Rhetoric And Civility Human Development Narcissism And The Good Audience Speech Communication Series:

Rhetoric and Civility Harold Barrett, 1991-01-22 This book relates the concept of civility to rhetorical disposition and incivility to indisposition. The author discusses classical rhetorical theory and interprets it for use in all interactions exploring origins in infancy of the rhetorical disposition and the rhetorical indisposition. He provides four case study chapters of the lives of individuals illustrating unhealthy narcissism and rhetorical failure: Jim Jones, Joseph McCarthy, Paul Morel, and Tiberius Gracchus. These cases illustrate how unfavorable narcissism can give adverse direction to the rhetorical imperative and lead to problems in relationships. Barrett offers a rhetorical corrective.

Communication Ethics in an Age of Diversity Josina M. Makau, Ronald C. Arnett, 1997 In this volume leading communication scholars integrate cutting edge research with real world dilemmas as they address ethical problems associated with technological and cultural changes and demographic shifts. In eleven chapters the fourteen contributors to Communication Ethics in an Age of Diversity consider the implications of these changes to communication contexts ranging from personal friendships to communication over the internet and from classroom dialogues to mass mediated communication to community building in an age of diversity. They address specific issues associated with race, gender, ethnicity, and affectional orientation offering specific proposals for change. Although the primary audience is scholars and teachers in communication programs, the book will be of particular interest to readers in various disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, especially individuals in centers and departments of ethnic studies, women's studies, and African American studies.

CONTRIBUTORS: Julia T. Wood, Ronald C. Arnett, Josina M. Makau, Dolores V. Tanno, Barbara Paige Pointer, Gale Auletta, Young Lea P. Stewart, James W. Chesebro, Richard L. Johannesen, Clifford G. Christians, James A. Jaksa, Michael S. Pritchard, Jana Kramer, Cheris Kramarae.

Inarticulate Society Tom Shachtman, 2007-09-11 Thomas Schachtman, author of Skyscraper Dreams, approaches the muddy, intolerant world of political conversation through the belief that Americans have lost the ability to respond and argue differing points of view without coming swiftly to blows. Considering the rising tide of political violence in America and the hateful and intolerant speech that appears to incite it, Thomas Schachtman argues that political debates are in danger of moving from the Senate chamber to the streets, taking the social stability needed for a working democracy with it. Blaming this decline on the jargon used by specialists in the professions and academia in order to distinguish superiority over common citizens, Schachtman proposes a concrete multifaceted program for rehabilitating eloquence through the constructive use of media in combination with political and educational reform Speaking in America Harold Barrett,1993 Inviting Understanding Sonja K. Foss,Cindy L. Griffin,2020-08-20 Inviting Understanding A Portrait of Invitational Rhetoric is an authoritative reference work designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the theory of invitational rhetoric developed twenty five years ago by Sonja K Foss and Cindy L Griffin This theory challenges the conventional conception of rhetoric as persuasion and defines rhetoric as an invitation to understanding as a means to create a relationship rooted in equality immanent value and self determination Rather than celebrating argumentation division and winning invitational rhetoric encourages rhetors to listen across differences to engage in dialogue and to try to understand positions different from their own Organized into the three categories of foundations extensions and applications Inviting Understanding is a compilation of published articles and new essays that explore and expand the theory The book provides readers with access to a wide range of resources about this revolutionary theory in areas such as community organizing social justice activism social media film graffiti institutional and team decision making communication and composition pedagogy and interview protocols Dialogic Education Ronald C. Arnett,1993-01-06 Examining undergraduate education from the point of view of a philosopher of communication Ronald C Arnett takes a positive view of higher education during a time when education is being assailed as seldom before Arnett responds to this criticism with convincing support of the academy reinforced by his personal experiences as well as those of others scholars and teachers Arnett s book is an invitation to converse about higher education as well as a reminder of the potential for dialogue between teacher and student dialogue that the author defines as a willingness to enter conversation about ideas to maintain relationships through differences and to ask value questions Arnett see education as more than the dispensing of information He emphasizes the importance of character development as well as the the development of relationships between students and teachers Arnett stresses the importance of honesty and integrity in students teachers and administrators and he insists that education should focus more on the good of the entire school than on the individual Arnett does not offer this book as the truth about education nor as a how to teach manual Rather he regards it as an attempt to understand education from a communication perspective and as a reminder of the positive and constructive aspects of teaching The book is based on Arnett s belief that educators who care about ideas and people not only improve education but also benefit the community Public Speaking Simon & Schuster,1999-09 Public Speaking Steven A. Beebe,Susan J. Beebe,2003 This book is written to be the primary text for a college level public speaking course The authors offer strategies that are anchored in ethical principles to assist speakers in articulating a message that connects with their audience They emphasize that an effective speaker is an ethical speaker Audience centered speakers articulate truthful messages that give audience members free choice in responding to a message while also using effective means of ensuring message clarity and credibility Pref Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1991 PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION SKILLS BEEBE;

