I Belong Bianca Lepori, 2012-11 A change of perspective By seeing cancer from the point of view of an embodied evolving monad rather than simply as a physical body threatened with death the book questions cultural stereotypes and clears illusions about disease and traditional medicine It is about accepting cancer as a pointer towards our true nature thus about honoring the disease as something that needs to be understood rather than fought as a hidden message that needs to be listened to It describes a personal experience that gives evidence of cancer as an opportunity to heal the soul and as a challenge to uncover individual responsibility towards ourselves and the fulfilling of our destiny Despite Eastern and Western types of cure and alternative complementary shamanistic and energetic treatments the book explains how the final healing occurs when karmic wounds are dissolved thus when present life patterns have found their causes within the Universal Law of Rebirth The purpose of disease thus explained and broken the pattern of suffering cancer can therefore be seen as instrumental in bringing joy and meaning to one's life

Frieda's Journey Frieda Lefebber, 2003-10-07 Not long after graduating from the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts at the age of 83 Frieda Lefebber decided to embark on yet another creative adventure writing her first book In Frieda's Journey she tells her story from her birth in Germany in 1915 right up to the present day Frieda shares with readers her vivid memories of the horrors of World War I post war Germany the depression life under the Hitler regime and the pre World War II persecution of the Jews that culminated in Kristallnacht In opposition to the serious and gruesome details of her fear of and eventual escape from life in Germany she shares humorous anecdotes from her childhood and her experiences as a foreigner struggling with a new language as well as memories of her many successes and lucky breaks She also discusses the many issues facing America's immigrant population in the latter half of the Twentieth Century as well as the joys and talents that can be found unexpectedly even late in life Frieda's Journey is an inspiration and will remind the young and old alike how to live passionately and with wisdom and to overcome hardships and come out all the better for it

House of Remembering and Forgetting Filip David, 2017-11-02 Young Albert Weiss was spared the horrors of Auschwitz when his parents threw him and his brother from the transport train Years later with the help of other survivors of the holocaust he explores the myriad ways of confronting not just the evil that robbed him of his childhood but the guilt he feels for having lost his brother on that wintry night Mosaic non linear and semi autobiographical this book is reminiscent in style of Kurt Vonnegut's Slaughterhouse Five and in theme of the works of Primo Levi In documenting the stories of child survivors it is a moving and necessary addition to the literature of the Holocaust

Remembering the Crusades and Crusading Megan Cassidy-Welch, 2016-11-03 Remembering the Crusades and Crusading examines the diverse contexts in which crusading was memorialised and commemorated in the medieval world and beyond The collection not only shows how the crusades were commemorated in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries but also considers the longer term remembrance of the crusades into the modern era This collection is divided into three sections the first of which deals with the textual material and visual sources used to remember Each contributor introduces a particular body of source material and presents case studies using those sources in their own research The second section contains four chapters examining specific communities active in commemorating the crusades including religious communities family groups and royal courts Finally the third section examines the cultural memory of crusading in the Byzantine Iberian and Baltic regions beyond the early years as well as the trajectory of crusading memory in the Muslim Middle East This book draws together and extends the current debates in the history of the crusades and the history of memory and in so doing offers a fresh synthesis of material in both fields It will be essential reading for students of the crusades and memory

Fernheimer,2014-12-02 This volume the first of its kind establishes and clarifies the significance of Jewish rhetorics as its own field and as a field within rhetoric studies Diverse essays illuminate and complicate the editors definition of a Jewish rhetorical stance as allowing speakers to maintain a resolute sense of engagement with their fellows and their community while also remaining aware of the dislocation from the members of those communities Topics include the historical and theoretical foundations of Jewish rhetorics cultural variants and modes of cultural expression and intersections with Greco Roman Christian Islamic and contemporary rhetorical theory and practice In addition the contributors examine gender and Yiddish and evaluate the actual and potential effect of Jewish rhetorics on contemporary scholarship and on the ways we understand and teach language and writing The contributors include some of the world s leading scholars of rhetoric writing and Jewish studies The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Patrick Beldio,2024-12-15 The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Co Creator of the Integral Yoga analyzes the contributions of the Mother n e Mirra Alfassa 1878 1973 to the Integral Yoga that she and Sri Aurobindo n Aurobindo Ghose 1872 1950 co created for his ashram Scholars have ignored Mirra for Aurobindo which prevents a full understanding of their spiritual practice Scholars have also avoided examining work Aurobindo produced after they began their partnership in 1920 until his death in 1950 and privileged the written output in his journal Arya from 1914 to 1921 In this initial fertile period he put forth his innovative teaching about what he called the Supermind an emergent human faculty that he said would manifest a new humanity and a new earth through Mirra s body Mirra claimed that after his death in 1956 this manifestation happened as he foretold Mirra s work in the ashram from his death until hers in 1973 reveals important ways that she both fulfilled and changed Aurobindo s initial vision These developments are chiefly based on her experiences of mental dissolution while her body gained a new supramental form and consciousness Authentically Jewish Stuart Z.
