Novel The Color Purple is the Pulitzer Prize winning story about female African Americans in 1930s southern United States. The story follows Celie, a young girl who begins writing letters to God after her father's abuse. She is forced into a marriage with Mr. Johnson after her father impregnates her twice, presumably killing both children. Celie continues living a life of obedience when she is exposed to Sofia's defiance of Mr. Johnson and his son's attempts to submit her. This results in Sofia moving out and taking her children with her. Meanwhile, Celie grows close to her husband's ill mistress, becoming confused over her feelings for the woman. The story progresses with Celie learning the truth about herself and her troubled past.

About the Novel Inside Out Back Again follows 10-year-old H and her family as they struggle as refugees in 1970s America. The story begins in 1975 Saigon. H's father has been missing for years since leaving to fight in the war of Vietnam. The war is now over, and the Americans are leaving. Communists from the North threaten the family's safety and freedom. They come to the hard decision of leaving their beloved home to seek shelter elsewhere. They settle in America, and with the sponsorship of a kind cowboy, the family starts their new home in Alabama. Their struggles don't stop there, however. Their first task is to learn English. H struggles with this as she enters school in America. She is met with bullies and miscommunication in language and culture. With the help of a kind neighbor, H quickly learns how to survive in her new home. She begins to make friends at school, and her family begins to prosper as well. The day comes when the family must make the difficult decision regarding her father, but nothing will stop them from making the most of their new lives in America.
