PROVIDENCES

CHAPTER 1

© 2007 Blackwell Publishing Ltd, Journal of Internal Medicine 261: 103–110

Mr. Anthony Wheeler's relation concerning his and his wife's being unwillingly preserved alive, when all the ship's company perished. The wonderful preservation of Major Gibbons and his company. Several other remarkable unfortunates mentioned by Mr. Jones, wherein New England men were concerned. Mr. Gibbons's conversation, a small boat coming from Bristol for New England saved out of great distress at sea. Some providentially met with by a New England vessel in an open boat, some fugitives of those who died, company preserved.
An account of a remarkably unfortunates which happened this present year. Another like note it which happened about twenty years ago.

THE royal pen of the prophet David hath most truly affirmed, "that they who go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters, see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep." And, in special, they see wonders of Divine goodness in respect of eminent deliverances wrought by the hand of the Most High, who stills the noise of the sea, the noise of their waves. It is meet that such providences should be ever had in remembrance, as meet of all by the persons concerned in them, or by others, that the God of Salvation, who is the confidence of them that are afar off upon the sea, may have eternal praise.
