

Remembering Dad

When the rain is falling hard, and the sky is darkest grey,
He's the sun that breaks the clouds, he's the rainbow after rain.
When you face an uphill struggle, he's the wind upon your back,
Pushing you higher and higher, keeping you on track.
When you're feeling lost and lonely, he's the strength that pulls you through,
He's every special memory, the purest love you knew.
He's the little voice inside, that encourages and cheers,
He will always be your biggest fan, though he cannot be here.
His voice is always on the wind, the whisper on the waves,
His loving soul has taught you to be true, be bold, be brave.
And though his parting leaves in you, a void you'll never fill,
His endless love will keep him close, you know he's with you still.
For death can never really break the hearts that beat together,
The love your Dad has wrapped you in, will stay with you forever.

Gift to the Church and World John C. Cavadini, Donald Wallenfang, 2021-03-22 Few books in theology have faced the twentieth century with all its horrors and yet convincingly revoiced the redemptive Christian antidote that compels us to reawaken to our true identity as beloved children of God Joseph Ratzinger's 1968 masterpiece Introduction to Christianity is one of those rare books. On the fiftieth anniversary of this classic book's publication, English-speaking scholars from around the globe gathered at the University of Notre Dame to celebrate Ratzinger's lasting influence on the world of Christian theology. Bishops, priests, and lay men and women set their hands to the trowel of tribute honoring the theological legacy of Joseph Ratzinger and the pivotal role he has played in the recent history of the Catholic Church from his early days as a parish priest and university professor all the way to his election to the Chair of Saint Peter as Pope Benedict XVI. Readers of this collection Gift to the Church and World will enjoy the beautiful variety of essays penned by notable scholars that decorate the timeless insights of Ratzinger's theological genius. Thematic topics include an overview and context of Ratzinger's work, fundamental theology, philosophical theology, dogmatic theology, spiritual theology, and pedagogy. Altogether, readers will deepen their appreciation and understanding of the theological contributions of Joseph Ratzinger to the mission field of the New Evangelization today. With contributions from Catherine R. Cavadini, Leonard J. DeLorenzo, Patrick X. Gardner, Robert P. Imbelli, Jennifer Newsome, Martin Aaron Pidel, Francesca Murphy, Anthony J. Pagliarini, Timothy P. O'Malley, Cyril O'Regan, Tracey Rowland, Richard Schenk, H.C. Anthony C. Sciglitanio Jr., Clemens Sedmak, Rudolf Voderholzer.

Big-Time Shakespeare Michael D. Bristol, 2005-08-12 Shakespeare has made the big time. No less than the Beatles or Liberace, Elvis Presley or Mick Jagger, Shakespeare is big time in the idiomatic sense of cultural success and widespread notoriety. Not only has he achieved canonical status, Shakespeare is a contemporary celebrity. His artistic distinction and aptitude for controversy constantly keeps his name in the public eye. Bristol debates Shakespeare's cultural authority and clarifies the semantics of his name in our culture. Big Time Shakespeare suggests his plays represent the pathos of our civilisation with extraordinary force and clarity. Shakespeare's contradictory understanding of the social and cultural past is also examined with close analysis of The Winter's Tale, Othello, and Hamlet.

Gift and Promise Ed Schroeder, 2016-08-01 Gift and Promise shows that the theology of the Augsburg Confession is as much a gift to the world today as it was when first presented in 1530. Building on a book started by Ed Schroeder, three chapters are presented in the first part; nine of his students present the theology of the Augsburg Confession in language that makes it accessible to those without a scholarly background, including pastors, students, and lay people interested in Lutheran history and theology. Gift and Promise establishes the theological hub of the Augsburg Confession, what the Confession itself calls the central teaching of the Christian faith in the doctrine of justification by faith alone. That hub is traced to its source in Luther's theology of the cross. Each chapter presents how that central hub is articulated in the articles of faith that comprise the Augsburg Confession. Lucid, powerful, and insightful, the expositions in this volume are written by expert theologians, historians, and scholars who aim to present the crucial and practical message of the Christian life in the Augsburg Confession for all.

