Remarkable Expedition Olivia Manning, 1985-05-01 The Reluctant Rescue Olivia Manning, 1947 Emin Pasha 1840 1892 Stanley Henry M Henry Morton 1841 1904 Africa Central History Sudan History 1821 1881 African Exploits Roy D. MacLaren, 1998-03-18 Born and raised in Halifax Nova Scotia Stairs 1863 1892 attended the Royal Military College in Kingston before being commissioned in the British army Wearied of peacetime soldiering he volunteered in 1887 to participate in Sir Henry M Stanley s final trans African expedition to rescue Emin Pasha the last of Chinese Gordon s lieutenants in the Sudan The expedition emerged almost three years later in Zanzibar a reluctant Pasha in tow having left a trail of havoc and suffering behind it Stairs promptly volunteered for a second expedition in Africa to secure Katanga for King Leopold II of the Belgians as part of the controversial Congo Free State Stairs was a cruel leader condoning decapitation and mutilation to attain colonial ends The expedition succeeded but at the price of suffering destruction and his own life Stairs died of malaria at the end of the expedition at the age of twenty eight Few diaries of the period convey better than Stairs s the nature and course of imperialist expeditions in Africa in the nineteenth century and the psychological and moral corruption caused by absolute power Stairs s diaries of the Emin Pasha Relief Expedition present a candid personal account of the long and arduous venture including a very unflattering assessment of Stanley whom Stairs described as cruel secretive and selfish The Katanga diaries written as an official company account of the expedition were intended partly to provide information useful to those intent upon exploiting the African hinterland African Exploits is the most complete published collection of Stairs s diaries with a new translation of the Katanga diaries which no longer exist in the original English Roy MacLaren s introduction and conclusion set Stairs s adventures in the colonial context of the era and analyse the psychological effects of his experiences The Last Expedition Daniel Liebowitz, Charles Pearson, 2005 Henry Morton Stanley undertook the greatest African expedition of the 19th century to rescue Emin Pasha last lieutenant of the martyred General Gordon and governor of the southern Sudan Instead of ten months the trip took three years and cost the lives of thousands of people as Stanley s column hacked its way across the last great unexplored territory in Africa Stanley s secret agenda was territorial expansion on the model of Leopold s Congo or the British East India Company Imperialism and the Anti-Imperialist Mind Lewis Samuel Feuer, 1989-01-01 In this major work Lewis S Feuer examines critical distinctions between progressive and regressive imperialism He explores causes of anti imperial ideologies noting that unlike the spoliation that took place under regressive tartar Spanish and Nazi colonizations civilization flourished during the progressive imperialism of Hellenic Macedonian Roman and modern British eras of empire building Feuer holds that it is erroneous to blame the relative backwardness of colonial peoples on the imperialism of Western democratic nations In case after case the character of colonial rulers determined economic development and democratic reform alike Pursuing the theme of progress versus regression Feuer compares the imperialism of the United States with that of the Soviet Union to the detriment of the latter in nearly every instance His effort constitutes nothing short of a fundamentally new perspective on the lessons of modern history and the mistakes of modern analysts of international affairs Feuer opens as well a new chapter in political psychology with his study of such anti imperialist intellectuals as Hobson Morel and Leonard Woolf his portrait of Emin Pasha the heroic Jewish governor of Equatorial Sudan suggests a living model for Conrad s Lord Jim Mr. Stanley, I Presume? Alan Gallop,2004-04-27 Famous for having found the great missionary and explorer Dr David Livingstone on the shores of Lake Tanganyika and immortalised as the utterer of perhaps the four most often quoted words of greeting of all time Dr Livingstone I presume Henry Morton Stanley was himself a man who characterised the great wave of exploring fever that gripped the nineteenth century The Remarkable Expedition Olivia Manning,1947 The Rescue of Emin Pasha Roger Jones,1972 The Mahdi and Africa John D Grainger,2025-11-30 The story of the Mahdi of Sudan is generally related from the British point of view though it was more an African event The Mahdi s uprising was the latest in a series of Islamic rebellions and wars which began in the eighteenth century It also had a profound effect on the rest of North and East Africa destroying the Egyptian Empire provoking Ethiopia into a new unification which allowed it to successfully resist the Mahdists the Egyptians and the Italians it brought British forces forward from the East African coast as far as Uganda for fear that some European power would seize the sources of the Nile and block the river s flow Eventually but only after several humiliating defeats the Mahdist state was overthrown by a British invasion led by Kitchener