Paintings from Soviet Museums Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn,1975 The National Gallery of Victoria NGV located in Melbourne Australia features a brief biographical sketch about the Dutch painter Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn 1606 1669 Rembrandt went to Amsterdam to study painting After mastering everything he had been taught Rembrandt opened a large studio and taught pupils While Rembrandt was very successful with his paintings his personal life was marked with tragedy Some of Rembrandt s famous works include The Abduction of Ganymede 1635 The Blinding of Samson 1636 and The Night Watch 1642 Rembrandt Harmensz Van Rijn Emile Michel,1906 Rembrandt Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn,1952 Rembrandt Harmensz Van Rijn ,1976 Harmensz van Rijn Rembrandt Emile Michel,2011-07-01

Rembrandt is completely mysterious in his spirit his character his life his work and his method of painting What we can divine of his essential nature comes through his painting and the trivial or tragic incidents of his unfortunate life his penchant for ostentatious living forced him to declare bankruptcy His misfortunes are not entirely explicable and his oeuvre reflects disturbing notions and contradictory impulses emerging from the depths of his being like the light and shade of his pictures In spite of this nothing perhaps in the history of art gives a more profound impression of unity than his paintings composed though they are of such different elements full of complex significations One feels as if his intellect that genial great free mind bold and ignorant of all servitude and which led him to the loftiest meditations and the most sublime reveries derived from the same source as his emotions From this comes the tragic element he imprinted on everything he painted irrespective of subject there was inequality in his work as well as the sublime which may be seen as the inevitable consequence of such a tumultuous existence It seems as though this singular strange attractive and almost enigmatic personality was slow in developing or at least in attaining its complete expansion Rembrandt showed talent and an original vision of the world early as evidenced in his youthful etchings and his first self portraits of about 1630 In painting however he did not immediately find the method he needed to express the still incomprehensible things he had to say that audacious broad and personal method which we admire in the masterpieces of his maturity and old age In spite of its subtlety it was adjudged brutal in his day and certainly contributed to alienate his public From the time of his beginnings and of his successes however lighting played a major part in his conception of painting and he made it the principal instrument of his investigations into the arcana of interior life It already revealed to him the poetry of human physiognomy when he painted The Philosopher in Meditation or the Holy Family so deliciously absorbed in its modest intimacy or for example in The Angel Raphael leaving Tobias Soon he asked for something more The Night Watch marks at once the apotheosis of his reputation He had a universal curiosity and he lived meditated dreamed and painted thrown back on himself He thought of the great

Venetians borrowing their subjects and making of them an art out of the inner life of profound emotion Mythological and religious subjects were treated as he treated his portraits For all that he took from reality and even from the works of others he transmuted it instantly into his own substance (Rembrandt Harmensz Van Rijn) Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn, Wilhelm Reinhold Walter Koehler, 1953 Rembrandt Harmensz Van Rijn Rembrandt Harmenszoon van Rijn, 1973
