Lewis,2014-12-11 The Gospel Miracles examines the thirty five miracles performed by Jesus as reported in the four Gospels The objectives are firstly to try and determine what really happened at the time they were enacted and secondly to see if it is possible to explain them This exercise is neither an attempt to deny miracles nor to blindly accept the accounts as inerrant but it is an unbiased attempt to arrive at the truth. The findings conclude that sometimes there are possible naturalistic or simple alternative explanations to a supernatural one. However, this does not discount the possibility that Jesus employed natural means at the right time for the right reasons. The Gospel Miracles concludes with a summary of some more modern reports of miraculous events. The Miracles in the Gospels Keith Warrington, 2016-01-01. Keith Warrington's book paints a compelling picture of Jesus as a miracle worker. It shows how miracles functioned as a strategy in his ministry and explains why some miracles are recorded differently in different Gospels. In this magisterial study, Keith Warrington paints a rounded picture of Jesus as a miracle worker by exploring each of the miracles in the Gospels in their literary and historical setting. He demonstrates that while the miracles are historically authentic, there are several reasons for their presence in the Gospels other than simply to identify Jesus as a miracle worker. They are also intended to function as vehicles of teaching, expressing aspects of the mission and person of Jesus, providing lessons for his would-be disciples, and adding theological value for each Gospel's original audience. Made for a Miracle Rev. Dr. Mike Slaughter, 2017-12-19. At some time in our lives, most of us have prayed for or hoped for a miracle, an event that seems impossible but is brought about by God's transcendent power. But when miracles occur, did you know that you have a role to play? If that's true, what's the catch? What do we have to do? What's it going to cost us? Popular author and pastor Mike Slaughter examines the two components of every miracle: divine action and human responsibility. For a real miracle to take place, we must act with God, using whatever gifts, talents, and abilities we have and directing them toward God's work. We need to follow the examples of Mary in the birth of Jesus, Jesus' followers when he healed them, and Jesus' disciples after he rose from the dead. This Lent, use your God-given gifts and talents for God's glory and get ready to be made for a miracle. Additional components for this six-week study include a comprehensive Leader Guide and a DVD featuring author and pastor Mike Slaughter.
