Ruth A. Tucker, 2011-08-23 Part storybook part textbook part historical overview Parade of Faith in ebook format presents the history of Christianity in riveting fashion Ruth Tucker adopts the metaphor of a parade journey or pilgrimage to explore the history of Christianity which began as the Messiah marched out of the pages of the Old Testament and will end one day when the saints go marching in to the New Jerusalem The book is divided into two chronological groupings first the advent of Christianity until the German and Swiss Reformations second the Anabaptist movement and Catholic Reformation until the present day worldwide expansion of the church Yet ultimately the topic matter is not movements dates or a stream of facts but instead people people who still have stories to tell other Christians And with a little help from clues to their own contexts they can still speak clearly today This book is laid out systematically to showcase the biographies of such prominent figures within their historical settings The pages are peppered with sidebars historical what if questions explorations of relevant topics for today personal reflections illustrations and lists for further reading Parade of Faith is an excellent introduction for undergraduate students and interested lay readers

The Christian Roots of Individualism Maureen P. Heath, 2019-11-28 The modern West has made the focus on individuality individual freedom and self identity central to its self definition and these concepts have been crucially shaped by Christianity This book surveys how the birth of the Christian worldview affected the evolution of individualism in Western culture as a cultural meme Applying a biological metaphor and Richard Dawkins definition of a meme this work argues the advent of individualism was not a sudden innovation of the Renaissance or the Enlightenment but a long evolution with characteristic traits This evolution can be mapped using profiles of individuals in different historical eras who contributed to the modern notion of individualism Utilizing excerpts from original works from Augustine to Nietzsche a compelling narrative arises from the slow but steady evolution of the modern self The central argument is that Christianity with its characteristic inwardness was fundamental in the development of a sense of self as it affirmed the importance of the everyday man and everyday life
