Santas Cajun Christmas Adventure:

Santa's Cajun Christmas Adventure Tim Edler, 1981-06-01 Classroom Conversations Alexandra Miletta, 2008-10-07

In Classroom Conversations two generations of educators a mother and daughter point us to the great thinkers who have shaped their beliefs and practices in education and who continue to influence teachers today Nineteen essays by educators from Dewey to Delpit offer parents and new educators an education degree in a nutshell The Miletta's frame these touchstone texts with commentary explaining why these writers resonate for them sharing not only the personal meanings they have derived from the selections but why these writings have endured in the field over time Brief biographies set each author in context for the lay reader As educational fads and jargon come and go parents and teachers alike will appreciate and find value in the wisdom distilled here Classroom Conversations will help experienced teachers find renewed meaning in these seminal essays and will help younger teachers discover just how important the work they do can be For parents the book will inform and enrich their understanding of their children's educational experience

The Real Ebonics Debate Theresa Perry, Lisa Delpit, 1998-06-17 In the winter of 1996 the Oakland school board's resolution recognizing Ebonics as a valid linguistic system generated a brief firestorm of hostile criticism and misinformation then faded from public consciousness But in the classrooms of America the question of how to engage the distinctive language of many African American children remains urgent In The Real Ebonics Debate some of our most important educators linguists and writers as well as teachers and students reporting from the field examine the lessons of the Ebonics controversy and unravel the complex issues at the heart of how America educates its children

Other People's Children Lisa Delpit, 2006-08-01 The classic groundbreaking analysis of the role of race in the classroom and a guide for teaching across difference from the MacArthur Award winning educator Phenomenal This book overcomes fear and speaks of truths truths that otherwise have no voice San Francisco Review of Books In this groundbreaking radical analysis of contemporary classrooms MacArthur Award winning author Lisa Delpit develops the theory that teachers must be effective cultural transmitters in the classroom where prejudice stereotypes and assumptions often breed ineffective education Delpit suggests that many academic problems attributed to children of color are actually the result of miscommunication as primarily white teachers educate other people's children and perpetuate the imbalanced power dynamics that plague our system Now a classic of educational thought and a must read for teachers administrators and parents striving to improve the quality of America's education system Other People's Children has sold over 150 000 copies since its original publication Winner of an American Educational Studies Association Critics Choice Award and Choice magazine's Outstanding Academic Book Award this anniversary edition features a new introduction by Delpit as well as important framing essays by Herbert Kohl and Charles Payne

Rethinking Multicultural Education Wayne Au, 2020-11-16 This new and expanded edition collects the best articles dealing with race and culture in the classroom that have appeared in Rethinking Schools magazine With more than 100 pages of new materials Rethinking Multicultural

Education demonstrates a powerful vision of anti racist social justice education Practical rich in story and analytically sharp

Book Review 1 If you are an educator student activist or parent striving for educational equality and liberation Rethinking Multicultural Education Teaching for Racial and Cultural Justice will empower and inspire you to make a positive change in your community Curtis Acosta Former teacher Tucson Mexican American Studies Program Founder Acosta Latino Learning Partnership Book Review 2 Rethinking Multicultural Education is both thoughtful and timely As the nation and our schools become more complex on every dimension race ethnicity class gender ability sexuality immigrant status teachers need theory and practice to help guide and inform their curriculum and their pedagogy This is the resource teachers at every level have been looking for Gloria Ladson Billings Professor Dept Chair Kellner Family Chair in Urban Education University of Wisconsin Madison and author of Dreamkeepers Successful Teachers of African American Children Book Review 3 Rethinking Multicultural Education is an essential text as we name the schools we deserve and struggle to bring them to life in classrooms across the land William Ayers teacher activist award winning education writer and Distinguished Professor of Education and Senior University Scholar at the University of Illinois at Chicago retired Rethinking School Reform Linda Christensen,Stan Karp,2003 Rethinking School Reform puts classrooms and teaching at the center of the debate over how to improve public schools Drawing on some of the best writing from the quarterly journal Rethinking Schools this new collection offers a primer on a broad range of pressing issues including school vouchers and funding multiculturalism standards and testing teacher unions bilingual education and federal education policy Informed by the experience and passion of teachers who walk daily into real classrooms Rethinking School Reform examines how various reform efforts promote or prevent the kind of teaching that can bring equity and excellence to all our children and it provides compelling practical descriptions of what such teaching looks like Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 "Du Chicot" Randall P.