The Gift of Truth Stephen David Ross, 1997-01-01 Reexamines the good, tracing the history of the idea of truth as an ethical movement and interpreting the good as nature's abundance, giving beauty and truth as gifts.

The End of Memory Miroslav Volf, 2006 Can one forget atrocities Should one forgive abusers Ought we not hope for the final reconciliation of all the wronged and all wrongdoers alike even if it means spending eternity with perpetrators of evil We live in an age when it is generally accepted that past wrongs genocides terrorist attacks bald personal injustices should be constantly remembered But Miroslav Volf here proposes the radical idea that letting go of such memories after a certain point and under certain conditions may actually be the appropriate course of action While agreeing with the claim that to remember a wrongdoing is to struggle against it Volf notes that there are too many ways to remember wrongly perpetuating the evil committed rather than guarding against it In this way the just sword of memory often severs the very good it seeks to defend He argues that remembering rightly has implications not only for the individual but also for the wrongdoer and for the larger community Volfs personal stories of persecution offer a compelling backdrop for his search for theological resources to make memories a wellspring of healing rather than a source of deepening pain and animosity Controversial thoughtful and incisively reasoned The End of Memory begins a conversation hard to ignore

The Gift of Administration Donald P. Senior, 2015-12-28 In his First Letter to the Corinthians Paul cites administrators as one of God's gifts to the Christian community 1 Cor 12:28 But many who serve in administrative service today have difficulty seeing how their everyday work is an expression of discipleship This book written by an experienced administrator and noted biblical scholar shows how the various functions of institutional administration are deeply rooted in the Scriptures and are a genuine expression of our call to discipleship Leadership mission statements and planning finances and fund raising personnel issues communications and public relations all of these seemingly secular activities serve to build up the Body of Christ and deserve to be recognized as authentic Christian ministry To see administrative service as a biblically rooted gift can help those involved in this way of life to find deeper and more satisfying spiritual meaning in what they do

The Custodians of the Gift Guido Carlo Pigliascio, 2022-10-21 Emerging from more than two decades of research in the field and in the archives the essays collected here explore the multifaceted topic of the Fijian firewalking ceremony the vilavilavevo The collection examines the intersection of the intertwined topics of cultural property reproduction of tradition and change with issues of post colonial representation authenticity and ethnic identity The essays advance new insights on the tourist gaze and the safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage and pose serious questions regarding the role of digital and social media as tools for preserving cultural legacies and extending traditional cultural worlds into new domains Focusing on the response of the Sawau tribe of the island of Beqa to the commodification of the vilavilairevo as their iconic practice this essay collection ultimately illuminates how the Christian cultural dynamics and unprecedented dogmatic schism surrounding the vilavilairevo spectacle are reshaping local notions of heritage social sentiment and social capital The Surprising Gift of Doubt Marc A. Recognizing the Gift Daniel A. Rober,2016-06-01 Recognizing the Gift puts twentieth century Catholic theological conversations on nature and grace particularly those of Henri de Lubac and Karl Rahner into dialogue with Continental philosophy notably the thought of Jean Luc Marion and Paul Ricoeur It argues that a renewed theology of nature and grace must build on the accomplishments of the recent past while acknowledging that an engagement with the political is unavoidable for theology Ultimately the aim is to revive and broaden discussion of nature and grace by drawing together the insights of contemporary theologians and Continental philosophers Too often these areas of inquiry remain quite separate in part due to differing priorities This work tries to open that conversation in part by critically pointing out in dialogue with Ricoeur the need in Marion s work for an acknowledgment of recognition reciprocity and the political It thus argues for a theology of nature and grace in terms of recognition of the gift drawing out the reciprocal and political nature of gift and givenness in opposition to those including Marion who would seek to avoid politics and reciprocity as a proper avenue of inquiry for theology More Than a Gift Jeannine Poole,2010-07-14 More Than a Gift is about using the power of emotion to celebrate the Christmas season For years Jeannine Poole applied the latest brain research to enhance and institute the most advanced classrooms in schools In the book she describes how to use these powerful revelations to make the family Christmas meaningful and memorable She magically unites the brain and the heart with creativity usefulness and emotions