IVY;SCHMIDT;CONAWAY;RICHMOND;MCCROSKEY,2001 Public Speaking Clella Iles Jaffe,1995 This text teaches public speaking skills in the context of cultural influences and resources The author addresses the ways in which culture shapes forms of appropriate public speaking as well as how public speaking affects the values attitudes and beliefs that shape cultural spheres of influence Toward the Twenty-first Century Julia T. Wood,Richard B. Gregg,1995 Growing out of a six year process of reflection deliberation and writing and involving over 100 members of the discipline the chapters comprising this book identify and launch reflection about primary questions that must be engaged by research and pedagogy if the field of speech communication is to remain vital in academe and the social world Four questions were identified as fundamental to future research and teaching which reflect the heritage of speech communication and involve the discipline in vigorous dialogue about consequential intellectual and cultural issues They are what do technological developments and changes in the mission and means of communication imply for future teaching and scholarship on speech communication what and whose purposes within and beyond the field do definitions of speech communication serve how does increasing interest in cultural diversity affect research and teaching in speech communication and what relationships exist among communication power and order and how should these issues individually and in tandem be reflected in scholarship and teaching A group of chapters is devoted to exploring each of these questions In recognising what is shared by scholars and teachers in diverse areas and in calling attention to the four issues that will become increasingly prominent in the cultural landscape the chapters spotlight themes and foci germane to the field's health and identity in the years ahead Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 BLL ,1993 CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric, 1991 Gail E. Hawisher,Cynthia L. Selfe,1993 The CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric published for the Conference on College Composition and Communication offers teachers and researchers an annual classified listing of scholarship on written English and its teaching at the college level The 1991 volume lists and annotates 1 925 articles books dissertations and papers that with few exceptions were published during the 1991 calendar year A group of 171 contributing bibliographers prepared the citations and annotations for the entries appearing in this volume The CCCC Bibliography includes an index of authors and editors a subject index and entries cross referenced according to subject matter Considerably more comprehensive than other bibliographies in composition studies the CCCC Bibliography of Composition and Rhetoric draws upon a large group of experts in the field to aid teachers and researchers in sorting through a vast body of interdisciplinary material making their work easier and more effective Annotations accompany all entries in this volume They describe a publication's contents and are intended to help users determine its usefulness Annotations are brief and insofar as the English language allows are meant to be descriptive not evaluative they explain what an entry is about while leaving readers free to judge for themselves the work's merits Most annotations serve one of three functions they present the document's thesis main argument or major research finding they describe the work's major organizational divisions or they indicate the purpose or scope of the work The subject index lists most of the topics discussed in the works cited in this volume Consulting the Subject Index will help users locate sections and subsections containing large numbers of entries addressing the same topic Each document is cited and annotated only once under one of the five major sections of the CCCC Bibliography Each entry however receives an entry number so that cross references to other sections are possible This feature is especially useful because much scholarship in composition and rhetoric is interdisciplinary in nature Cross references appear as a listing of entry numbers preceded by See also found at the end of each subsection Entries appear under five major categories bibliographies and checklists theory and research teacher education administration and social roles curriculum and testing measurement and evaluation Although the CCCC Bibliography excludes master s theses textbooks computer software and book reviews from its coverage it furnishes citations to review essays articles appearing in some 220 journals scholarly monographs and essay collections dissertations abstracted in Dissertation Abstracts International and selected documents and conference materials available through ERIC Arts & Humanities Citation Index,1992 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 Handbook of Rhetorical and Communication Theory Carroll C.
