa as well as other ways of being Muslim they must question and revise their understanding of proper Muslim belief and practice Many men in particular begin to separate African custom from global Islam Johnson maintains that this cultural intersection is highly gendered as she shows how Guinean Muslim men in Lisbon especially those who can read Arabic have made the pilgrimage to Mecca and attend Friday prayer at Lisbon s central mosque aspire to be cosmopolitan Muslims By contrast Guinean women many of whom never studied the Qur an do not read Arabic and feel excluded from the mosque remain more comfortably rooted in African custom In response these women have created a culture club as an alternative Muslim space where they can celebrate life course rituals and Muslim holidays on their own terms Remaking Islam in African Portugal highlights what being Muslim means in urban Europe and how Guinean migrants relationships to their ritual practices must change as they remake themselves and their religion

Iraq Craig M. White,2012-07-10 Iraq The Moral Reckoning applies classic just war theory to the U S decision to go to war in 2003 That theory which evolved over several millennia is a simple profound tool for evaluating the rightness and wisdom of starting a war The Bush administration and its supporters referred directly and indirectly to the theory in making a pro war case to the world The theory provides three core moral criteria for a just war sovereign authority just cause and right intention which includes an aim of peace It adds three practical criteria proportionality of ends last resort and reasonable chance of success For a just war each criterion should be substantially met Since war is destructive and each country is presumed to have the right to live in peace the evidence in favor of war must be clearly stronger than evidence against it For each criterion Iraq The Moral Reckoning painstakingly weighs Bush administration statements or those of its supporters against evidence available at the time A wide range of viewpoints and evidence is considered and contrary arguments are refuted One full chapter is given to neoconservative arguments on just war theory and its application from prominent war supporters Each criterion except sovereign authority is shown not to have been met The book concludes with a discussion of the implications of an unjust war for the United States and the world The intensive weighing of each criterion against the facts and the balanced approach make the book unique By demonstrating a comprehensive application of the theory to one war it not only sets a new standard for evaluating the 2003 Iraq war but also shows how present and future wars can be better evaluated in moral and practical terms based on knowledge available at the time

The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order Samuel P. Huntington, 2007-05-31 The classic study of post Cold War international relations more relevant than ever in the post 9 11 world with a new foreword by Zbigniew Brzezinski Since its initial publication The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order has become a classic work of international relations and one of the most influential books ever written about foreign affairs An insightful and powerful analysis of the forces driving global politics it is as indispensable to our understanding of American foreign policy today as the day it was published As former National Security Adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski says in his new foreword to the book it has earned a place on the shelf of only about a dozen or so truly enduring works that provide the quintessential insights necessary for a broad understanding of world affairs in our time Samuel Huntington explains how clashes between civilizations are the greatest threat to world peace but also how an international order based on civilizations is the best safeguard against war Events since the publication of the book have proved the wisdom of that analysis The 9 11 attacks and wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have demonstrated the threat of civilizations but have also shown how vital international cross civilization cooperation is to restoring peace As ideological distinctions among nations have been replaced by cultural differences world politics has been reconfigured Across the globe new conflicts and new cooperation have replaced the old order of the Cold War era The Clash of Civilizations and the Remaking of World Order explains how the population explosion in Muslim countries and the economic rise of East Asia are changing global politics These developments challenge Western dominance promote opposition to supposedly universal Western ideals and intensify intercivilization conflict over such issues as nuclear proliferation immigration human rights and democracy The Muslim population surge has led to many small wars throughout Eurasia and the rise of China could lead to a global war of civilizations Huntington offers a strategy for the West to preserve its unique culture and emphasizes the need for people everywhere to learn to coexist in a complex multipolar multicivilizational world

The Great War and the Remaking of Palestine Salim Tamari, 2017-08-22 Introduction Rafiq Bey s public spectacles Arabs Turks and monkeys the ethnography and cartography of Ottoman Syria The sweet smell of holy sewage urban planning and the new public sphere in Palestine A scientific expedition to Gallipoli the Syrian Palestinian intelligentsia divided Two faces of Palestinian orthodoxy Hellenism Arabness and the Osmenlilik The farcical moment narratives of revolution and counter revolution in Nablus Adele Azar s notebook charity and feminism in WWI Ottoman modernity and the biblical gaze the war photography of Khalil Raad Smart Instead of Small in International Relations Theory Spyridon N. Litsas, 2023-11-16

