Portrait and Biographical Record of Orange County, New York ,1895 Private No More Sharon A. Roger Hepburn,2023-03-15 The John Lovejoy Murray collection of letters contains insights into the experiences of an African American soldier and his regiment during the Civil War John Lovejoy Murray a private in Company E 102nd USCT died of disease in a Charleston hospital on April 12 1865 Through John Murray s letters readers can experience the war through the eyes of a literate northern Black soldier His is the story of the soldiers who did not receive accolades for their heroic actions in battle the ones who spent more time on picket and fatigue duty than on the front lines the ones who died from disease more than they did of battle related wounds Murray s letters are significant because they are ordinary in some respects yet extraordinary in others Some of the activities and sentiments portrayed in the letters are hardly distinguishable from those described in letters written by White soldiers In other ways the letters represent a perspective distinctly from a Black soldier in the Union army Although many of his experiences may have been typical John Lovejoy Murray himself a literate freeborn northern Black man was atypical among Union Black soldiers The Lindgren/Tryon Genealogy J. Ralph

Lindgren,2008-01-24 The revised edition of The Lindgren Tryon Genealogy is leap forward as a family history It carefully documents the often fascinating lives of both ordinary and extra ordinary ancestors The scope and extent of newly discovered forbearers is breathtaking Beside an exhaustive Bibliography and Name Index it also includes a new chapter on genetic origins The first four chapters explore family roots over a wide swath of Europe and the Middle East The time horizon of this family s story spans a breathtaking three and a half millennia back to about 1525 BCE when a man named Cenna and a woman named Neferu both in ancient Egypt married They would become the parents of Queen Tetisheri and the grandparents of Pharaoh Seqenenre Tao II the 5th Pharaoh of the 17th Dynasty of Ancient Egypt Through the intervening 128 generations the reader meets people leading both ordinary and extra ordinary lives From farmers tradesmen poets and professionals to one of the murderers of Bishop Beckett and seven Christian saints from slaves to Kings and Emperors Most were Christian but many were Jewish some Zoroastrian and still others sun worshipers a few were probably Druids The final chapter sketches the genetic context of the family history This sketch runs from the Rift Valley of Africa at about 50 000 years ago to Southern Europe about 20 000 years ago The earliest individuals in these lines known only as Mitochondrial Eve and Eurasian Adam serve to place this family in the vast context of our evolving species Wide Angle(A Psychological Suspense Thriller) Erica R.