and participated in by Churchill this also produced a difficult confrontation at Fashoda between the British conquerors and a French expedition sparking a European crisis The author sets the Mahdist war in the wider context of Africa and Islam and in the context of the development of African states but also with a glance forward to the present day where the most important development in Africa is the extensive Islamic uprising which is replicating that of the nineteenth century The New A-Z of Empire C. Brad Faught,2011-05-30 The British Empire especially in its late Victorian heyday spanned the world and linked a quarter of world s population to Britain through a shared official allegiance to the Crown In the long history of empires the British imperial state was among the most powerful ever and a major global player A New A Z of Empire catches the current burgeoning interest in empires and covers over 400 years of British imperial history from the founding of the East India Company in 1600 to the First and Second British Empires the time of High Empire following the War of American Independence the unprecedented expansion of the Scramble for Africa the development of Dominion Status and the history often turbulent of decolonization and the growth of Commonwealth The 400 plus entries include a rich panoply of individuals territories treaties politics the law diplomacy war and peace administration business and commerce exploration literature art literature and scholarship Readers will find a mine of fascinating factual information in concise form with expert historical assessment cross referencing between entries and suggestions for further reading The valuable time line is essential to pick through the long period of complex history and links to key web resources are provided A New A Z of Empire is an indispensable tool for the scholar and student and for the general reader interested in the rich history of the British Empire a story of obscure foundation leading to dominance over a huge swathe of the globe now represented by mere pinpricks on the world map

Diplomacy in Postwar British Literature and Culture Caroline Zoe Krzakowski, 2023-05-16 In Diplomacy in Postwar British Literature and Culture Krzakowski examines how representations of British envoys diplomats officials and spies in fiction and non fiction by Rebecca West Lawrence Durrell Olivia Manning and John le Carr as well as in the films of Alfred Hitchcock respond to the political instability of the postwar period This study argues that the rise of international relations in the twentieth century shaped modern British fiction and film and offers a new way to trace the continuities between geopolitics and British cultural production in the aftermath of the Second World War

Olivia Manning Deirdre David, 2013-01-10 Olivia Manning A Woman at War is the first literary biography of the twentieth century novelist Olivia Manning It tells the story of a writer whose life and work were shaped by her own fierce ambition and like many of her generation the events and aftermath of the Second World War From the time she left Portsmouth for London in the mid 1930s determined to become a famous writer through her wartime years in the Balkans and the Middle East and until her death in London in 1980 Olivia Manning was a dedicated and hard working author Married to a British Council lecturer stationed in Bucharest Olivia Manning arrived in Romania on the 3rd September 1939 the fateful day when Allied forces declared war on Germany For the duration of World War Two she kept one step ahead of invading German forces as she and her husband fled Romania for Greece and then Greece for the Middle East where they stayed until the end of the war These tumultuous wartime years are the subject of her best known and most transparently autobiographical novels The Balkan Trilogy and The Levant Trilogy Olivia Manning refused to be labelled a feminist but her novels depict with cutting insight and sardonic wit the marginal position of women striving for independent identity in arenas frequently controlled by men whether on the frontlines of war or in the publishing world of the 1950s However she did not just write about World War Two and women's lives Amongst other things Manning published fiction about making do in Britain's post war Age of Austerity about desecration of the environment through uncontrolled development and about the painful adjustment to post war British life for young men As the author of thirteen published novels two volumes of short stories several works of non fiction and a regular reviewer of contemporary fiction she was a visible presence on the British literary scene throughout her life and her work provides a detailed insight into the period Grounded in thorough research and enriched by discussion of previously unexamined manuscripts and letters Olivia Manning A Woman at War is a timely study of Olivia Manning s remarkable life Deirdre David integrates incisive critical analysis of Manning s writing with extensive discussion of the historical contexts of her fiction Dictionary Catalog of the Schomburg Collection of Negro Literature & History Schomburg Collection of Negro Literature and History,1962 The Conradian ,1999