Small States theory supports the argument that small international actors have a vital role in the international system After 9 11 it emerged as a more focused attempt to show that small can be attractive and functional in an era of normative political and religious radicalism This book argues that Small States Theory is not relevant to the perplexities of the post multipolar international system and produces a new theory the Smart States Theory Based on structural and neoclassical realism it attempts to identify the origins of state smartness in foreign policy leadership and domestic politics The United Arab Emirates will be used as the case study of this novel theoretical approach The impressive evolution of the Trucial States to a modern nation state of high technology dynamic foreign policy as the recent pandemic fully showed unique leadership and unparalleled tolerance towards other religions and cultures make the UAE a brilliant example of a smart state of the 21st century The reader of the book will be introduced to a new theory in International Relations as well as to the history politics society and leadership of a state that plays a pivotal role not only in the Gulf region but in the broader framework of the Middle East too the United Arab Emirates Remaking Area Studies Terence Wesley-Smith, Jon Goss, 2010-04-30 This collection identifies the challenges facing area studies as an organized intellectual project in this era of globalization focusing in particular on conceptual issues and implications for pedagogical practice in Asia and the Pacific The crisis in area studies is widely acknowledged various prescriptions for solutions have been forthcoming but few have also pursued practical applications of critical ideas for both teachers and students Remaking Area Studies not only makes the case for more culturally sensitive and empowering forms of area studies but indicates how these ideas can be translated into effective student centered learning practices through the establishment of interactive regional learning communities This pathbreaking work features original contributions from leading theorists of globalization and critics of area studies as practiced in the U S Essays in the first part of the book problematize the accepted categories of traditional area making practices Taken together they provide an alternative conceptual framework for area studies that informs the subsequent contributions on pedagogical practices To incorporate critical perspectives from the areas studied chapters examine the development of area studies programs in Japan and the Pacific Islands Not surprisingly given the lessons learned from critical examinations of area studies in the U S there are competing state institutional and intellectual perspectives involved in each of these contexts that need to be taken into account before embarking on an interactive and collaborative area studies across Pacific Asia Finally area studies practitioners reflect on their experiences developing and teaching interactive web based courses linking classrooms in six universities located in Hawai i Singapore the Philippines Japan New Zealand and Fiji These collaborative on line teaching and learning initiatives were designed specifically to address some of the conceptual and theoretical concerns associated with the production and dissemination of contemporary area studies knowledge Multiauthored chapters draw useful lessons for international collaborative learning in an era of globalization both in terms of their successes and occasional failures Uniquely combining theoretical institutional and practical perspectives across the Asia Pacific region Remaking Area Studies contributes to a rethinking and reinvigorating of regional approaches to knowledge formation in higher education Contributors Conrado Balabat Lonny Carlile T C Chang Hezekiah A Concepcion Arif Dirlik Jeremy Eades Gerard Finin Jon Goss Peter Hempenstall Lily Kong Lisa Law Martin W Lewis Robert Nicole Neil Smith Teresa Teaiwa Ricardo Trimillos Christine Yano Terence Wesley Smith Evolving Security Threats and Identity in the United Arab Emirates Anna Reuß, 2025-09-26 This book examines and conceptualises the determinants of threat perceptions in the United Arab Emirates UAE and contributes to a better understanding of how a nation s self conception shapes its perceptions of in security and emphasises the relevance of these dynamics for policymaking It combines the societal approach of the English School of IR with securitization theory to offer a novel framework for analyzing threat perceptions This book is relevant to students of Middle Eastern studies gulf studies international relations and scholars who are interested in theoretical perspectives The Middle East in 1958 Jeffrey G. Karam, 2020-09-17 The revolutionary year of 1958 epitomizes the height of the social uprisings military coups and civil wars that erupted across the Middle East and North Africa in the mid twentieth century Amidst waning Anglo French influence growing US USSR rivalry and competition and alignments between Arab and non Arab regimes and domestic struggles this year was a turning point in the modern history of the Middle East This multi and interdisciplinary book explores this pivotal year in its global regional and local contexts and from a wide range of linguistic geographic academic specialties The contributors draw on declassified and multilingual archives reports memoirs and newspapers in thirteen country specific chapters shedding new light on topics such as the extent of Anglo American competition after the Suez War Turkey s efforts to stand as a key pillar in the regional Cold War the internationalization of the Algerian War of Independence and Iran and Saudi Arabia s abilities to weather the revolutionary storm that swept across the region The book includes a foreword from Salim Yaqub which highlights the importance of Jeffrey G Karam s collection to the scholarship on this vital moment in the political history of the modern middle east Turkish-Qatari Relations Özgür Pala, Khalid Al-Jaber, 2022-04-04 This book examines domestic and regional geopolitical dynamics behind Turkish Qatari relations from the past to the present Utilizing arguments of practical geopolitical reasoning Zg r Pala and Khaled Al Jaber situate their analysis of evolving relations in the contexts of Ottoman British geopolitical rivalry in the Persian Gulf the Turkish Republic s fluctuating relations with the Middle East until the 2000s the AKP governments opening to the region and finally the Arab Spring and its aftermath Contextualizing the trajectory of Turkish Qatari relations within the larger Middle East and the Gulf Arab region the authors argue that material interests and identity politics have generally determined relations until the turn of the millennium Under Erdogan and Sheikh Hamad s assertive leadership and ambitious foreign policy Turkey and Qatar came to witness various foreign policy convergences on critically important regional issues Pala and Al Jaber argue that these convergences coupled with their geopolitical and security goals facilitated a political alignment between Ankara and Doha throughout the Arab Spring They argue that despite facing major geopolitical setbacks Turkey and Qatar were able to chart a much deeper cooperation which later evolved into a strategic partnership in various areas

Regional Competition and Conflicts in MENA Dania Koleilat Khatib, 2025-10-31 This book studies four cases where competing regional players greatly shaped the ongoing conflicts in Syria Yemen Somalia the Horn of Africa and Libya Based on John Mearsheimer s theory of great power competition detailed in his book The Tragedy of Great Power Politics this publication examines an important period in the modern history of the MENA region starting from the Arab Spring until the beginning of the Gaza war The Arab Spring and the demands for democratization created a disruption leading to the fall of several dictatorships creating both a threat and an opportunity for regional dominant powers Those cases are studied in an instrumental manner Regional Competition and Conflicts in MENA helps readers interested in the MENA region understand the nature of the competition among regional powers and its effect on the course of those conflicts This book will be of particular use to students with an interest in Middle East studies Middle East politics conflict studies and international relations
